One first look at America...One last look at Central High!

Foreign exchange student Stephanie Hecht is from Berlin, Germany. Stephanie's first impression of Central High was the size. Stephanie quotes "I've never seen a school this BIG or with this many lockers! Everyone is so helpful and friendly! There is a much bigger variety of activities here." At Stephanie's school back in Berlin, she has 13 classes and high school consists of grades 7th-13th! Weird huh?

Foreign exchange student Miko Arita is from Japan. Miko says "People are so tall and scary here. There are also a variety of different ethnic backgrounds. In Japan, most everyone is Asian. We have no lockers and we have 10 minutes between class periods. We have one big textbook with many different subjects compiled inside."

Yearbook staff asked CHS students: If you could change one thing about the SAT what would it be and why?

I would have taken the ACT instead!

"To pass the TAST!"
translation: To pass the TEST!

"Nothing, thanks for asking!"

"It would be fantastic if they could DUMB down the questions, because they were hard!" Evan Roach.

"The importance of the SAT. Some people are horrible test takers. One test cannot determine whether a student will do well in college or not." Jon Christian

I would change it to the AST because it sounds wicked cooler than SAT or something stupid like that!

"The time it started- 9:00 am on a Saturday morning is FAR too early to be productive!"

What is Drama?...

...drama is the route to a beautiful escape. Where you get to step outside of yourself momentarily and be another.

ADMINISTRATION
FACULTY
STAFF

They may be small in stature, but they're big in HEART!

Ms. Harper, Ms. Stewart, Ms. Morris, Ms. Camp, Ms. Young, Ms. Duffey, and Ms. Moon

Principal Mrs. Gail Stewart

Having put her rookie year behind her, Ms. Stewart began her second year as principal of CHS by giving us a new vision--Learning First. Her dedication to this vision and to the students of Central have reaped rewards in higher test scores and renewed pride in our school.

Mr. Micheal Angresano

Mr. Angresano, our very own "Godfather," also begins his second year at Central. His no-nonsense approach to discipline and instructional issues reminds us of one of our favorite "Dragnet" characters, Sgt. Joe Friday.... "just the facts, ma'am, just the facts!"

COUNSELORS

Ms. Donna Rivera

Ms. Susan Bradley

Ms. Julie Good

SECRETARIES

Ms. Wanda Akin

Ms. Sandy Ware

Ms. Sandy Duffey

RESOURCE OFFICER

Mr. Robert Lee

Mr. Shannon Christian

Mr. Christian, one of our rookies this year, may be new but he's tough. Watch out for his "hasta la vista, baby" approach to parking violators--and teachers should expect no exceptions!!

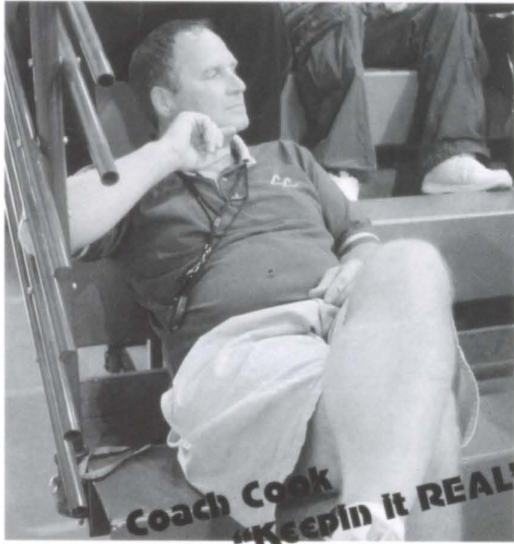

Ms. Deaidra Wilson

Ms. Wilson, also a rookie this year, has had "trial by fire" this year as the 9th grade administrator. Her sense of humor and her smile have won over both students and teachers. But be careful, she may speak softly but she MEANS what she says!

What was Central like when you started teaching here?

Ms. Burns "Central was K-12. There was no air conditioning and the heat came from the floors. Students were allowed to run errands and could drive on field trips."

Mr. Poe "Central was much smaller than it is now. The halls were not nearly as crowded. There was much more school pride. Eighth graders still went here."

