MITZI MURPHY AVOYELLES PARISH STUDENT OF THE YEAR

Mitzi was chosen from the Senior Class to represent Bunkie High as its Student of the Year. She then proceeded to competition at the parish level where she was interviewed by a panel of educators. Upon looking at her biography — which includes achievements such as serving as Student Council Vice President during her junior and senior years, being a member of Beta for four years and of SADD for three, and dancing on the Dance Line each of her years at BHS, including serving as Dance Line Captain as both a junior and a senior — it is easy to understand why Mitzi was also named AVOYELLES PARISH STUDENT OF THE YEAR. We applaud her success.

MR. and MISS BUNAVOLA

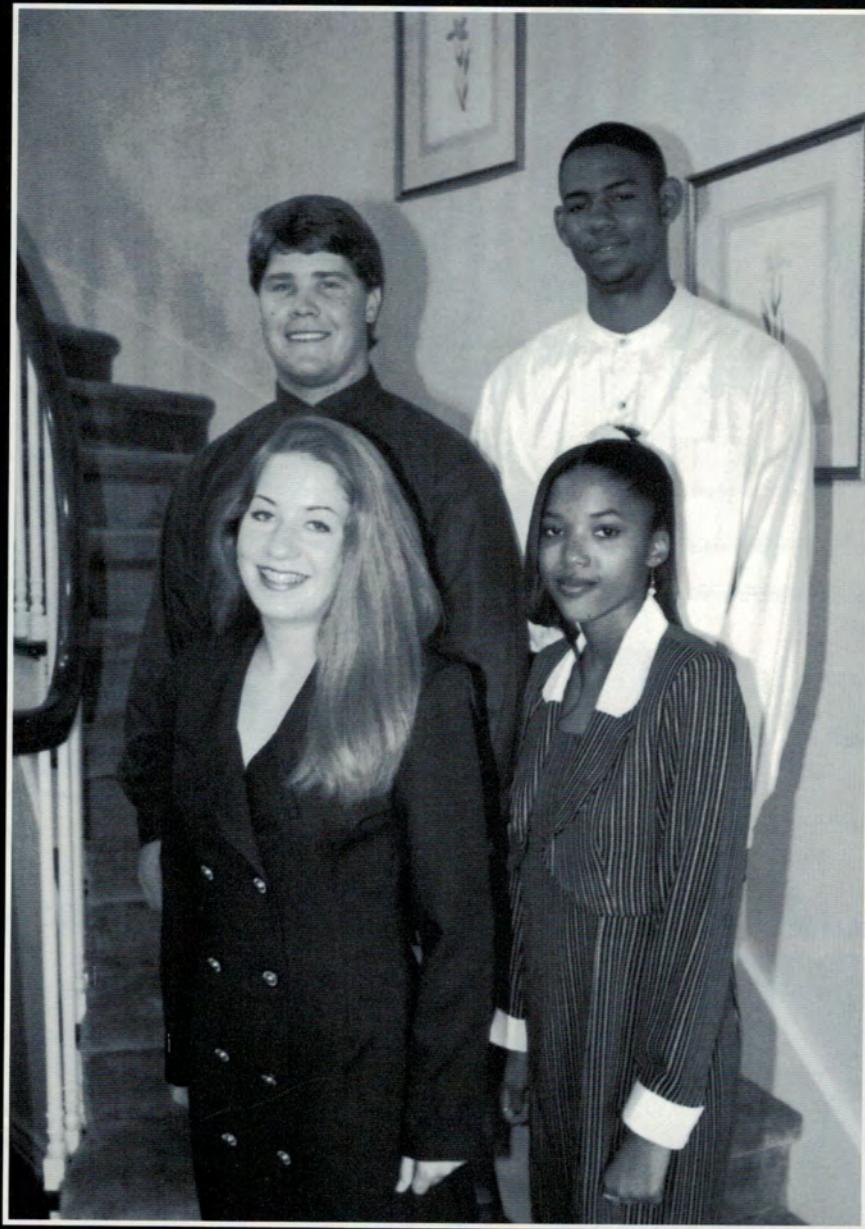

Mitzi Murphy & Tommy Webb

In 1984, Tommy and Mitzi first practiced to become Mr. and Miss Bunavola of the 95-96 school year.

