2010 Leonine

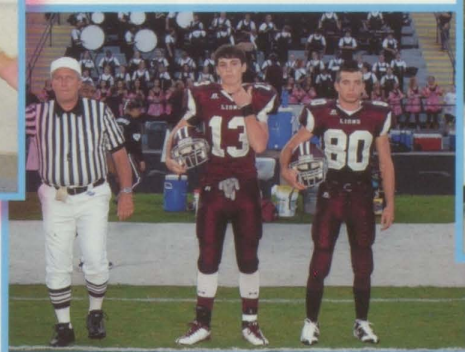

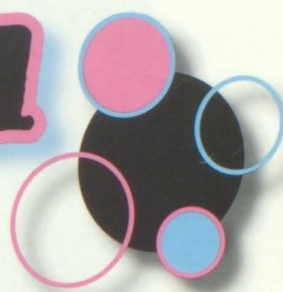

Mrs. Linda Morris is a dedicated teacher who loves her job at Central High School. She is the sponsor of Future Business Leaders of America and Student Council. Mrs. Morris is always in the hallway with her bright, shining face to greet students as they pass by. She is known for her superior knowledge of computers and her willingness to help students succeed even after graduation. Mrs. Morris encourages her FBLA members to participate in statewide competitions to prepare them for the business world after high school. Along with her crazy sayings of "Cool Beans" and "Too Cool for School" we have all had many laughs with her. She is a huge fan of SpongeBob, Disney Princesses, the Georgia Bulldogs, and the Central Lions. The class of 2010 is honored to dedicate this yearbook to...

There's a new me coming out.
And i just had to live.
And i wanna give.
I'm completely positive.
I think this time around
I am gonna do it.
Like you never do it.
Like you never knew it.
Ooh, I'll Make it through.

The time has come for me
To break out of the shell.
I have to shout that I'm coming out.

I'm coming out.
I want the world to know.
Got to let it show.
I'm coming out.
I want the world to know.
I got to let it show.

Governor's Honors Program

Jarod Boles

Jarod Boles attended the Governor's Honors Program in the summer of 2008 for Music. He plays the string bass, and his immense talent admitted him into the program. He felt as though he gained an energized work ethic and furthered his musical ability tremendously through his strenuous schedule while in Valdosta. His favorite part of the experience was working with students who appreciated and enjoyed music as much as he did. "The fro-yo wasn't too bad either," he exclaimed. "I can honestly say that GHP was one of the best experiences in my life."

Abby Whorton attended the Governor's Honors Program at Valdosta State University in the summer of 2008 for six weeks.

She studied in the area of Communicative Arts and minored in Dance. "G.H.P. changed my life and is an experience that I will never forget."

Abby Whorton

2010 G.H.P. Candidates

The following students are candidates for the opportunity to represent Central High School at the 2010 Governor's Honors Program. All of these outstanding students will have a state interview where they share their enthusiasm and knowledge of their respective areas, and they will hope to be chosen to attend the program this summer at Valdosta State University. F to B: Raven Jackson will be interviewed for Spanish. Ariel Jones has been nominated for Voice. Jimmy Beck has been nominated for Executive Management. Bethany Carnes will attend state interviews in the area of Science. Kaitlyn Jackson, Morgan Driscoll, and Holden Blunski will interview for Communicative Arts.

In Loving Memory

Macy Elizabeth Denney

March 26, 1991 - May 10, 2009

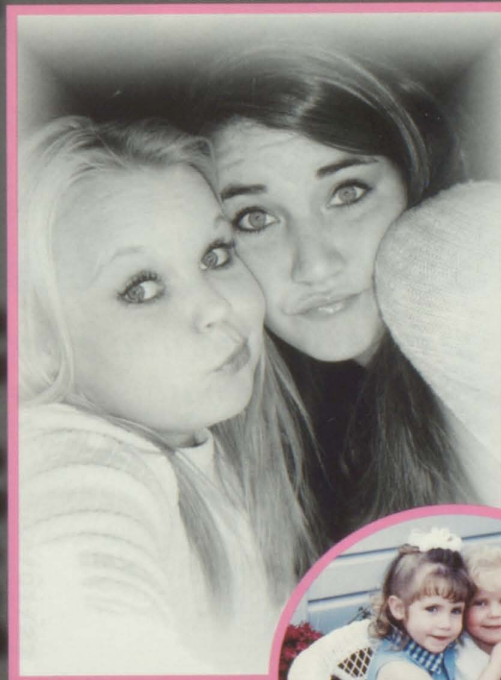

Ben, Macy, Walt, Pam, Tyler, Greg, and David Denney

Macy and David Denney

Macy was not only my cousin, she was my best friend. I miss all the great times we had together watching movies, talking on the phone, or just playing on the computer at my house. Macy wasn't someone that you had to entertain. She was fine with lying on the bed talking or even just taking a nap with me! Macy loved to laugh. We had so many inside jokes it was ridiculous. Just hearing her silly giggle would make me laugh too. I am thankful that she loved to take pictures because I spend a lot of time looking at them and remembering the good times that we had. It's crazy to think about how much pain Macy could handle. I know she felt bad plenty of times, but she rarely showed it. She loved life and lived it to the fullest. She was such an amazing person. I still get sad and cry when I think about her. Everything I do triggers a memory of her. There is a hole in our family that can never be filled. I love you Mace ... I miss you like crazy, but I know you're smiling saying, "Don't worry 'bout me."