Ms. Elarbee "Fifth through twelfth graders came to this building. The media center and bottom hall wasn't built yet. We had a faculty meeting everyday. There was a dance after every game and a pep rally every week."

Ms. Wilkins "Nineteen, eighty-one was a lot of fun. We had pep rallies every week. The rules were much more strict. There was a smoking area in the teacher's lounge. We had talent shows that were good; I always looked forward to coming to school."

Ms. Hembree "In 1976, I started teaching here. Central was a lot smaller than it is now. There was more of a family atmosphere back then."

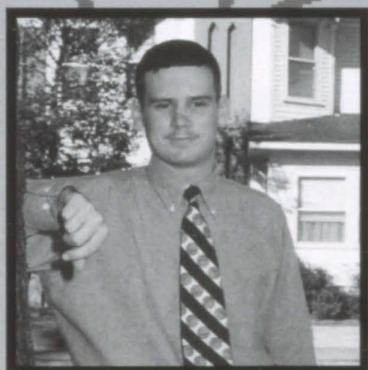

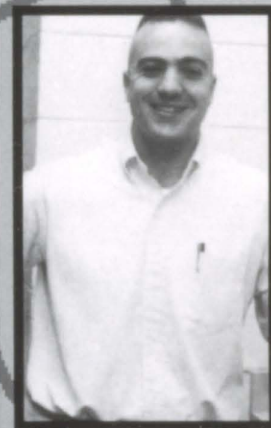

Ms. Christian "The hallways were carpeted. The renovation on the front office had started. The counselors office and library were where the art room is now. The cafeteria had a stage at one end."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

THE
2005

High School is full of politics and favoritism so don't take things to heart.

--Jane Drammeh

Make the grade, have fun, and stop using stink bombs.

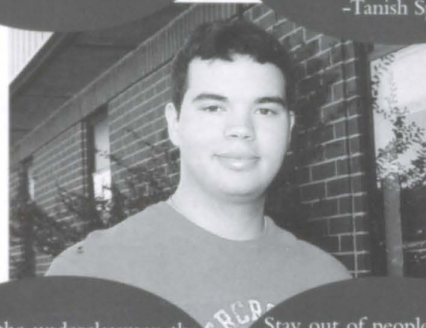

--Destin Vaughn

To the underclassmen of CHS, I leave you the thing I cherish the most: CONFIDENCE. If you don't believe in yourself, who will?

--Tanish Springer

Life's a dance; you learn as you go.

--Brooke Tolleson

Give teachers the benefit of the doubt. Remember they were once teenagers too!

--Anonymous

I leave the underclassmen the will and power to accomplish their goals. Don't EVER let anyone tell you that you're not going to make it.

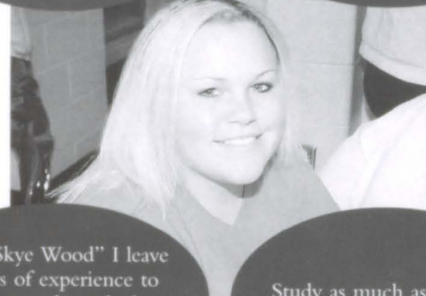

--Shelli Reed

Stay out of people's business! If they want you to know, they will tell you, and if someone tells you something, don't go run your mouth!

--Kaila North

Have fun, study hard, and know there are only a few years left, so make the most of them!

--Kristan Johnson

Always have fun with your friends and never forget them.

--Anonymous

To "Skye Wood" I leave my years of experience to help you get through the next 3 years.

--Joyce Thompson

Study as much as you can...it will pay off!

--Kelli Haynes

For the freshmen, loosen up and have some fun. Don't be so scary.

--Samantha Sanders

Keep your head up high. Never give up!

--Elizabeth Higginbotham

Stay away from ALL casseroles in the cafeteria.

--Valerie Mayben

I, the genius of the senior class, leave each underclassman the privilege and honor to have known me.

--Jon W. Christian

To Swanna Moore, keep your head up and make good grades.