Most of the Seniors come together to keep warm and to bond on a cold day.

The Senior girls work really hard on their Homecoming float on Camouflage day of Spirit Week. They just HAVE TO WIN!

Everybody say, "HOMECOMING!" and maybe we will be put in the yearbook.

Dwaine, watch out for that bird flying around the gym; it just might doo-doo on your shaved head.

Most of Mr. Elmer's first hour class are paying attention and don't notice that we have captured them with our supersonic lens camera.

Lori, Lauren, Mary, Courtney, and Susan gather together for a senior yearbook picture so that at their 20-year class reunion they can remember "the good old days."

These senior boys know that the end of their high school years is near because they're shown here waiting in line to take their SENIOR PORTRAITS!!

Heather and Crystal both do a good job of showing an important aspect of their high school education — BEING A GREAT FRIEND!

Yes, they're off to see the Wizard, the wonderful Wizard of Oz, but — instead of traveling down the yellow brick road — they're traveling on the yellow school bus.

Tomika and the rest of the gang are excited about taking a picture, but McCoy looks a little too excited — or maybe a little grossed out, huh?

We HAD to take a picture of this — Dwaine is actually studying for a test! Every day, something truly amazing happens.

Candy and Natalie wait patiently for the photographer to take their senior portraits. Looks like Candy got a head start at home in the beautification process.

Dezria must know something we don't, because every single time we see him, he's smiling gleefully.

The senior girls are really anxious about winning a Pep Rally, but who's that flashing a Marksville High School sign? Tiger Country . . . we don't believe so!

Glynnis, are you just that delicious?

Lonnie pr vaulting c shouldn't

Glynnis, is the food that good, or are you just that hungry? Or is it that delicious Taco Bell menu?

