How a perfect storm sent church insurance rates skyrocketing

The Rev. John Parks was taking his first sabbatical in 40 years of ministry when he got a call from his church's accountant with some bad news. North Carolina churches are planning a major outreach

(SRN NEWS) – More than 1,000 congregations are set to fan out across the state the first week of August and complete a wide variety of volunteer missions, including back-to-school distributions, wheelchair ramp builds, free yard sales and food pantry projects. It’s all being co-ordinated by ServeNC and spokesman Todd Unzicker says “We want our communities to know that we love them, we’re here for them and we’re ready to serve them as Jesus would.”

A Christian photographer fights for freedom in New York

(SRN NEWS) – Emily Carpenter doesn’t want to work on gay weddings but the state’s non-discrimination act would force her to do just that. Carpenter is fighting that law and now the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals has ruled that her suit can continue. The justices say a lower court must reconsider its ruling against Carpenter, given last year’s Supreme Court decision that a Christian web designer cannot be compelled to build websites for gay weddings.

Highlights from Letters to Power

Thank-you for your commitment to our city of Mobile and others. Your radio station is such an inspiration to my daily walk as a servant of the Lord. I pray for you all and will support you now with the summertime "crunch" of support and in the future as well, I pray that others will do the same. I have only a couple of Christians friends and find myself alone much of the time, trusting in the Lord. You are a light in my loneliness and help me stay joyful in praise." In Jesus, God bless you all,

Tell us your story of how Christian Radio has touched your life.
