

CES Primary Student Spotlight
April, 2025

Alina Aria

Alina has always demonstrated that she can get along well with others. She is a leader in classroom games and activities and always willing to help her classmates problem solve when they don't play by the rules. She will be the first to suggest a compromise just to make her classmate smile. Alina is a shining example of cooperation!