--A friend

TAYLOR

A Touch of Love

You were six months old and full of fun.
With a blink of my eye, you were suddenly one.
There were so many things we were going to do,
But I turned my head and you turned two.
At two you were very dependent on me,
But independence took over when you turned three.
Your third birthday, another year I tried to ignore,
But when I lit the candles, there weren't three, but four.
Four was the year that you really strived.
Why, look at you now, you're already five.
Now you are ready for books and for rules.
This is the year that you go to school.
The big day came, you were anxious to go.
We walked to the bus, going oh, so slow.
As you climbed aboard and waved goodbye,
I felt a lump in my throat and tears stung my eyes.
Times goes so fast, it's hard to believe
That just yesterday you were home here with me.
And tomorrow when the bus brings you home
And you jump to the ground,
You'll be wearing your cap and graduation gown.
So I'm holding to these moments as hard as I can,
Because the next time I look,
I'll be seeing a man.

When I asked God to put something into my life after your brother and sister were at the age they didn't need me anymore, who would have thought it would be a little boy who would grow up to be, "The Most Talented Senior of 2005." Your singing makes my heart melt, your acting in always takes me into the place you are at that time. The way your face looks so happy when you're helping all the students at your Karate class, it's obvious you love being their instructor. All this and the fact that you love your church and love singing for the Lord. Your funny sense of humor has a way of making us all laugh when we are sad. When the doctors told us eighteen years ago that maybe we shouldn't try to have you because we both could die, boy, I am so thankful to God that I never listened. Look what the world would have missed! "Remember it was my song that made you sing!"

I'll be there. I love you,

You were the son I'd dreamed of
Not ashamed to be mama's boy
Hugging me in front of your friends
You filled my heart with joy.

You were your dad's best friend
Always by his side
Hunting, working, on the football field
Filling his heart with pride.

You were the brother on the lookout
Making sure no one got too close
There was no one quite good enough
You would always boast.

