TO-DO

Please read a book with your child each night. Math and Reading homework will be sent home every Monday.

Reminders

We will begin spelling tests this week. Spelling words will be on the back of the newsletter along with the vocabulary words.

Spelling and reading test will be on Friday.

Your child will be getting a reading book this Unit. On the reading test they will have to read the story on their own and answer questions about it. So I do suggest practicing the story throughout the week.