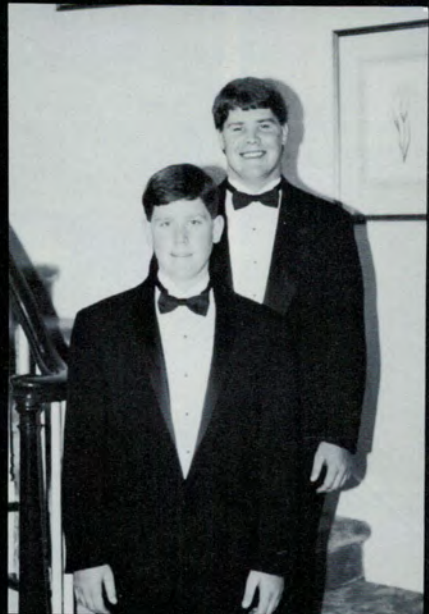

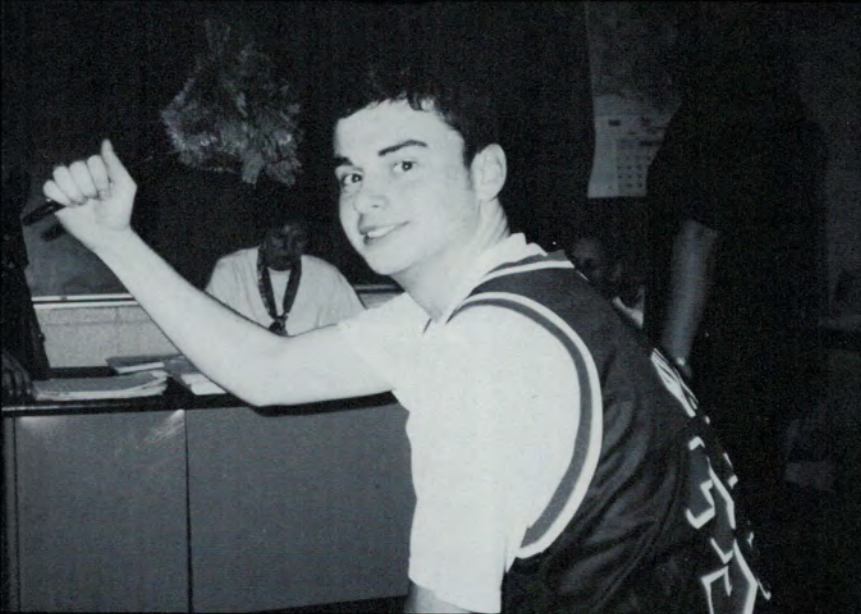

Well, at least there is one person at BHS who has a clean locker. Maybe some of our messier students could take "clean lessons."

Brandon Horton is on his break from his major clean up in Mrs. LeDuc's computer room. What do you make an hour, Brandon?

Big Senior Tommy and Little Freshman Johnny are all dressed up for the first day of school to try to impress their teachers.

Lonnie practices for the poll vaulting competition. Wait . . . shouldn't he be outside?

After finally passing his driver's test, Rodrick invites Carl to go out this Friday night cruisin' for babes.

Here it is lunch time, and these senior girls are already waiting for the bus at 3:21! Kinda anxious, huh?

Paul and Tucker both wear smiles of satisfaction. Why? Just look where they're sitting.

At the Moonlight Madness Dance (by the light of the golden moon), these girls went into a trance — to DANCE!

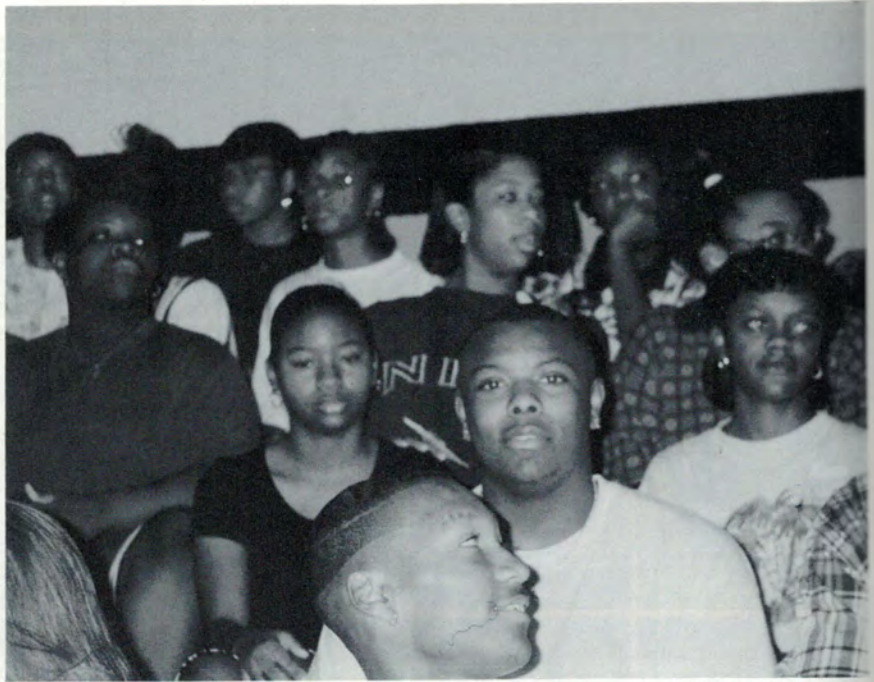

As light as Stephanie is, she can walk on air. Yea, Right!!! Where's that hidden cable?

While suffering from amnesia, Michelle takes on the identity of Elly Mae Clampette and looks for her critters to take to the cement pond.

All alone in the courtyard, Mooie thinks about her plans for the weekend and wonders if Friday will ever arrive.

