

Jessica Reeves Description

Master Teacher

How long have you been in education?

“23 years”

What is your current teaching position?

“Ingram ISD CTE Director, Ingram Tom Moore Ag Science Teacher, Ingram FFA Advisor”

Why are you an Educator?

“Growing up in a poverty stricken community, with educators for parents, I learned how precious education was and how immense of an impact one person can truly make. My job as a teacher is to “Make an Impact, NOT just an Impression” on every single student that walks through my door. I love that instant when I “can see the light bulb come on,” and a student grasps a concept for the first time. Nothing can replace that feeling of accomplishment. Priceless are the moments when students feel successful in learning and life and the knowledge that I got to play a part in it.”

Why is Ingram ISD a great place to work?

“Ingram ISD truly cares of students and their futures. Ingram is very forward thinking when it comes to education. They hold students to a high standard and constantly push them to accomplish even more than they think they can. Ingram ISD takes care of and supports their teachers and staff. They highlight both teacher and student success!”

A Quote About her:

“Mrs. Reeves' tireless efforts and unwavering support create an environment where every student feels valued and empowered to succeed. Her passion for agriculture and nurturing spirit inspire us all to reach for greater heights. Mrs. Reeves is not just a teacher; she is a mentor, a coach, and a guiding light, never giving up on any student and ensuring each one finds their path to success.”
