

CONNECTING WITH THE SCHOOL COUNSELOR

Children's Good Manners Month

It is a great time to reinforce good behavior as your child/children start a new school year. Children learn best by observing parents, teachers, or other adults in their lives modeling the skills for them.

Children feel good about themselves when they learn the basics of good manners. They are able to get along better with their peers, teachers, and family.

Happy, Healthy Kids TIP

Remember to compliment your children for using their manners. Let them know you heard them and noticed and appreciated it. We all feel good when our positive behaviors are noticed. Praise your child with specific statements like "thank you for using your manners", "great manners today", "I appreciate you saying hello to the neighbors", and "I'm glad you thanked the waiter".
