An Arizona pastor shot in the head while street preaching last year is speaking out and thanking God for his miraculous survival.

“It’s a miracle — absolutely a miracle,” Hans Schmidt told KNXV-TV of the ordeal. “I should not be alive. Realistically, I should be dead. And because of His grace and His love, I’m still here.”

Highlights from Letters to Power

- I would just like to take a few moments of your time to say thanks. My life had been a roller coaster of relationships, drinking & mostly drugs. When I accepted Jesus Christ into my life I had to change radio stations because (it's true) old songs bring back old memories. I'm glad that your team is so positive and informative. My children and I will continue to support this station because of the positive emotionally uplifting message you bring.
- I just recently introduced my nephew to The Pulse and after listening once his response was: "It sounded like the coolest radio station on the planet." I've been trying to spread awareness of The Pulse to my friends in the regional EDM community as well! Thank you for providing Christian music in a style by which God will reach the hearts of ravers and club kids. Wish you could expand it to both Friday and Saturday nights!
