Title:

This form should be completed only by parent(s) or legal guardian(s) conducting an independent home school under the supervision of the superintendent of a local education agency (LEA). Parents enrolling their child in an approved church-related "umbrella" school or accredited online school do not need to submit this form.

"Home schools" are schools conducted by parents or legal guardians for their own children, which are distinct from degree-granting online or distance education schools. This form may be utilized as notice of your intent to conduct an independent home school, meaning that you will serve as the primary teacher for the student(s) as permitted by Tenn. Code Annotated § 49-6-3050. Please complete both pages of the form and return both pages to your local public school system office before the start of each school year.

State law requires that a parent teacher conducting a home school must comply with the following requirements:

- (1) Maintenance of attendance records, subject to inspection by local director of schools, and submission of those records to the director of schools at the end of the school year.
- (2) Instruction for at least four (4) hours per day for 180 instructional days.

Independent Home School Requirements Grades K-12

Parents or legal guardians wanting to educate their school age child(ren) in an independent home school must meet specific requirements established under Tennessee state law (Tenn. Code Ann. § 49-6-3050).

Getting Started: Initial Registration
How do I register my child for an independent home school?	File an Intent to Home School Form with the local school district where your family resides. The form is on the Tennessee Department of Education's Home School webpage .
When can I register my child for independent home school?	Anytime. There is no deadline for registering your child for home school the first time. For each subsequent year of independent home school, the Intent to Home School Form should be submitted prior to the start of each school year.
Who can register a child for independent home school?	Only parents or legal guardians can register a child for independent home school. Legal guardians are required to present proof of guardianship at the time of registration.
What education level is required by the parent-teacher?	Parent-teachers must have a high school diploma or GED. Proof of education must be submitted with the Intent to Home School Form .
What are the vaccination requirements?	Proof of vaccination is not required for independent home school students.
Is there a specific curriculum that must be used for an independent home school?	Parent-teachers are responsible for selecting and purchasing the curriculum used in their independent home school. The school district will ask for the identification of the selected curriculum.
Where do I submit the Intent to Home School Form and accompanying documentation?	Each local school district has a designated home school coordinator responsible for assisting families with the home school process. The Intent to Home School Form and supporting documentation can be emailed to the home school coordinator, or you can call the coordinator for mailing or drop off information. A list of home school coordinators is on the Home School webpage .

Ongoing Registration & Reporting Requirements

Continued Registration	A new Intent to Home School Form must be submitted prior to the start of each school year.
Instructional Requirements	Students must have a minimum of four (4) hours of instruction per day for 180 days per year.
Attendance Reporting	Attendance records must be submitted to the director of schools in the school district where the student lives at the end of each school year. Attendance records are subject to inspection at any time by the local director of schools. A calendar template is available on the Home School webpage or parent-teachers may select their own calendar for documenting attendance.
Testing	Students in grades 5, 7, and 9 must take the same state-board-approved, secure standardized tests required of public-school students (not the high school proficiency test). In Tennessee, this is the Tennessee Comprehensive Assessment Program (TCAP).
Test Results	If a home-school student falls six (6) to nine (9) months behind as determined by the test results, the parent-teacher shall consult with a Tennessee state licensed teacher to design a remedial course and report the course to the local director of schools. If the student performs one (1) year or more below grade level on two (2) consecutive tests, the superintendent may require parents or legal guardians to enroll the student in a public or private school.
Location and Cost of Testing	Students may take the TCAP exams at the local public school that the student would otherwise attend at no charge OR at a professional testing service location approved by the local school district at the parent-teacher's expense. Tests administered by a professional testing service must be the same tests administered at the public school and within 30 days of the statewide test. Currently, the approved test is the Tennessee Comprehensive Assessment Program (TCAP). Test results must be shared with the parent-teacher, director of schools, and the state board of education.
Grading and Transcripts	The parent-teacher is responsible for creating and maintaining grades and school transcripts.
High School Diploma or Certificate of Attendance	The parent-teacher is responsible for creating the high school diploma or certificate of attendance. The state or local school district does not provide a diploma for home school students graduating from high school.
Entering or Re-Entering Public or Approved Private Schools	Students will be tested for placement upon enrollment in a public or approved private school. Students in grades 9-12 will be tested in each subject area for credits toward graduation.

