

Dojo in the Classroom What it looks like...

Monday: Teachers give students 25 points (Based on 5 points for each letter in BLAST).

Students can lose up to 5 points a day (Based on BLAST).

Negative points should reflect the students' overall day.

Friday afternoon: Reset points to 0

Students will use a Student Point Tracking form to track their points.

BLAST Bucks

Students can earn Classroom BLAST Bucks (orange) from their teacher for good behavior or going above and beyond expectations.

Students can earn School BLAST Bucks (blue) from any adult for good behavior or going above and beyond expectations.

Rocket Buck Store

Students will be able to shop monthly at the Rocket Buck Store. Students will shop during the last week of the month when they go to the computer lab during specials.

PBIS Procedures

Pre-K and Kindergarten

Pre-K and Kindergarten will use the same positive points in Class Dojo and award WHOLE CLASS points. Classes can earn up to 5 positive points per day.

2nd Semester: Kindergarten will follow the school procedures and give individual points.

Specials and Resource Teachers

Specials teachers and resource teachers use Dojo for parent communication.

If misbehavior warrants an MIR, the specials teacher will issue the MIR and contact the parent.

We Keep the POSITIVE in PBIS...

We acknowledge students for consistent positive behavior.

There are expectations for all students, parents, staff, and settings.

3 to 1 positive to negative ratio.

Teachers are acknowledged for noticing positive student behavior.

Direct instruction of expected behaviors will occur throughout the school year.

Routines and the language of BLAST are consistent throughout the school.

Students are rewarded for expected behavior by staff with BLAST BUCKS.

Problem behavior will be responded to with consistent consequences that are focused on re-teaching the expected behavior.
