

Teacher on Special Assignment for Science

Job Goals:

The Science Teacher on Special Assignment (TOSA), is under the direction of the Site Principal. S/He will assist in the implementation of district science curriculum, which will include planning, developing, and implementing programs to support science teachers at their site.

Performance Responsibilities and Duties:

- Work with district and site administration to help facilitate ongoing implementation of the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS).
- Assist with the design and facilitation of staff development in NGSS instruction.
- Assist teachers with curricular planning and effective teaching of NGSS.
- Support the implementation and analysis of Common Formative Assessments for core departments.
- Create and distribute CFA reports to support the departmental Professional Learning Communities (PLCs).
- Participate in professional growth opportunities to keep current with state science educational trends and practices.
- Develop Science curriculum as requested.

Desired Qualifications:

- Interpersonal skills in relating to and understanding the needs of teachers.

Required Qualifications:

- Have a minimum of five (5) years of successful classroom teaching experience
- Possess a valid California Single-Subject credential in Science