TOWERING HEIGHTS

Each August the yearbook staff makes its final choice for the theme of the upcoming edition. Some years it's a philosophy, some a feeling, and sometimes it just sounds good. However, this year's choice is singularly suited to Lake Wales High School.

Geographically, we are perched on the highest elevation of peninsular Florida. Look north down any hill and you'll see the pride of Lake Wales, the world renowned Bok Tower, sitting majestically atop Iron Mountain. Spirits cannot help but be lifted by such a sight each day. Let's not forget to look up often and keep our vision towering as we grace Florida's ridge like a crown jewel.

Our theme also fits our name. We are a high school; not so unusual except that we take it a step farther. We are the Highlanders! Others cannot boast that distinction. We strive to emulate that hardy Scotch stock from which we take our name, our mascot, our plaid, and our heart. Look first at the towering achievements of our Highlander band with its Scottish Unit, bagpipers, dancers, and excellent musicians. Our entire music department has gathered high distinctions over the years, and they have long been "favorites".

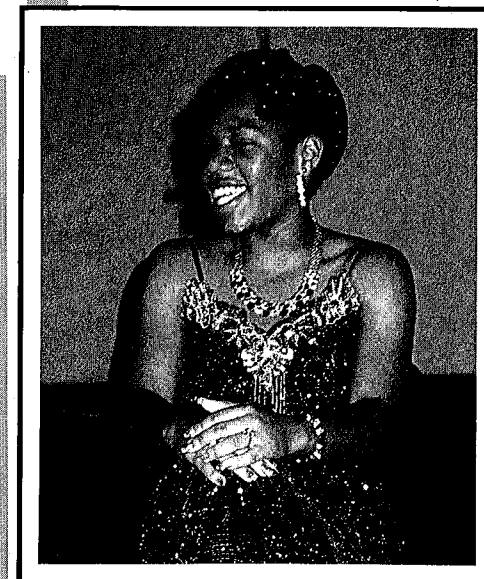

The subject of height cannot be examined without running headlong into a towering record of achievements in sports. We are not a large school, and yet we consistently rock the state to its core with our performance on field, court, diamond, track, pool, mat or course. The dedication of our coaches inspires us as we reach our to win some athletic prize to present to those who with love consistently support us — parents, friends, family, faculty.

Still our excellence is not limited to sports. We don't hesitate to rattle some state and local academic cages by examination and competition. We are not surprised by our intellectual achievements, and regularly outstrip more populous schools in academic matches and tests. We produce top score in countywide academic competitions and often confound the larger schools.

The theme fits our many extracurricular and community activities. Our widely affiliated service clubs and organizations regularly compete and walk away with top honors at county, state, and national competitions. Internal excellence in service has secured the Golden School Award for volunteer hours for thirteen consecutive years, and our student have merited the Silver Shool Award for having logged literally thousands of volunteer service hours each year. These heights of achievement and sacrifice are no surprise to us.

The yearbook staff hopes you'll see your personal towering heights — past, present, and future. Your limits are those you allow. Just as that beautiful spire that points us ever to the sky, you can achieve towering heights in your life when you steadily look toward a worthy goal. Please enjoy these pages — our tribute to your existence and aspirations.

"Once Upon A Dream"

Filled with an aire of majesty, last year's Prom, which was held at Nora Mayo Hall in Winter Haven, was a dream come true. The castles, balloons, and pumpkin carriages were no match for the bow-ties, royal gowns, and top-hats of the students who attended. A special thanks to the Junior Executive Board, who made this a truly magical and memorable night.

Row 6: Billy Dee Washington and Therriman Edwards.

Topping It Off

What could top off your Senior year better than walking across the stage to receive your graduation diploma? After four long years of high school, not many Seniors could think of anything better. During these years there have been many highs and lows, from making new friends to losing the dearest friends. No matter what, these friendships will carry on throughout their lives and the memories of Lake Wales High will live on forever.

Summer Highlights

As soon as that final bell rang last year, off we all went! Some of us were beach bound, others to theme parks, and some of us just stayed home to hang out with friends. Whether it was shopping, traveling with clubs or church groups, or just going to work, all of us were bound and determined to make the most of our summer.

Rising Spirits

Our sports season was initiated by some spicy pep rallies involving the entire student body. We enjoyed getting out of class early to speak with friends, watch the cheerleaders, and cheer on our team to new heights of achievement. We laughed as they participated in some wild stunts. Our homecoming pep rally was topped off by each class staging an elaborate skit. It was Incredible!!!