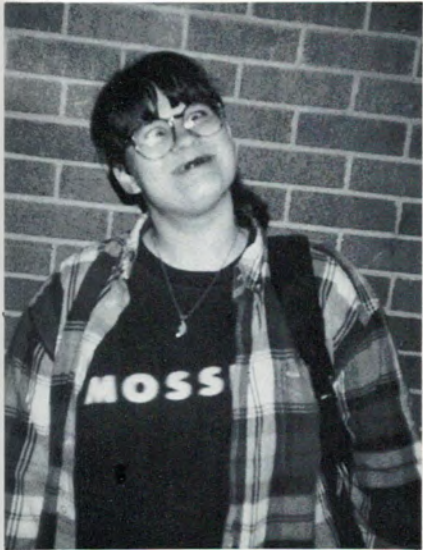

After receiving a sewing lesson from Mrs. Pam, Tammie joins with TAZ to create some boxers for herself.

On the w
shows us

On the way to her dental appointment, Erica shows us the reason for her visit.

Jackie wakes up from a mini-coma caused by donating a "mere" pint of blood to United Blood Services.

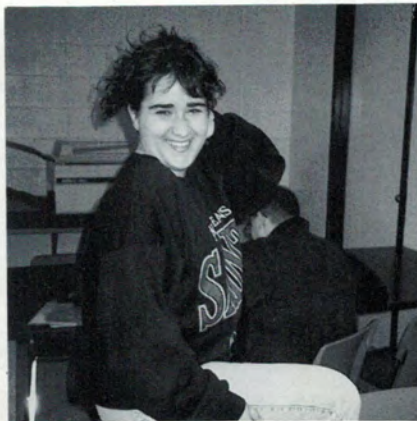

By the time we got to this picture, we were so tired of making up captions that we said "Big Fiery Hole with it." Just read the sign!

Willie has so much confidence in his lucky gold tooth that he decides to bring two young ladies to the dance. Go, Willie! Go, Willie!

Scott, Chris, and Scott try their darnedest to behave themselves (a really rare occasion) in case Mr. Yilk looks their way.

Melinda sports her bodacious good looks as she waits for Mrs. Doucet to sign her note to get out of Mrs. Murdock's class to work on the yearbook.

Anxious for a white Christmas, Holly, Alyson, Keith, and Rachel help Mother Nature by using canned snow.

After devising a plan to get out of their school work, Alan and Shawn try hard to keep it a secret.

So pleased with his performance at halftime, Chris decides to stop to let one of the yearbook staff members take his picture.

Not satisfied with simply smelling Stephanie's hair, Keith decides to taste it, too.

Trading hair tips, Michael and Kenny learn the fine art of making ponytails.

It may look like a regular conversation, but Ashley and Heather are actually planning to take over the school.

Looks like a class we'd like to be in; wouldn't you?

After taking lessons from Rue Paul, Carl decides to "Work it, Girl!"

After bringing home the bacon, Bradley and Jeremy decide to rest awhile with their sweeties.

Ah Ha! Olivia and Sallie, we have finally caught you eating the food you claim you don't eat because it is too fattening.

Courtney, Holly, Amy, and Laura snuggle up at a Friday night football game to keep their warm smiles for the football players.

The sophomores run amuck in the courtyard in the same place they claimed as freshmen.

This brat pack is back on patrol at BHS issuing citations to students for Big Hair, Bad Clothes, Body Odor, and Bad Breath. They simply won't tolerate it.

Tucker and T give a new meaning to the word friendship after fighting for attention from the camera.

Ava and Kylie work together to wrap every boy at BHS around their little pinkies.

Mrs. Doucet can't leave her class for one minute, or they behave like regular little ol' rascals. (Not really, Mrs. Doucet only teaches angels who polish their halos at the start of every class.)

No matter what grade they're in, or where they'll be years from now, the students from the Hessmer Community will always stay together through thick and thin, best of friends.

Kelly is at school bright and early every morning to get a head start on all that homework Mrs. Doucet assigns for first hour.

Amy, Ashley, Kristen, and Lauren recently became backup singers for Alanis Morissette. Here they are filming a segment of her newest video.

Jeremy and Alan look really excited to be taking a picture for the Bunavola, but Courtney seems to be in another world.

Judging from the looks on their faces, Torrey and Kendric must be having one of those, "Momma said there'd be days like this" days.

