WCS D'S FOOD SERVICE DIRECTOR RECOGNIZED AS A TRAYBLAZER

The Williamsburg County School District is proud to announce that Tory Pryor Gibson has been recognized as a Trayblazer Award recipient. This esteemed honor acknowledges individuals who lead with excellence, innovation, and a commitment to making a meaningful difference in their communities. Tory received this nomination while serving as the Student Engagement Manager in Horry County, and the announcements are currently being rolled out.

Tory Pryor Gibson's recognition as a Trayblazer showcases her dedication to inspiring positive change and setting a strong example for others to follow. Through her leadership, service, and passion, she continues to make significant contributions to the betterment of Williamsburg County and beyond.

As a Trayblazer recipient, Mrs. Tory Pryor Gibson is also featured on an iconic Wheaties cereal box—a national honor reserved for outstanding individuals who exemplify leadership, excellence, and inspiration. Often referred to as the "Breakfast of Champions," Wheaties has a long-standing tradition of highlighting athletes, community leaders, and trailblazers who have made significant contributions in their fields. Tory's appearance on the Wheaties box underscores her remarkable achievements and serves as a powerful inspiration to the Williamsburg County community and beyond.

Being recognized as a Trayblazer reflects her hard work, leadership, and the positive impact she has made on our schools and community. The Williamsburg County School District congratulates Tory Pryor Gibson and celebrates this inspiring milestone. You can read more by accessing www.generalmillsfoodservice.com.