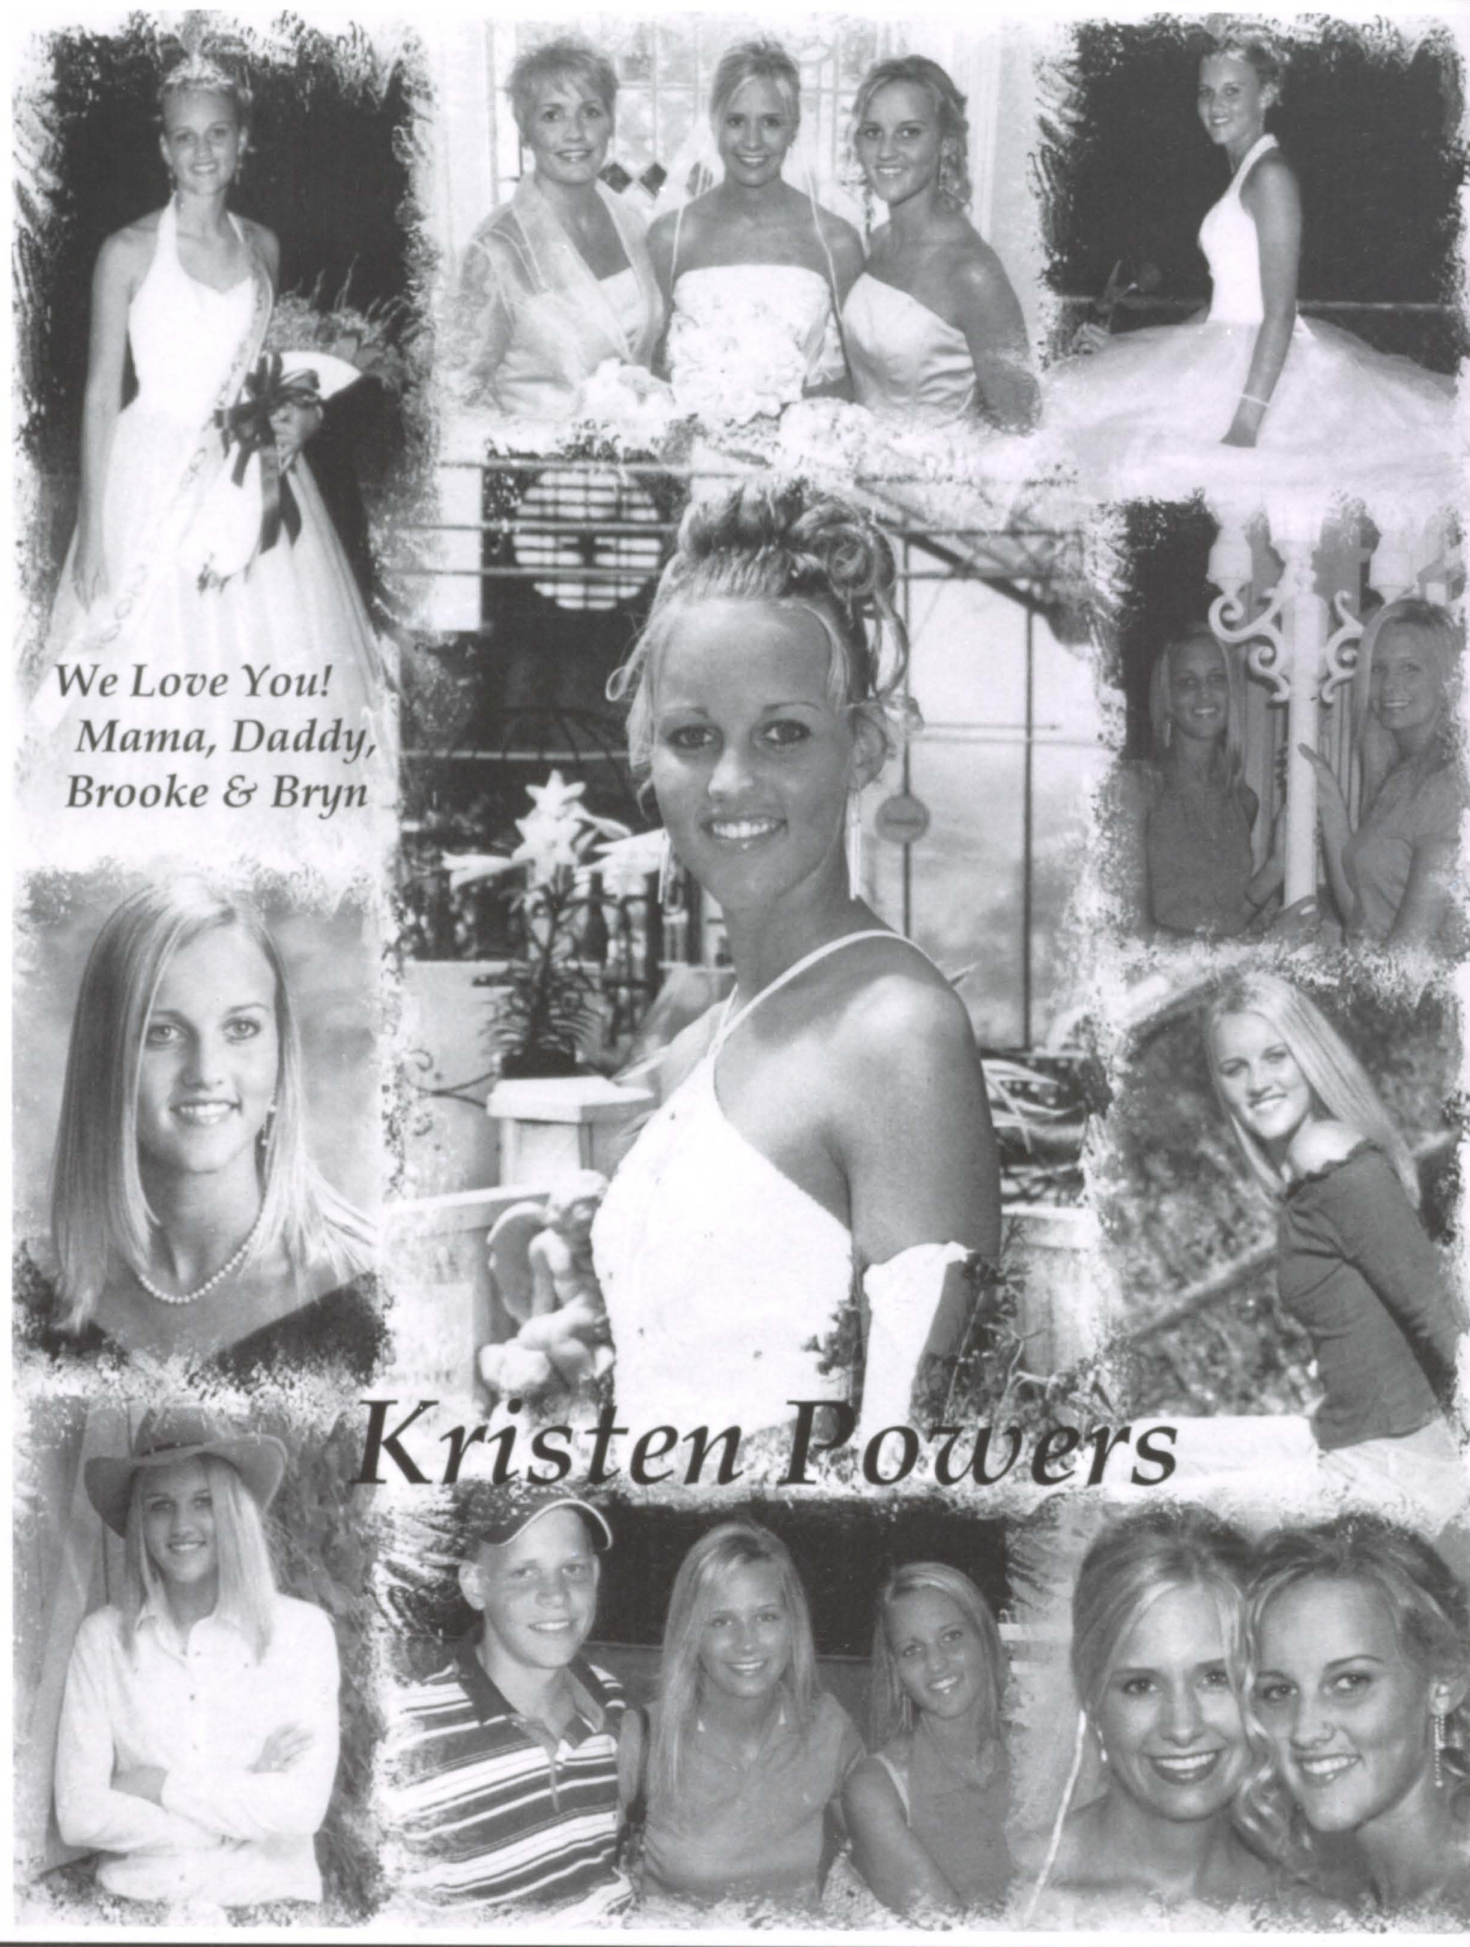

You were a grandson kind and gentle
A cousin who shared many laughs
A nephew who was looked up to
A hero to those from your past.

You had many friends in your short life
They're so special to me somehow.
My heart aches to see them growing up
Wondering what you'd look like now.

You had many dreams left unfulfilled
And Blake so did we.
Yet the Lord comforts us daily
With the number 83.

You were a young man who loved the Lord
In him you were so bold.
A commitment made - a promise kept
We'll meet on those streets of gold!

We miss you Blake

Words could never fully express how much I love you or how proud you have always made me. As you stand at the precipice of a new and exciting chapter of your life, I wish for you all the wonderful and exciting joys that lie ahead.

All my love always,
Mom

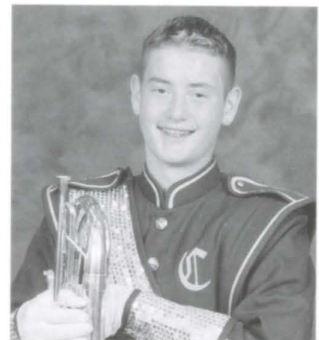

"Our Little Cowboy"
His wooden horse is put away,
His guns hang on the door.
His boots and spurs stand idle now,
He'll ride the range no more.