These girls "thought" they had spirit until the Seniors forced them into BHS's School of Spirit, and here they are on their graduation day.

Nicole decides to stop eating when she sees the camera. She doesn't want anyone to know she ate the tuna fish.

Mandy and Brooke try to teach Casey their danceline kicks for Friday night's football game.

The Ag crew has just come back from the daily hunt and has already given their kill to the lunchroom ladies.

Lakeiosha reveals her beauty secrets, specially those for hair styling, to Tiffany and Tomeka.

Jacques turns on his "studly charm" while the freshmen await instructions from him how to get their picture in the yearbook as many times as he does.

Jody makes a horrifying face after leaving the cafeteria. He had his mouth ready for fried chicken, but he got a Spam sandwich instead.

Caleb takes a break from looking at the '95 yearbook to get into a class picture for the '96 yearbook.

WANTED: The name of this person and why he is making this face!! Maybe he's from another planet!! Has anyone at BHS ever seen him before?

In Ms. Keller's P.E. class, Damien looks shocked at the questions being asked regarding personal hygiene. And in front of those girls, no less!

Tametria looks extremely happy to be at school — a typical freshman mistake. Maybe the upperclassmen should tell her about the rough times ahead.

"But Mom, I really, really don't feel good enough to stay at school and take my math test."

Paige and Heidi show everybody that being the last ones to leave the bus has one advantage: you get your picture in the yearbook.

These real STUD MEN are representative of all the handsome hunks in BHS's class of 1999.

Evelyn, you have to take your gum out of your mouth before we will take your picture for the Who's Who section of the yearbook.

Ms. Wolfe's third hour class learned this today: When a yearbook picture is being taken, everyone should get together and pose.

On the first day of school, the freshmen quickly find out what high school FUN is really all about.

BHS's LEADERS: 31 YEARS COMBINED ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Tom Roy has been the principal of Bunkie High School for six complete school years since July, 1990. His student body consists of six hundred fifty students, and his faculty and staff of forty-three teachers, four aides, and three custodians. Mr. Roy has stated that seeing students spend four years here, graduate, go into various careers, and become successful are just a few of the good things about being a principal. Kelly Fuller has served Bunkie High School for twenty-five years. He says that the downside of his job is dealing with some parents who are difficult and refuse to understand. His job consists of all phases of the education setting at Bunkie High.

MR. THOMAS B. ROY, PRINCIPAL

Mr. Roy attends all extra-curricular activities at B.H.S., in addition to all of those during school.

Mr. Fuller is often in the halls performing his duties by keeping the students in line.

PAWPRINT

The editor of the PAW PRINT, Shawn Pujol, works diligently to produce a monthly newspaper. Assisting him in a large way is Cordell Guillory, co-editor. Also contributing are Sallie Moulard and Shasta Plauche, assistant editors; Leah Gauthier, treasurer and advertisement executive; and various staff writers, all of whom are pictured here. Advising them is Mrs. Alisa Lowery.

The officers of the 4-H Club, seated on the first row from left to right, are Nicole Dufour, president; Crystal Normand, vice president; Cordell Guillory, secretary; Jenny Spencer, treasurer; Candy Pearce and Travis Dufour, parliamentarians; and Kelli Earles, Shawn Pujol, and Lakeythia Guillory, entertainment leaders. Seated behind them are the club members and their sponsor, Ms. Pat Soileau. The club is an extremely busy and successful one with the top four parish offices being held by officers of this club: Nicole Dufour, parish president (pictured here campaigning); Cordell Guillory, parish vice president; Crystal Normand, secretary; and Candace Pearce, treasurer.

QUIZ BOWL

The Quiz Bowl Team Captains, Nicole Dufour and Brian Dugas, shown seated with Advisor Pat Soileau, led the team to numerous wins throughout the school year, one of which was Parish Champs. Standing behind them are the remaining team members: Ivory Brown, Rosalyn Spencer, Lauren O'Brien, Mindy Aney, Kenneth Kelone, Shawn Pujol, and Travis Dufour.

