

Newsletter

January

Reminders

No School-January 20th

Civil Rights Day

Late Start (10:15) Thurs. January 30

Snow is coming:

Please remember to send winter clothes and boots with students-We rarely stay inside for recess.

Winter news

Don't forget that Book Club is starting this month. If your students want to discuss a book they have read, they can fill out a book review and join the club at lunch on January 29th in Mrs. Renfrow's room. This is optional but fun!

More...

Our library days are:

Tuesday-Hazeltine

Wednesday-Renfrow

Weeks of January 13th and 27th-

PE Hazeltine and Renfrow-Music

Weeks of January 6th and 20th-Music

Hazeltine and PE Renfrow

ELA

- The Highly Proficient student can create their own literary tale using the basic structure of a story.
- Students can describe the overall structure of a story, including how the beginning introduces the story and the ending concludes the action.

Math

- The Highly Proficient student can compare and draw polygons based on specific attributes
- The Highly Proficient student can tell and write time to the nearest minute using a.m. and p.m.

Happy New Year!

We are reading: The Wild Robot by Peter Brown

*Don't forget about library and Book It challenges for rewards!

We had an amazing all-school field trip to U of I for a women's basketball game. What a day! The Vandals went all out for the local schools.

Go Vandals!

Second Grade Winter News

School Closure Procedures:

Weather related closures will be alerted using our automated alert system to the primary phone numbers in our system. Check local radio and TV for additional closure or delay information.

In case of closure during school hours we will follow instructions on your emergency card at school. Please check your Powerschool account to be sure it is up to date.

Thank you to the Troy Volunteer Fire Department for bringing Santa for a visit!

The annual Winter Concert was a great success. We are very proud of these super singers and dancers. A big thank you to Mrs. Stoner!

