Louisiana to become 1st state to require Ten Commandments be displayed in schools if governor signs bill

Louisiana lawmakers passed a bill Tuesday that could make the state the first to require the Ten Commandments to be displayed in all schools and colleges that receive public funding. Gov. Jeff Landry, a Republican, still needs to sign the new bill into law for Louisiana to make history as the first state with such a requirement.

Highlights from Letters to Power

Thank you for helping me with my growth in getting to know Christ. I work the graveyard shift and your station has touched my heart and my family's heart for the past 2 years. We are now able to have money to donate though the principles learned on your financial programs and from "Turning Point" with Dr. David Jeremiah. 10,000 thanks to you! Your stations have taught us so much! May God bless you and help you pay off your debt of your new broadcast beacon!

- Power 88 is a ministry that is critical to the saved and unsaved! It helps me so much! Thanks for being on the air as encouragement, support and to share God's word!

Supporting Christian Radio

If Christian radio has made a difference in your life and you do not have a means of helping support the station financially, there are 2 other important things you can do:

1. Keep us in your prayers that God will use this radio ministry for His glory 24/7.
2. Support a business that underwrites. Thank them for their donation to help support local Christian radio and use their services when possible.