TCAP Resources for Home School Families

Tennessee Code Annotated 49-6-3050 requires independent home school students in grades five (5), seven (7), and nine (9) to take the "same state board approved secure standardized tests required of public school students".

The Tennessee Comprehensive Assessment Program (TCAP) includes all state-mandated, student assessments. TCAP tests (including Achievement, Writing, Constructed Response, and End of Course) are designed to assess student mastery of the state defined curriculum standards.

To access the Tennessee Curriculum Standards, go to:
<http://www.state.tn.us/education/curriculum.shtml>

Item Samplers and Practice Tests

Item Samplers contain questions that are representative of the types of questions that will be on the TCAP Achievement and End-of-Course Tests. Each test item in the Item Sampler is presented with the Reporting Category and Performance Indicator as found in the TN state curriculum standards. An answer key for the sample questions is provided at the end of each Item Sampler.

Practice Tests are full-length tests containing the same number of test items per content area that would be found on the TCAP Achievement and End-of-Course Tests. The design and layout of the Practice Tests are very similar to the actual test to better familiarize students with the test format. An answer key for the practice questions is provided at the end of each Practice Test.

For Achievement Item Samplers and Practice Tests (Grades 3 – 8), go to:

Part 30	Attendance	Part 8	Private Schools

For HOPE Scholarship eligibility, a homeschool student must:

- o Be enrolled as a homeschool student in a homeschool program for a minimum of one (1) year prior to graduating. The student must achieve a 21 Composite score or above, on a national test date for the ACT test or a 980 (math plus critical reading scores only) or above, on a national test date for the SAT test for HOPE Scholarship consideration. The student does not need to submit a grade point average as this is not a consideration. For more information, please call 1-800-342-1663 or (615)741-1346.

For General Assembly Merit Scholarship (GAMS) eligibility, a homeschool student must:

- o In addition to meeting the HOPE scholarship requirements, during the course of a homeschool program, be enrolled in at least four (4) college-level courses totaling at least twelve (12) semester hours and achieve a cumulative grade point average of 3.0. The student must achieve a 29 Composite score or above, on a national test date for the ACT test or a 1280 (math plus critical reading scores only) or above, on a national test date for the SAT test for GAMS consideration.

Dual Enrollment Information:

The Dual Enrollment Grant program is defined as a grant for study at an eligible postsecondary institution that is funded from net proceeds of the state lottery and awarded to students who are attending high school and who are also enrolled in college courses at eligible postsecondary institutions for which they will receive college credit.

The Dual Enrollment Grant program is funded by the Tennessee Lottery and administered by the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation. This program provides opportunities for students to begin working toward a college degree, while still pursuing a high school diploma, and encourages post-secondary education and the acceleration of post-secondary attainment. For further information on Dual Enrollment, please Click Here.

49-6-3050. Home schools.

(1) A "home school" is a school conducted or directed by a parent or parents or a legal guardian or guardians for their own children. Public school facilities may be used by home school participants with the approval of the principal of the school, but this permissive authority shall not be construed to confer any right upon the participants to use public school facilities. If approved, use shall be in accordance with rules established by the local board of education.

(A) Home schools that teach kindergarten through grade twelve (K-12), where the parents are associated with and where students are enrolled with a church-related school, as defined by § 49-50-801, that are supervised by the church-related school's director and that administer or offer standardized achievement tests, are exempt from this section.

(B) Parent-teachers who register with an organization, as defined by § 49-50-801, for conducting a home school for students in grades nine through twelve (9-12) must possess at least a high school diploma or high school equivalency credential approved by the state board of education.

(3) A parent-teacher may enroll the parent's home school student or students in a church-related school, as defined in § 49-50-801, and participate as a teacher in that church-related school. Such parent-teacher shall be subject to the requirements established by the church-related school for home school teachers and exempt from the rest of this section.

