Dedication

In appreciation for the time he has spent in the writing of our "Alma Mater" and the "Lake Wales Fight Song"; for the glory he has brought to Lake Wales High by the band's participation in state contests, parades, tours, and concerts; for the enthusiasm he has stirred in the hearts of the student body by the enthusiastic participation in pep rallies and at football games, we dedicate the 1961 Crown Jewel to Mr. Tom Bishop.

We Honor

Mrs. Edwina Edwards for her untiring help on the Crown Jewel.

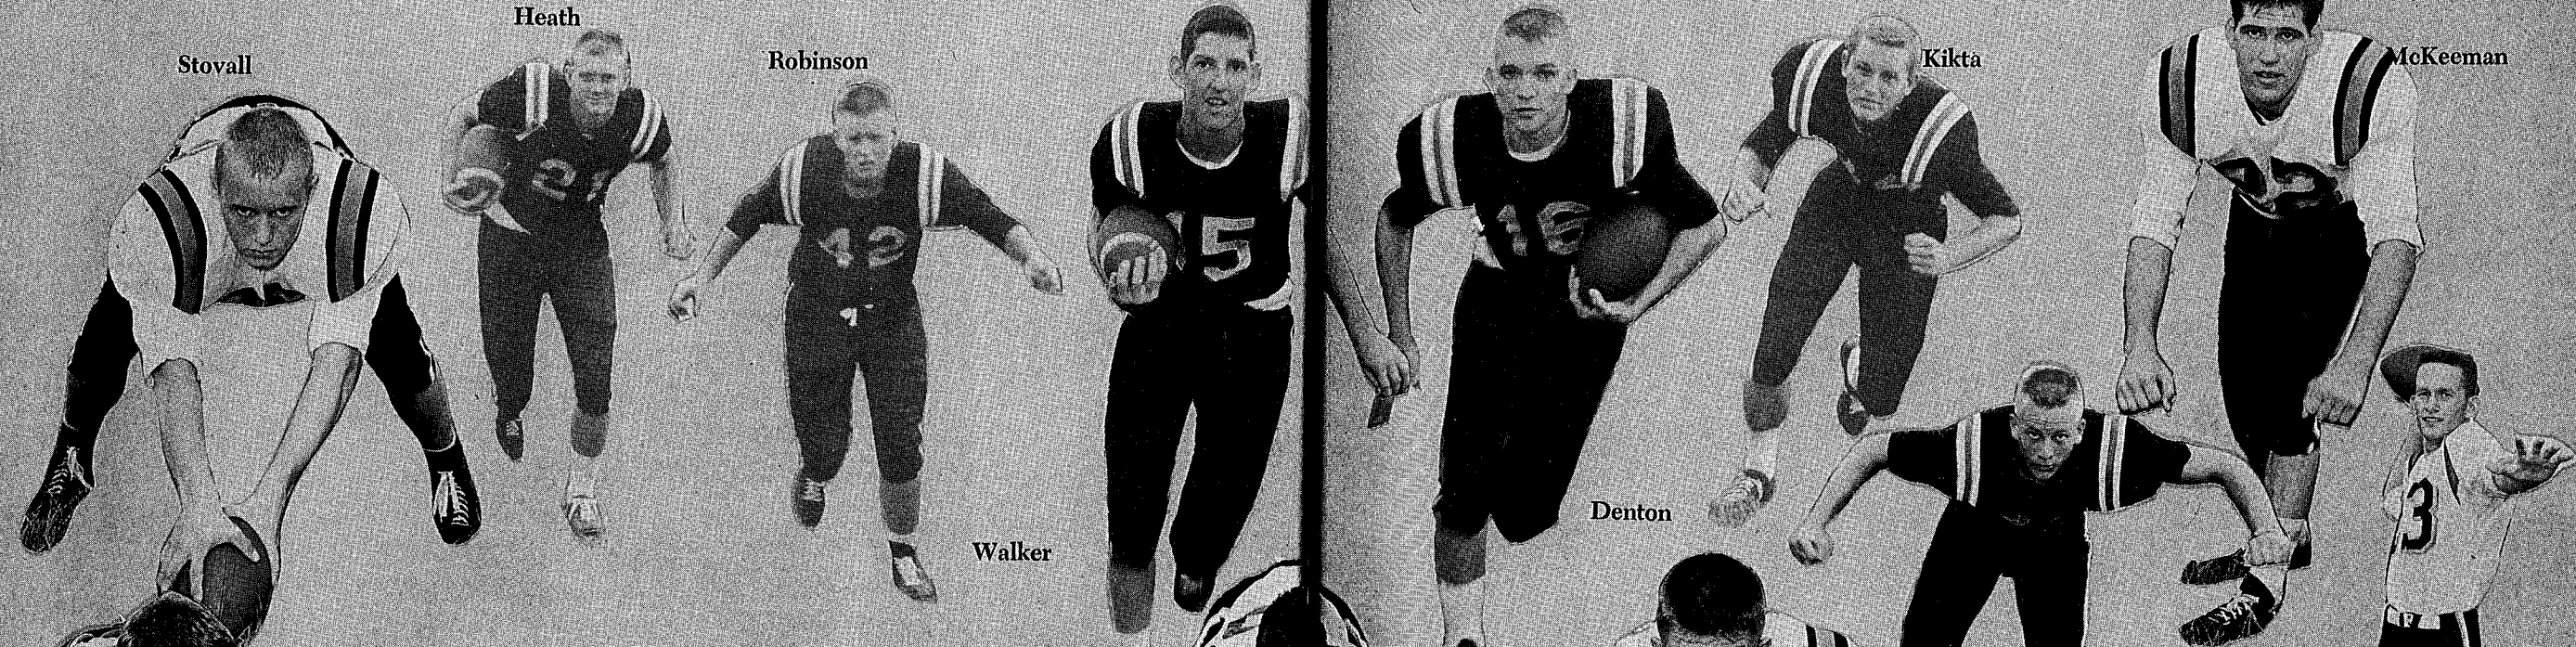

Mrs. Margaret Futch; for her guidance in the testing programs and college entrance problems.

Mrs. Frances Petering; for bearing with the class through the last two years.

Good-Bye

OFF WITH A BANG! We reached our infinite goal of 400 annual sales! With this feat, the great salesmanship of Miss Patsy Combs, and Miss Anne Cain was brought out as they led the field in the number of books sold. And then came the work. . . . Crys of "What's a layout?" and "How am I supposed to do this?" were heard too frequently. But under the able guidance of Mrs. Edwards, Judy and Skeeter slaved in the Advertising field; Luke braved the Sports battle; Sylvia and Anne waded through the Classes; Carole Ann drew our cartoons; Ann, Patsy and Sue attacked the Features and Notables sections; Sandra arranged the Organizations; Lynne managed the Administration; while Frank, Bruce, and Scottie gambled with the grave Picture struggle.

Headaches, and heartaches over missing pictures, and worrisome never-met deadlines seem trivial now that the great job is finally done.

After learning that experience is the best teacher, I unite with the whole staff in wishing you the happiest times ever and hope that you will always remember the 1960-61 school year.

Julie Kenney
Editor, 1961 Crown Jewel

A black and white photograph of a large, multi-story brick building, likely a school, with several windows. A large palm tree stands in the foreground, partially obscuring the building. Several people are visible in the lower part of the image, some standing and some sitting on a bench. The image is high contrast and grainy.
