Salmon Release Field Trip

Last week our 1st and 2nd grade classroom drove by bus to Winolequa Park to release our fish into Olequa Creek. Such a neat experience.

TTK - 2nd grade February Student of the Month: Faye Baker

I chose Faye for Student of the Month because she takes ownership of her learning. She is eager to learn and tries her best. Her high standards for herself push her to take on challenges past her grade level. She leads by example. She is a joy to have in class. Her fun personality and sense of humor brighten up each day. I am pleased to announce the TK and Kindergarten student of the month is Faye Baker.

Congratulations, Faye!

3rd - 6th Grade February Student of the Month: Sebastian Donath

Sebastian has developed a love of reading. He constantly has his nose in a book and even chooses to stay in from recess to read his favorite story. Not only does he make sure to read, but his eager participation in math class has increased this month. He raises his hand to answer questions and will ask questions himself to make sure he understands each lesson. His positive attitude, participation during lessons and kindness to all of his classmates made him stand out this month.

Great job, Sebastian!

TTK and Kindergarten

Mrs. Tinnin

We're off to a great start to the read-a-thon! Reading goals are 30 minutes per day, including weekends. Please return the reading logs each day in your child's planner or yellow folder so I can count up the minutes. I am keeping track of minutes read at school on each student's reading log that is kept at school. I will keep you updated on your child's progress towards their goal of 930 minutes for the month. Our classroom goal is that everyone makes their personal goal.

Kindergarteners are learning teen numbers. They are using manipulatives and ten frames to see how numbers connect. Ten ones and two ones equals twelve and so on.

Kindergarteners are learning the tricky words of, the, all, and, a. They are also learning about farms. So far they have learned about why we need farms and what kinds of crops farmers grow.

TK is working on their Habitats unit. They learned about the woodlands and the types of animals that lived there. This week, they are learning about pond habitats.

First and Second Grade Explorers

Mrs. Mittge

We had a great time releasing our salmon last Friday! We look forward to seeing them back in a couple of years when they return to spawn!

We also kicked off our Read-a-Thon last Friday. In order for students to meet their individual goals, they must read for 30 minutes every night- including on the weekends. In order for minutes to count, the reading log must be filled in completely and signed by an adult. Old logs are collected every Friday, new logs are then sent home.

In math, second graders are doing a great job using money while first graders are mastering measurement.

Students have been working on the idiom, "March goes in like a lion and out like a lamb." They are creating a lion/lamb art project as well as diamante poems.

Third and Fourth Grade Classroom

Mrs. Mars

This week students read articles about both monkeys and chimpanzees. They then had the opportunity to plan, draft, and write a 3 to 5 paragraph essay where they compared the similarities and differences between the two. Students are using peer review and feedback to improve upon their writing.

This was the first full week of the Read-a-Thon. I am excited about the reading we are seeing so far. Please make sure your child turns in their reading log tomorrow. They will get a new one next week. This helps us to track their progress and also helps to prevent students from losing sheets that have tons of reading on them. Keep up that reading and let's hit those goals!

Fifth and Sixth Grade Classroom

Mr. Burlingame

This week marks our first full week of the Read-A-Thon! I am excited to see how much time our students have spent reading so far in the month of March. Each week, students receive a new read-a-thon log sheet to record their minutes. Use this form as much as possible, as it makes final counting of minutes much easier. In 5th and 6th grade our goal for each student is a total of 930 minutes for the month of March. Our class goal is 14.480 minutes.

6th Grade Parents

Cispus is almost upon us! As you gather the items needed to send your student to camp later this month, remember that you don't need to get anything for survival kits. Through a generous donation, survival kit materials will be provided through the school this year!
