

CES Primary Student Spotlight
February, 2025

Bridger Willson

Bridger has been working so hard, all year long. He has persevered through learning to write, and working on his independence. Even when things seemed to be too hard, he kept going. He loves to share and talk with his friends, and is always ready to help. Bridger helps show us all what it means to perservere!