His cowboy hat just gathers dust,
Since last he let it fall.
No longer will his battle cry,
Echo down the hall.

We remember still his curly hair,
All tousled up from play,
And how he'd beg,
Just one more hour when
Bedtime came each day!

Our Pecos Bill no longer drives
The outlaws from the land.
He's laid his badge and vest away
And grown into a man!

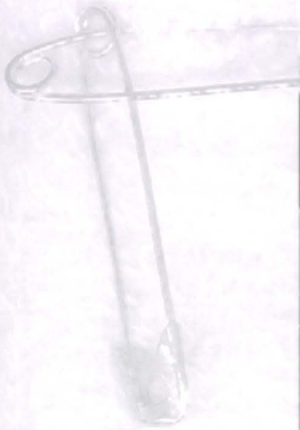

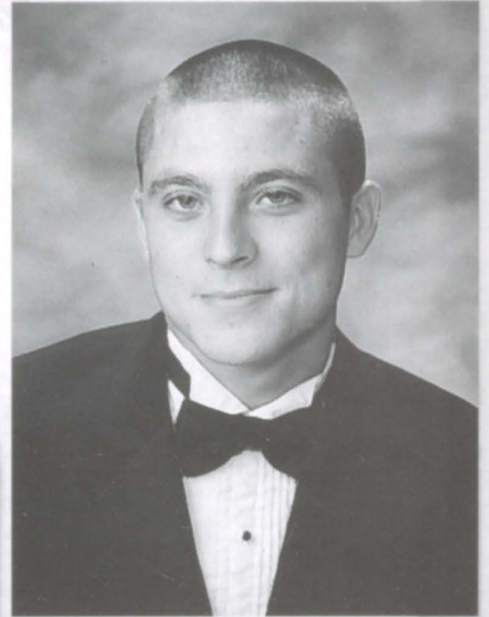

Son,
May your future be as fulfilling
As you have made our lives!
Love,
Dad, Mom, Brandy & Maw-Maw

God has really blessed our family, but the best blessing was the day you were born. Your mom and I are so thankful for the joy you have given us through the years.

Now as time continues to fly by and you begin to spread your wings I pray you continue to keep God first in your life. Remember these verses; Philippians 3:14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Jesus Christ. Philippians 4:13 I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me. Hold these next to your heart. God can see you through every situation that arises in your life. We are so proud of you and we love you very much.

Mom and Dad

Sarah,

I can't believe that the time has come for you to graduate. It seems like yesterday when we were taking baths together and having Barney birthday parties. You have come from driving me crazy (like my girls do you) to becoming my best friend. I am proud to call you my sister. I love you. Renee

We love you Sarah!

Jeb,

It's unbelievable to think so much time has gone by. So many times you have made me laugh until I cried, & cry tears of joy. I am so proud of you and your accomplishments. Keep your head high, your mind clear & focused, and I know you will be whatever God wants you to be. Most of all just be happy. I know your mom would be proud of you too!
With all my love, Faye

We are all very proud of you and for you.

*A baby boy, the answer to their prayers,
so joyous, two parents with love ready to share.
God sent to them a blessing from above,
a bundle of happiness, a lifetime of love.*

*The tears began to flow, as God stopped by,
and took the beautiful Mother to his home in the sky.
Left with his Daddy to raise all alone,
so sadly he took his little bundle home.*

*Dad worked hard to provide best he could, doing everything that he knew he should.
As the little boy grew he was told of his Mom and her life, how God took her to be his angel, how Dad also lost his wife.*

*Many years have passed now and the memories are still there, a young man he has become, and still a heart full of care.
His Mother is an angel still, watching him every day, so proud she must be, a wonderful young man, I must say.*

*This child has lost his Mom before he could even understand,
and still he has become such a wonderful young man.
I know your angel's been watching, and guiding you through,
She's such a lucky angel, yes, your Mom's watching over you.*

Jeb,

When the game of life has thrown you a punch you have always thrown two punches back. Keep this attitude and your faith in God and you will greatly succeed. I love you,
