I. School Attendance

The Choctaw Central High School/Middle School Student Handbook will apply to all students in CVLC who are working toward a standard California High School diploma in regards to all listed policies in the student handbook, except for procedures approved in this CVLC handbook which apply specifically to the procedures and routines at the virtual learning center. Students are expected to log-in daily, whether in-person or online. Each student should log on and actively work in Grade Results for a minimum of 20 hours per week. If students are not logging in daily and/or making progress, students could be removed from the program. It is important that if any student is having any type of hardship or extenuating circumstance, that the student communicates with CVLC about the issue in order for CTS staff to provide assistance possible. Doing so will eliminate purging from Grade Results. Communication and relationship building are keys to student success. The CVLC Administrator will oversee student attendance and student progress weekly. CVLC staff will make conscious efforts to communicate and help students that are hitting barriers.

A. Length of School Day

Classes at Choctaw Virtual Learning Center are held Monday through Friday, beginning at 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Breakfast and lunch are provided with a 30-minute lunch break from 12:00 p.m. to 12:30 p.m. In addition to the daily schedule, the Grade Results® website is available 24 hours per day, 7 days a week, with certified online teachers available for personalized instructions for a one-to-one, student-teacher interactive basis.

B. Inclement Weather

There may be days that weather conditions will not permit the CVLC to be open. In this event, the Office of the Tribal Chief and the Director of Education will be responsible for making the decision to close the CVLC. Announcements of school closings will be made on social media and as the tribe's Office of Public Information sends out to local radio and television stations. Students will also receive updates through the school's emergency messenger systems and social media sites.

On the days that school has already convened, and weather conditions begin to decline, the Office of the Tribal Chief will make the decision if CVLC will close. This information will be posted on the Office of Public Information's social media and/or on the school's social media page.

C. 10-Day Drop Policy

Any student who has accumulated 10 consecutive absences will be dropped from the program.

An absence is when a CVLC virtual student does not log in to Grade Results for at least 1 hour in a 24-hour period, Monday-Friday. Students must stay on task working in the program a minimum of 20 hours, Monday-Sunday. Students attending CVLC are considered absent when they do not attend school, Monday-Friday 7:30a.m. - 3:00p.m. CVLC staff will communicate with students daily who were considered absent for the current or previous day. CVLC staff will communicate with any student that is considered "at-risk" of being removed from the program, and will monitor attendance daily. The week will run Monday-Sunday virtually; Monday-Friday at the CVLC Center. Students can re-enroll when dropped, but will be allowed only two re-enrollments for that school year. Once student has reached re-enrollment limit, they will have to re-enroll during the following school year.

Attendance Policy for Students Upon Completing Graduation Requirements

Once a student has completed all graduation requirements, a decision will be made whether the student would benefit from continued enrollment at CVLC for additional college and career readiness courses (as extra credit), or whether the student's enrollment will end. This decision will be made and placed in writing between the CVLC Administrator, Guidance Counselor and the student. The Guidance Counselor will mark the appropriate status in the student's record.

III. Instructional Program

Overview

The CVLC uses the state Common Core State Standards of California that are integrated into Grade Results. The academic standards set a clear understanding by explaining what students are expected to learn by the end of each subject. The first step to success for each student is to master the learning standards. Academic standards are important because they prepare students for success in the workplace.

The CVLC will provide enrolled students with curriculum information to keep them informed about the subject requirements and standards. The information will be a guide of the key skills that the students will learn in subjects throughout the CVLC program. The instructional goal at the CVLC is for teachers to increase learning-environment flexibility and to work closely with students in individualizing their coursework based upon students' self-pacing and to assist them in meeting academic standards in a timely, self-guided manner. The teachers will keep a data notebook containing information about classwork, writing assignments and test results. The student data notebook will provide students, teachers and administrators an overview of student progress and achievement. The curriculum department of Choctaw Tribal Schools works with teachers to ensure that the alignment with curriculum, assessment and instruction is current with new research-based educational trends and that the CVLC incorporates all structures, principals and specialized efforts commensurate with Grade Results®.
