

STAFF HEALTH (And Medical Examination Requirements)

Through its overall safety program and various policies pertaining to Centennial BOCES personnel, the Board shall seek to ensure the safety of employees during working hours and assist them in the maintenance of good health. It shall encourage all its employees to maintain good health and practice good health habits.

Under the following circumstances, the Board may require medical examinations of its employees or applicants for employment. Centennial BOCES shall pay for all such medical examinations. Results of such physical examinations shall be maintained in separate medical files and not in the employee's personnel file and may be released only in limited circumstances.

Routine Physical Examinations

Subsequent to a conditional offer of employment and prior to commencement of work by an applicant, Centennial BOCES may require the applicant to have a medical examination and to meet any other health requirements that may be imposed by the state. Centennial BOCES may condition an offer of employment on the results of such examination if all entering employees in the applicable job category are subject to such examination. A 30 day grace period may be allowed if approved by the executive director.

Special Examinations

The Board recognizes that an individual's medical diagnosis is privileged information between the patient and medical professionals. However, whenever a staff member's medical condition is such that it interferes with the ability to perform required duties or there is an unacceptable risk to the health and safety of the employee or others, Centennial BOCES shall take necessary steps to evaluate the employee's condition and make appropriate employment decisions.

Centennial BOCES may request physical examinations and/or mental health examinations of any employee at any time to determine if the employee has a physical and/or mental condition, disease or illness which may interfere with the employee's ability to perform required duties or which may pose an unacceptable risk to the health, safety and welfare of the employee or others. Centennial BOCES shall select the medical professional to conduct such examination and shall pay the costs associated with such examination.

When the employee cannot perform the essential functions of the job with reasonable accommodation, or medical evidence establishes that the employee's condition poses a significant risk to the health, safety or welfare of the employee or others, Centennial BOCES may suspend and/or terminate employment of the employee in accordance with applicable policies and regulations and applicable law.

Readily-Transmitted Communicable Diseases

An employee with an acute, common, communicable disease shall not report to work during the period of time when contagious/infectious. Centennial BOCES reserves the right to require a physician's statement prior to the employee's return to work.

An employee diagnosed with a serious, readily-transmissible disease or condition shall be encouraged to report the existence of the condition or illness in case there are precautions that must be taken to protect the health of others.

Confidentiality

In all instances, Centennial BOCES personnel shall respect the individual's right to privacy and treat any information regarding the medical condition or medical history of an employee or applicant as confidential information. Any Centennial BOCES employee who violates confidentiality shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary measures.
