

Bradford-Tioga
Head Start, Inc

2024-2025

Early Head Start

School Readiness Outcomes

BRADFORD-TIOGA HEAD START
2024-2025 Birth-To-Three-Year Old School Readiness Outcomes
CHILDREN WHO MEET AND/OR EXCEED EXPECTATIONS

Physical Health is measured by the mastering of various skills such as kicking, waving arms, legs, wiggles and squirms, pulling, throwing, catching, and demonstrating eye/hand coordination when eating or exploring etc. These skills are essential to ensure success . There was a 6% gain this year in the area of physical health and development.

Cognition & Knowledge is measured by the mastering of various cognition skills such as exploring objects and toys in different ways, using trial and error to solve problems, engaging and actively exploring self, objects and surroundings, etc. There was a 4% increase in the area of Cognition and Knowledge.

Approaches to Learning is measured by the mastering of various skills such as seeking out new and remembering favorite items such as books, toys, actively exploring interactions with others. There was a no increase in the area of Approaches to Learning.

Language and Literacy is measured by the mastering of various related skills such as understanding and beginning to use oral language, hearing and distinguishing sounds and rhythms of language, etc. There was a 9 % gain in the area of Language and Literacy.

Social & Emotional Health is measured by the mastering of various skills such as developing and engaging in positive relationships and interactions, beginning to develop personal relationships with peers, displaying basic self-help skills, beginning to develop and demonstrate a positive sense of self , etc. There was a 12% gain in the area of Social & Emotional.