HEMINGWAY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT WINS ORATORICAL CONTEST

Hemingway High School (HHS) student Tristen Stuckey won 1st place today in the Williamsburg County Education Association for Retired Teachers Oratorical Contest. All contestants were given $25 for participation. As 1st place winner, Tristen will receive a scholarship award of $600. Tristen states, "I have a fear of public speaking, however, my goal is to own my own business, so I sat aside my fears and thought about my future. Winning this scholarship let me know that I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me!"

Tristen Stuckey, HHS Senior

Congratulations Tristen!