(b) Except for home schools operated under subdivision (a)(2) or (a)(3), a parent-teacher conducting a home school shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) Provide annual notice to the local director of schools prior to each school year of the parent-teacher's intent to conduct a home school and, for purpose of reporting only, submission to the director of schools of the names, number, ages and grade levels of the children to be home schooled, the location of the school, the proposed curriculum to be offered, the proposed hours of instruction and the qualifications of the parent-teacher relative to subdivision (b)(4). Information contained in the reports may be used only for record keeping and other purposes for which similar information on public school students may be used in accordance with guidelines, rules and regulations of the state board of education. The director of schools or the director's designee shall ensure that attendance teachers are informed of parents' rights to conduct a home school pursuant to § 49-6-3001(c)(4), subsection (a) and § 49-50-801 upon employment of the attendance teachers and at the beginning of each school year;

(2) Maintenance of attendance records, subject to inspection by the local director of schools, and submission of these records to the director of schools at the end of each school year;

(3) Instruction for at least four (4) hours per day for the same number of instructional days as are required by state law for public schools;

(4) Possession of a high school diploma or high school equivalency credential approved by the state board of education by the parent-teacher;

(5)

(A) Administration by the commissioner of education, or the commissioner's designee, or by a professional testing service that is approved by the LEA, to home school students of the same state board approved secure standardized tests required of public school students in grades five (5), seven (7) and nine (9); however, the test for grade nine (9) shall not be the high school proficiency test required by § 49-6-6001;

(B)

(i) Tests administered by the commissioner or the commissioner's designee shall be at the same time tests are administered to public school students, and shall be administered in the public school that the home school student would otherwise be attending, or at whatever location students at such school are tested. Tests administered by the commissioner, or the commissioner's designee, shall be administered without charge. The parent-teacher may be present when the home school student is tested in grade five (5). Both parent-teacher and home school student shall be under the supervision of the test administrator;

(ii) Tests administered by a professional testing service shall be administered within thirty (30) days of the date of the statewide test. Tests administered by a professional testing service shall be administered at the expense of the parent-teacher;

(iii) All test results from either administration by the commissioner or the commissioner's designee, or by a professional testing service, shall be provided to the parent-teacher, the director of schools and the state board of education;

(A) Consultation between the director of schools and the parent-teacher if the home school student falls three (3) to six (6) months behind the home school student's appropriate grade level, based on the test required in subdivision (b)(5);

(B) If a home school student falls six (6) to nine (9) months behind the home school student's appropriate grade level in the home school student's reading, language arts, mathematics or science test scores or such of these areas, regardless of the term used on the test, as are actually tested for the student's grade level, based on the tests required in subdivision (b)(5), the parent shall consult with a teacher licensed by the state board of education and having a certificate or endorsement in the grade level or course or subject matter in which consultation is sought. The parent and teacher shall design a remedial course to help the child obtain the child's appropriate grade level. The parent shall report the remedial course for the child to the local director of schools;

(C)

(i) If a home school student falls more than one (1) year behind the home school student's appropriate grade level in the home school student's comprehensive test score for two (2) consecutive tests based on the tests required in subdivision (b)(5) and if the child is not learning disabled in the opinion of a teacher licensed to teach at the child's grade level, the local director of schools may require the parents to enroll the child in a public, private or church-related school, in accordance with this part, and the parents shall have all rights provided by law to respond to this requirement;

(ii) If a test indicates that a home school student is one (1) year or more behind the home school student's appropriate grade level, the same test shall be administered to the child not more than one (1) year later, notwithstanding the required testing schedule in subdivision (b)(5)(A); and

(7) [Deleted by 2023 amendment.]

(8) Submission by the home school student entering public schools to the evaluation test provided for in § 49-50-801, if the local system requires the test, or the tests required by the state board of education for transfer students.

(c) In the event of the illness of a parent-teacher, or at the discretion of the parent-teacher, a tutor, having the same qualifications that would be required of a parent-teacher teaching the grade level or course, may be employed by the parent-teacher.