It was only for a moment you were mine to hold
 The plans that heaven has for you
 Will all too soon unfold
 So many different prayers I'll pray
 For all that you might do
 But most of all I'll always know
 You're walking in the truth
 May passion be the wind
 That leads you through your days
 And may conviction keep you strong
 Guide you on your way
 I pray that God will fill your heart with dreams
 And that faith gives you the courage
 To dare to do great things
 I'm here for you whatever this life brings
 So let my love give you roots
 And help you find your wings
 It's not living if you don't reach for the sky
 I'll have tears as you take off
 But I'll cheer as you fly

We love you, and we are so very proud of you,
 Mama, Daddy, and Amanda

I remember what seems not so long ago, the very day that you were born. I remember holding you in my arms in disbelief, staring at you wondering what will become of you. I've watched you grow over the years from this tiny infant to a young beautiful woman. I can look into your eyes and see the dreams and goals that you want to achieve. I also look into your eyes and see fear. I'm sure you think that fear is wondering what you'll become ... simple you'll be a strong, independent, and successful woman. Remember, your life will have many walls to climb, but if you stay focused there will be nothing that you can't achieve in life. I've always wondered did I do enough for you. Was I there for you? Then I go back and remember, that day not so long ago that you changed my life forever. Cheyanna, you will always be my little girl, so go out and take life by the horns and achieve your goals.

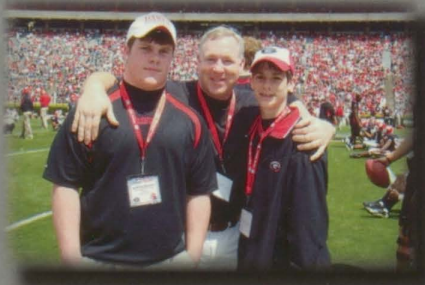

Love you,

Blake,

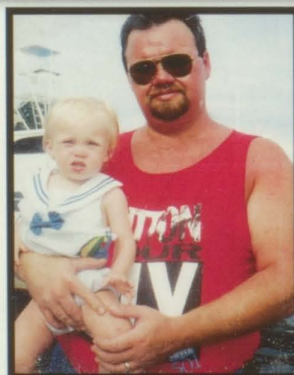

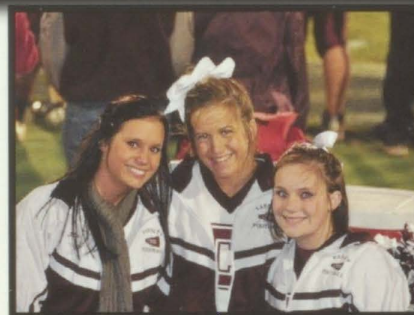

You are our first born - our pride and joy. You make us laugh, you make us cry, but most of all, you make us really proud. Now it is your turn to step out in this world and live your dreams. Be the success you have always wanted to be, but remember through it all, we will always be with you and be proud of you.

Love forever and always, Blakie!

Mallory Skye, Since the day you came into our lives, we have been so proud! It seems like yesterday that we covered you up with that little yellow blanket your first night home, we first saw you on the balance beam and when you dumped it for cheering. The days of t-ball and softball with the Whitesburg Bulldogs were a blast, and the days and memories go by way too fast. There's never enough time to tell the people you love how much they mean to you but being a part of you and this amazing journey through your life means everything, and it always will. You make our world go 'round! We love you, Dad and Mom

Taylor Paige Jiles

We are so proud of the accomplishments you have made and will make in the future. It seems like over night you have grown from a sweet, little baby into a mature, young woman. Most parents would love to have a daughter like you and we were blessed with that privilege. Never change your personality or caring heart. Always remember how much we love you. Good Luck!

Empty your mind, be formless, shapeless--like water.
 Now you put water into a cup, it becomes the cup.
 You put water into a bottle, it becomes the bottle,
 You put it in a teapot, it becomes the teapot.
 Now water can flow or it can crash Be water my friend

Dear God,

CLASS OF 2010

He's still learning how to pray
 Trying hard not to stray
 Trying to see things Your way
 He's still learning how to pray

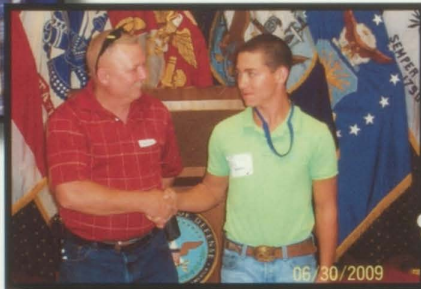

He's still learning how to trust
 So hard for him to open up
 He would do anything for his country and us
 He's still learning how to trust

He's still learning how to bend
 How to let You in

He's young and wants to conquer all his fears
 To the very end.

He's still learning how to fly
 He wants to go so high
 He will be there to the end
 He will always be a son, brother, and a friend.
 He's still learning how to fly.

He's trying hard to understand
 It's all in Someone else's hands
 There's a bigger plan
 That he doesn't need to understand.

All Our Love,
 Mom and Dad

"In my daughter's eyes, everyone is equal. Darkness turns to light. And the world is at peace. This miracle God gave to me, Gives me strength when I am weak, I find reason to believe, in my daughter's eyes. In my daughter's eyes, I can see the future. A reflection of who I am, And what will be. And though she'll grow and, some day, leave: Maybe raise a family. When I'm gone, I hope she'll see, How happy she made me, For I'll be there, in my daughter's eyes."
