

MOBILE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM
SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

Mobile County Training School

The Mobile County Training School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during school 2024-2025.

School Responsibilities

The Mobile County Training School will:

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

Aligned Curriculum: Implement research-based strategies aligned with Alabama College and Career-Ready Standards.

Best Practices: Employ strategic teaching, smart math, and subject-specific research-based strategies.

Comprehensive Interventions: Implement targeted intervention programs for struggling students.

Smart Technology Integration: Integrate smart technologies across all content areas for enhanced learning experiences.

2. Hold parent-teacher conferences during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held:

Parent-teacher conferences to run during designated times throughout the school year. During these conferences, the focus will be on discussing the specific areas of discontent as they relate to each individual child's achievement. These conferences will be held at strategic points in the academic calendar, such as mid-term and end-of-term periods, to provide timely feedback and support for student success.

3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:

Provide parents with frequent progress reports through regular updates, online portals, parent-teacher conferences, and email communications. These reports will be issued quarterly, accessible online, discussed in conferences, and communicated via email, ensuring parents stay informed about their child's academic progress.

4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:

Parents have access to staff through office hours, parent-teacher conferences, email, and school events. Staff will be available for consultation during office hours, conferences, via email and phone, and at school events, providing parents with multiple opportunities to engage and discuss their child's education.

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

Parents at Mobile County Training Middle School can volunteer for classroom activities by signing up or through the school, communicating with teachers, and participating in scheduled opportunities. They can also arrange to observe classroom activities by coordinating with teachers.

6. Ensure regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.

Mobile County Training Middle School will facilitate meaningful communication between family members and senior staff by ensuring language accessibility, clear communication, utilizing multiple channels, and providing regular updates.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

As parents, we will support our children's learning by creating a supportive environment, motivating them to excel, staying involved in their education, establishing consistent routines, and modeling lifelong learning.

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

As students, we will improve our academic achievement by attending classes regularly, completing assignments on time, actively participating in learning activities, managing our time effectively, and setting and working towards academic goals.
