

Unit 5 Information Sheet

	Skill	Grammar Skill	Vocabulary Skill	Spelling Skill
Suki's Kimono	Compare and Contrast	Adjectives and Articles	Synonyms	Syllable Pattern CV/VC
I Love Saturdays y domingos	Main Idea and Details	Comparative and Superlative Adjectives	Homophones	Homophones
Good-Bye, 382 Shin Dang Dong	Sequence	Adverbs	Compound Words	Vowel Patterns au, augh, ou, ough
Jalapeno Bagels	Draw Conclusions	Comparative and Superlative Adverbs	Unfamiliar Words	Vowel Patterns ei, eigh
Me and Uncle Romie	Author's Purpose	Conjunctions	Homonyms	Suffixes -y, -ish, -hood, -ment

Suki's Kimono

Cotton- cloth made from cotton fibers
 Festival- a celebration or holiday
 Graceful- showing beauty in movement
 Handkerchief- a square piece of cloth used to wipe the face or nose
 Paces- steps in walking
 Pale- light in shade or color
 Rhythm- a repeated beat, sound, or motion
 Snug- fitting closely; tight

I Love Saturdays y domingos

Bouquet- a bunch of flowers
 Circus- a show that includes acrobats, clowns, and trained animals
 Difficult- hard to do; not easy to understand
 Nibbling- eating or biting in a quick, gentle way
 Pier- a walkway that stretches out over water
 Soars- rises high in the air
 Swallow- the action that causes food to pass from the mouth to the stomach

Good-bye, 382 Shin Dang Dong

Airport- a place where airplanes are able to take off and land
 Cellar- an underground room or rooms, usually under a building
 Curious- eager to find out or learn about new things
 Delicious- told about in words or writing
 Farewell- good-bye
 Homesick- wanting to go home
 Memories- everything a person remembers
 Raindrops- drops of rain

Jalapeno Bagels

Bakery- a place where bread and cake are made and sold
 Batch- a group of things made at the same time
 Boils- to heat a liquid until it starts to bubble and give off steam
 Braided- three or four strands woven together
 Dough-flour and liquid mixed together to make bread, biscuits, and pastry
 Ingredients- items that something is made from Mixture- the combination of things mixed or blended together

Me and Uncle Romie

Cardboard- thick, stiff paper
 Feast- a meal with lots of food
 Fierce- frightening, scary
 Flights- sets of stairs
 Pitcher- a person who throws a baseball to the batter
 Ruined- destroyed or damaged
 Stoops- small porches with steps, usually at the front of a house
 Treasure-valuables; prizes

