Dear Parishioners

Welcome to Ordinary Time! We began this ordinary time season this past week, ordinary not because it is normal or boring, but because it is ordered – and perhaps in two ways as we speak of the first week, second week, etc. of this season, but it is during this time that we put order to the mysteries we have just celebrated.

When we do so, we find Christmas extended, as we continue to contemplate the mystery of the incarnation, the Lord's revelation to the nations and the first mysteries revealing Him as Lord, and our seeking the deeper meaning of all of that.

as Lord, and our seeking the deeper meaning of all of that.

This week on January 22, we mark the anniversary of the disastrous Roe vs. Wade decision and thankfully recall that this Supreme Court decision has been reversed. The issue of abortion reverted to the States, unfortunately allowing the states to allow abortion. Of course, Minnesota is among the most proabortion, so we have much work to do.

While abortion is legalized in our state, abortion is a moral issue – it is the destruction of an innocent human life. I would hope that too we make abortion not only illegal, but unthinkable. This means we must work for the conversion of hearts as much as conversion of laws. We have great alternatives with Crisis Pregnancy Centers, adoption services, and various other helps.

Part of the other issue is the purposeful embracing of the culture of death. Some recent interviews that I have listened to have pointed out that abortion is a form of child sacrifice. While it might seem a bit reactionary or conspiracy theorist (ironic that one interview was by Mel Gibson, the main actor in a movie named Conspiracy Theory who plays a character whose theories are proven true), there are some hints towards this – satanists tried to sue anti-abortion states for the right to abortion on religious freedom grounds. Indeed, in the more extreme pro-abortion corners, abortion is seen as a quasi-sacrament – a direct mockery of the Eucharist perhaps, as they say, "this is my body."

mockery of the Eucharist perhaps, as they say, "this is my body." Again, to be blunt, it is inconsistent for a Catholic to support abortion. God is the master of life, and we cannot embrace the destruction of innocent life. Ironically, many who might uncritically accept abortion argue against capital punishment. While an issue of life, to impart more rights to a criminal than an innocent unborn child is inconsistent. (Note that the Catholic Stance on capital punishment is nuanced – it is sometimes the only way to protect society from violent criminals, but especially here in the US, our prison systems are secure enough to incarcerate violent criminals from violence to wider society, therefore not necessary.)

So, as we mark the decision and the reversal of Roe vs. Wade, we know that we have much work yet to do.

In Christ, Fr. Todd

HAPPENINGS in our Diocese & Beyond ...

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION – JANUARY

For the Right to an Education ~

Let us pray for migrants, refugees, and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

OPPORTUNITY TO ATTEND A "FORGIVEN RETREAT"

St. Michael Catholic Church in Madison will be hosting an exciting upcoming event called a "Forgiven Retreat."

This half-day retreat will be an opportunity to renew our understanding and love for the Sacrament of Reconciliation (or Confession). Over time, this Sacrament can come to seem like an obligation or something only needed for very big sins.

Join us on Sunday, January 26, at 2:00 pm to be renewed in the gift and to receive deeper healing.

The reality is that the Lord desires to meet us regularly with His mercy and healing and does this in an unparalleled way in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We all have various experiences and misunderstandings surrounding our experience of this Sacrament.

The day will include presentations, shared meals, small groups, Q & A with a priest, and an opportunity to go to Confession and receive prayer with prayer teams during a Eucharistic Holy Hour. See the link to register for free. Please prayerfully consider who in your life you could invite to come with you! https://www.dnu.org/diocesan-events/2025/1/26/forgiven-retreat

FCCLA PROJECT – WoMen's Rural Advocacy Program Collection
