Robert Barber—Goforth Media VP/Station Manager

As we come to the end of another year, we must pause, look back and thank God for all that He has blessed us with and all that He has brought us through.

At some point in time, we have all been through personal trials and circumstances that cause us to trust in God at a much deeper level. This year has been one of those times. With the economic roller coaster over the last couple of years and an uncertainty of what is to come, God has been faithful and continued to provide what is needed to keep our signal going strong. He is always faithful to be our provider, our comforter, our healer, our protector or whatever it is that we need Him to be. So, above all, I thank God for allowing us to broadcast the Gospel to the upper gulf coast. Also, I thank you, our listeners and supporters, for partnering with us along the way. Together we are making an eternal impact along the gulf coast and round the world via the world wide web.
