Special Education Administrator Development Academy

To ensure Georgia school districts are equipped with highly trained teachers prepared to assume leadership roles in special education administration.

June, 2024—March 2025
Application Packet due April 5, 2024

As an affiliate of the Georgia Association of Educational Leaders (GAEL), the Georgia Council of Administrators of Special Education (G-CASE), recognizes the statewide concern that there is a shortage of educators specifically trained to administer/direct special education programs in school districts across Georgia. Based on the belief that the special education teachers of today are the special education leaders of tomorrow, the G-CASE-sponsored Special Education Administrator Development Academy (Special Education ADA) prepares the leaders of tomorrow to step into administrative positions with a strong foundation in the components related to leadership and administration for special education programs.

The Ideal Candidate

The ideal candidate for the Special Education Administrator Development Academy is a proven teacher leader with five or more years of experience as a special education teacher who is identified by his/her principal, special education director, and/or superintendent and aspires to move into an administrative position within the field of special education. The next group for the Special Education Administrator Development Academy will consist of no more than forty (40) special education teachers who are proven teacher leaders, are endorsed by their principal, special education director, and/or superintendent,; and who aspire to move into an administrative position within the field of special education. Members of Cohort 3 will be selected through a rigorous application process. Interested parties may self-nominate or be nominated by a school or district administrator. Each applicant will complete an application packet to be submitted along with a personal narrative and letters of support from their Special Education Director and Principal.
