Dr. Erin Gramley Named Principal of Langston Road Elementary School

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Houston County Board of Education named Dr. Erin Gramley as the Principal of Langston Road Elementary School during their meeting on December 9, 2025. Dr. Gramley has served as the Assistant Principal of Instruction at Langston Road Elementary since 2021. She brings more than a decade of experience in Houston County schools and a deep commitment to the LRES community. She will begin her new role January 2, 2026, when current Langston Road Elementary School principal, Mrs. Kyon Cobb, begins her new position as the Coordinator of Central Registration for the Houston County School District.

“I want to thank Dr. Rogers and our wonderful Board members for this responsibility. I am both thrilled and honored to continue serving the Langston Road Elementary community in this new leadership role,” said Gramley. “I’m looking forward to continuing the legacy that has already been established at Langston Road Elementary. I intend to uphold our Stallion traditions while ensuring we continue to produce high-achieving students who are prepared to thrive in the future. I truly value each and every one of our students, families, and staff members.”

Gramley began her career in the Houston County School District in 2011 as a Pre-K teacher at Centerville Elementary School. She later taught 1st, 3rd, and 4th grades at Matt Arthur Elementary School, where she was also honored as Teacher of the Year. She earned her doctorate degree from Piedmont University in 2020 and is a graduate of both the GAEL Aspiring Principal’s Program and the Houston County Leadership Development Program.

Gramley and her husband, Matthew, have been married since 2011 and are the proud parents of three children.

Langston Road Elementary School is located at 315 Langston Road in Perry. For more information about the school, visit <https://lres.hcbe.net/>.
