

Instructional Lead Teacher Robin Hevner and Principal Anthony Grosch of Northeastern Randolph Middle School

Northeastern Randolph Middle School was recognized as a “Signature School” at the Piedmont-Triad Education Consortium’s (PTEC) annual Signature Schools Awards Breakfast on March 24, 2022, at 9:00 a.m. at the Sheraton at Four Seasons in Greensboro.

Each year, PTEC honors schools from 18 school systems throughout our region that have exemplified excellence and experienced significant improvement in the last 12 months.

Some indicators that apply to a Signature School include:

- A school that has implemented innovative practices to increase the academic achievement of all students
- A school that has documented increases in measurable outcomes
- A school in which positive change is not merely affecting one classroom or grade level, but is widespread (systemic) throughout the school
- A school in which the overall quality of teaching has continued to improve as measured by observations, peer evaluations, student feedback, parent comments, etc.
- A school that has successfully engaged the support of parents and the community to accomplish the school’s goals