— Elizabeth & Stephanie

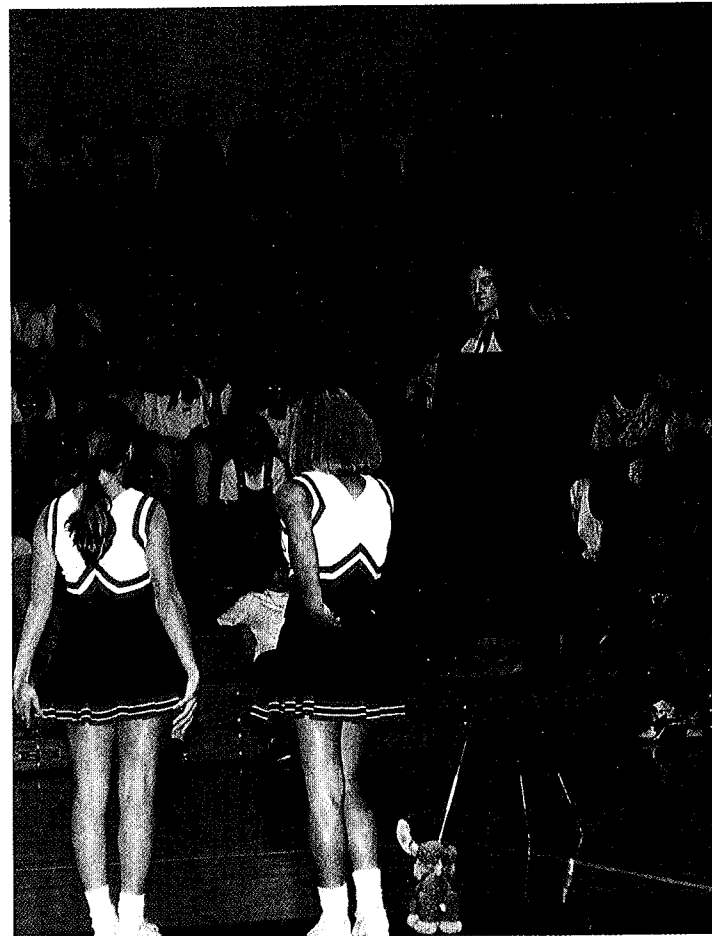

Tiffany Gatlin, Lisa Williams, Dee Chaney, Chatalia Dukes, and Ingrid Griffith move to the beat of the Homecoming sophomore skit.

Ricky Tinsley, Terrance Smiley, Joni Daniel, Anton Williams, James Milbry, and Terry Thornton bring royalty to the senior skit.

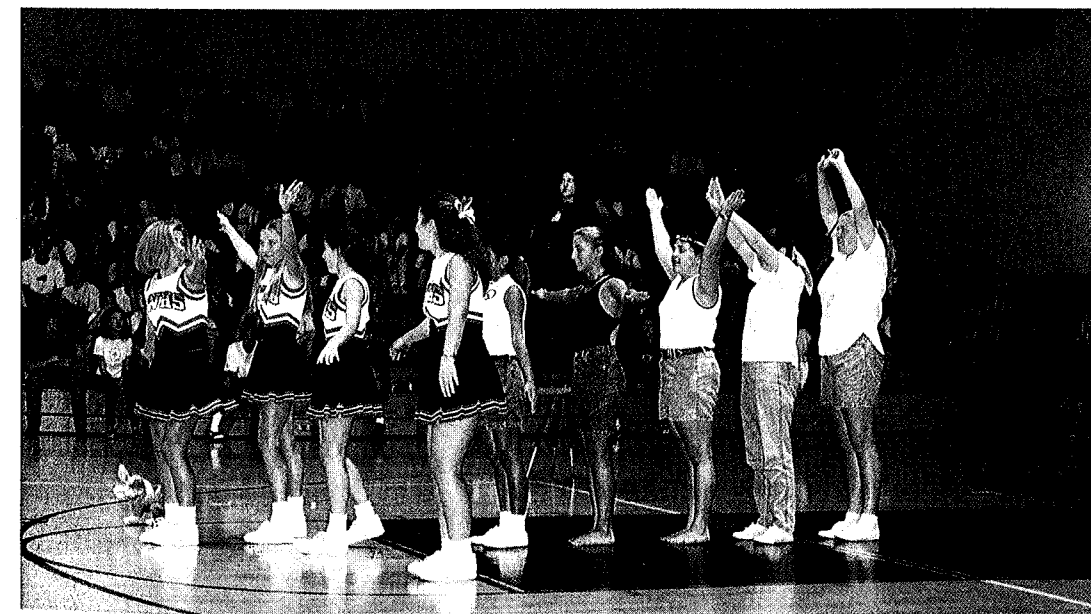

Seniors Mike Byrd, Darryl McGrath, Jeff Parker, and Jack Brandon signed up for Dance 101. Hope!

Homecoming Highlights

The excitement of Homecoming week was topped off by a favorite Highlander tradition, the Homecoming Dance! This special event was held at the Lake Wales Country Club on October 6, 1995. The theme of "Go For The Gold" was symbolized by the Olympic rings created out of balloons. Occasional breaks from the "YMCA" or the "Electric Slide" to dance with that "special someone," helped to make Homecoming '95 a Golden memory of dancing, glamorous evening wear, corsages, boutonniere and good friends!