SADD

Bunkie High's tremendous SADD Club works continuously to make students aware of the dangers of driving drunk. Sponsor Jennifer Mixon was instrumental in getting Lt. Pete Collins of Mississippi to speak to the entire student body on this subject. Lt. Collins is pictured here with some of the SADD members. His most effective speech moved some students to tears. In the opposite picture is Mark Mayeaux, a Louisiana State Trooper who worked closely with SADD and other organizations at BHS during the past few years. Sadly, he was tragically killed this year. All of us mourn his loss and deeply miss him.

Mr. Craig Foster does a fine job of sponsoring the Fine Arts Club, seeing to it that the members are exposed to various cultural experiences. Assisting him are the officers: Chris Blanchard, president, Cordell Guillory, vice president; and Shawn Pujol, reporter.

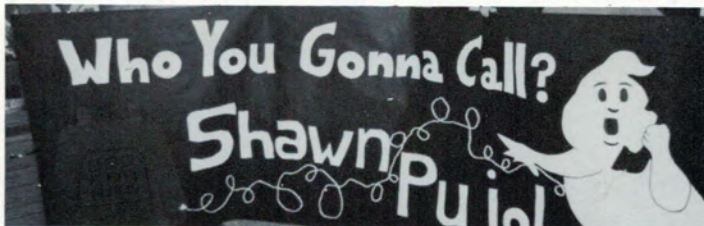

FINE ARTS

BUNAVOLA

Mrs. Marilyn Doucet and the yearbook staff once again came through and produced a great Bunavola. It's hard work; just look at Editor Trey Thibodeaux and Ad Sales Manager Wesley Mayeux. They're stressed!

Mrs. Leta Fletcher, with the help of Coach Luke Welch, made great strides with the Beta Club, whose officers are: (SENIORS) Amber Strong, president; Callie Riche, vice president; Candy McNabb, secretary; Wendy Juneau, treasurer;

(JUNIORS) Shelley Brouillette, president; Catherine Mixon, vice president; Cordell Guillory, secretary; Carla Ducote, treasurer;

(SOPHOMORES) Lauren O'Brien, president; Jessica Lemoine, vice president; Amy Juneau, secretary; and Natalie Juneau, treasurer.

FHA

The members of FHA, with the help of the club officers and Sponsor Pam Deshotel, had a busy year. President Alysia Ducote, Vice President Glynnis Gauthier, Secretary Erin Andes, Treasurer Agnes Davis, Reporter Erica Hernandez, Recreational Leader Candy Wells, and Historian Courtney Middlebrooks organized many activities from learning child care to attending FHA State Convention. All of BHS congratulated Glynnis Gauthier for winning first at the State Golden Yam Contest with her dish, Yam Crabmeat Augratin.

President Michelle Callahan, Vice President Jessica Marshall, Secretary Candy Johnson, Treasurer Montez Myers, Parliamentarian Narain Jones, and Sponsor Jacqueline Murdock kept DECA rolling along throughout the school year.

DECA

FBLA members and officers crowded around their beloved sponsor, Mrs. Bonnie LeDuc, for this club picture. The officers for 1995-1996 are President Wendy Juneau, Vice President Courtney Riche, Secretary Annie Soileau, Treasurer Mary Ducote, Parliamentarian Kelly Villemarette, and Recreational Leader Lele Nash.

FBLA

BHS AFTER-HOURS

Mrs. Leta and Trey look like they're having a good ol' redneck time at the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Thanks for all your help with the background, Mrs. Leta! It looks right nice.

Sallie and Shasta show their excitement at being able to party at one of BHS's always-fun school dances.

Ma and Pa Dufour make sure everyone is having a fun and safe time at Sadie Hawkins. (Hmm . . . maybe they're really spying on Melinda.)

Those crazy seniors. We surely will miss them. Their class has a lot of style!

Cousin It and Wednesday are having a real blast at the Halloween Dance with . . . is that Frankenstein!?!?

Seth, Chris, and Kevin showed up in their powder blue tuxes to cruise for babes, but since they weren't wearing their ruffled shirts, none of the girls gave them even a second look.
