

KTDB Radio Story Telling: 2022

1. KTDB will continue to provide vital information to the majority of the Ramah Navajo reservation and the surrounding area; KTDB will continue to meet the needs the of the diverse listening audiences within the vast remote area of the reservation.
2. KTDB licensed as an educational radio station works with various local, state and federal governments, contract schools and public schools, business, state and local health departments and other commerce.
3. KTDB radio station as a whole main's objective is to inform, educate, and entertain the listening audiences. KTDB was an essential tool during the high point of the COVID 19 pandemic, where listeners were kept up to date on the progress of the various information coming through regarding the COVID 19.
4. KTDB has moved on passed the COVID 19, but will continue to work with local and state official on the latest information to keep the community inform on the latest status of other viraints to keep the community safe.
5. KTDB community radio is the soul of the community. Expressing values and aspirations, Like if you're away and homesick, you can stay connected and engaged with the community thru the KTDB Online streaming.