(d) The department of education shall provide annually to home schools with which they have contact information about meningococcal disease and the effectiveness of vaccination against meningococcal disease at the beginning of every school year. This information shall include the causes, symptoms and the means by which meningococcal disease is spread and the places where parents and guardians may obtain additional information and vaccinations for their children. This information may be provided electronically or on the department's website. Nothing in this subsection (d) shall be construed to require the department of education to provide or purchase vaccine against meningococcal disease.

(A) If any of the public schools established under the jurisdiction of an LEA are members of an organization or an association that regulates interscholastic athletic competition, and if such organization or association establishes or maintains eligibility requirements for home school students desiring to participate in interscholastic athletics at a member school, then the LEA shall permit participation in interscholastic athletics at those schools by home school students who satisfy the eligibility requirements established by the organization or association.

(B) If a public school established under the jurisdiction of an LEA offers students the opportunity to participate in interscholastic athletic competition without the school being a member of an organization or an association that regulates interscholastic athletic competition, then the LEA shall permit participation in interscholastic athletics at such school by home school students who are zoned to attend the school. This subdivision (e)(1)(B) does not prevent or interfere with the application and enforcement of eligibility requirements of an organization or association that regulates interscholastic athletic competition as set forth in subdivision (e)(1)(A) if the school at which the home school student desires to participate is a member of such an organization or association.

(2) This subsection (e) does not guarantee that a home school student trying out for an interscholastic athletics team will make the team or supplant the authority of coaches or other school officials in deciding who makes the team. This subsection (e) is intended to guarantee only that the home school student shall not be prohibited from trying out for an interscholastic athletics team, if the student is eligible under the rules of the organization or association, solely by reason of the student's status as a home school student.

(3) This subsection (e) shall not be construed to limit or supplant the authority of the organization or association to determine eligibility and to establish, modify and enforce its rules and eligibility requirements, including those applicable to home school students.

(f)

(1) As used in this subsection (f):

(A) "AP" means the advanced placement program offered by the College Board; and

(B) "PSAT/NMSQT" means the Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test administered by the College Board and National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

(2) Each public school that administers the AP and PSAT/NMSQT examinations shall provide notice of the dates on which the school will administer the examinations on the school's website. The notice shall include:

(A) The availability of AP and PSAT/NMSQT examinations; and

(B) The availability of outside financial assistance to low-income and needy students to take the AP and PSAT/NMSQT examinations.

- (3) Home school students shall be permitted to take the AP and PSAT/NMSQT examinations at any public school offering such examinations.
- (g) If a home school student participates in an LEA-sponsored interscholastic activity or event or an LEA-sponsored extracurricular activity, then the LEA may request and receive proof that the student received a health service or examination that is required for the LEA's students to participate in the activity or event by law generally.

49-50-801. Church-related schools.

- (a) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "church-related school" means a school operated by denominational, parochial or other bona fide church organizations that are required to meet the standards of accreditation or membership of the Tennessee Association of Christian Schools, the Association of Christian Schools International, the Tennessee Association of Independent Schools, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the Tennessee Association of Non-Public Academic Schools, the Tennessee Association of Church Related Schools, the Association of Classical and Christian Schools, the Tennessee Alliance of Church Related Schools, or a school affiliated with Accelerated Christian Education, Inc.
- (b) The state board of education and local boards of education are prohibited from regulating the selection of faculty or textbooks or the establishment of a curriculum in church-related schools.
- (c) The state board of education and local boards of education shall not prohibit or impede the transfer of a student from a church-related school to a public school of this state. Local boards may, however, place students transferring from a church-related school to a public school in a grade level based upon the student's performance on a test administered by the board for that purpose. In local school systems where the local board of education requires tests for students transferring to that system from another public school system, the same test shall be administered to students transferring to such system from church-related schools.
- (d) Church-related schools shall be conducted for the same length of term as public schools.
- (e)
- (1) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as prohibiting church-related schools from voluntarily seeking approval by the state board of education nor prohibiting the state board of education from extending such approval when it is voluntarily sought.
- (2) This section does not prohibit a nonpublic school that meets the standards of accreditation of one (1) or more of the organizations identified in subsection (a) from operating as a Category II nonpublic school if the school meets the requirements established by the department of education and the state board of education for a Category II nonpublic school.
