HEMINGWAY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENT ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE STATE JUNIOR BETA CLUB

Students from Hemingway Elementary School participated in this year's State Convention in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina January 17-19th. Fifth-grade student Aubree Lewis was elected as the President of the South Carolina Jr. Beta Club. Aubree Lewis was inaugurated as President of the National Junior Beta Club of South Carolina during one of the final sessions. Ms. Lewis also placed 3rd in the Jewelry competition. Aubree is active in the Hemingway Elementary School student body serving the Junior Beta Club and Student Council. Aubree states, "The Beta Club experience was exciting, we learned a lot, explored new things, and made new friends. Attending the convention the first time you may be a little nervous, but once you get used to it will become easy. As president, I am going to always try my best and make sure that everyone's voice is heard." Ms. Aubree Lewis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony and Samantha Lewis of Hemingway, South Carolina.

The National Beta Club is the largest independent, non-profit, educational youth organization in America, and is dedicated to leading by serving others. The Beta Club community recognizes high academic achievement, rewards and nurtures worthy character, fosters leadership skills, and encourages service to others. The National Beta Club State Convention featured a wide range of individual and team competitions. There was a competition for any area of student interest. Categories included:

Academic Tests | Visual Arts | Performing Arts | S.T.E.M. Competitions | State Office Positions
