16	Many students live in multigenerational homes now. Due to financial hardships, drug addiction or various other factors, traditional family structures are becoming a thing of the past. Our schools must rise up to meet students in a new generation with lots of understanding and compassion.	1/27/2026 1:39 PM

25	I think the school and teachers are great. So far the school works with mt sons special needs. The main worry is that time spent at therapies is causing him to miss learning opportunities. It would be a tremendous help if the school offered assistance with finding therapist, ect that can actually help while the child is in class instead of my child missing half a day 3 days a week.	1/22/2026 9:38 PM