Underclass

Movin' On Up!

This year the Junior Class was determined to make the 96' Prom the most successful and memorable event of all time. A group of active and creative students who pull for academic excellence make up an outstanding Jr. Executive Board. Led by their sponsor, Mrs. Cornett, the Juniors donated extra hours and held many fundraisers. Their determination and dedication was reflected through the large sum of money they earned. Their outlook upon all of their tomorrows is based upon their todays.

Funky Fowl

Each year when Thanksgiving comes around, Mr. Upchurch hosts the annual turkey-walk competition. Whomever can strut their best strut and gobble their best gobble is awarded a nice juicy Butterball. The award is provided and presented by our kind-hearted Mr. Upchurch.

Thanks for your generosity, Mr. Upchurch.

Bo Wells — "The Tiptoe Turkey."

Demetrias Gray and Winner Wayne Wells: The Final Gobble.

The Fearsome Flock compete.

Victims of Vital Vampires

Clyde Baldwin is under pressure for a good cause.

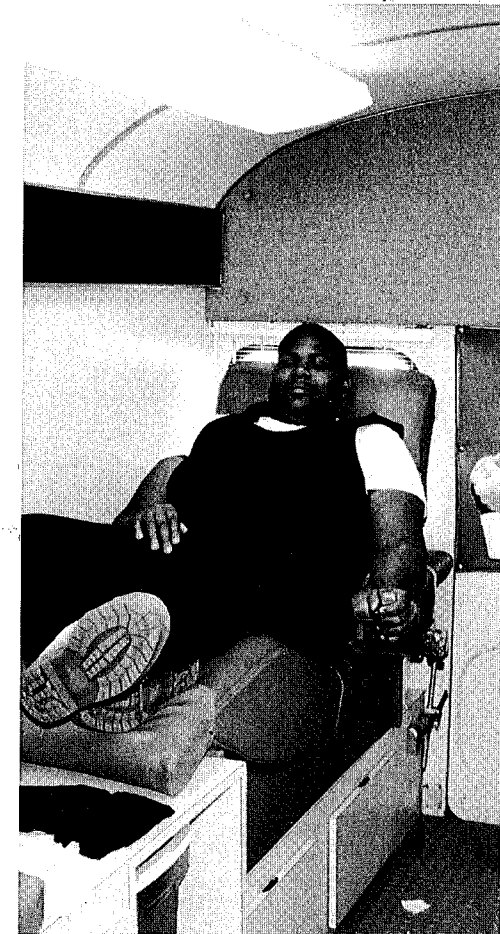

Once again those altruistic juniors and seniors overcame their needle-phobia for the good of their fellow-man. On the 17th of November, they answered personal questions and then bared their veins to the vampire ladies of the Bloodmobile from Mid-Florida. We were told that Lake Wales High School has the best turnout in the whole county. What Bravery! What Nobility! What a t-shirt!!

CLC & KLB

Kirsten Crouse closes her eyes to reality.

Michael Cooke gets a grip on giving.

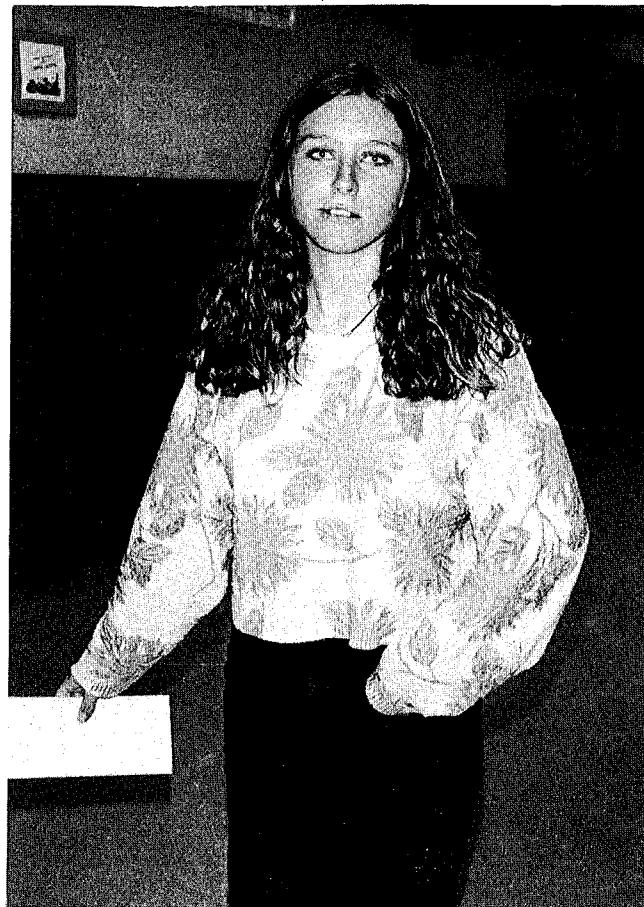

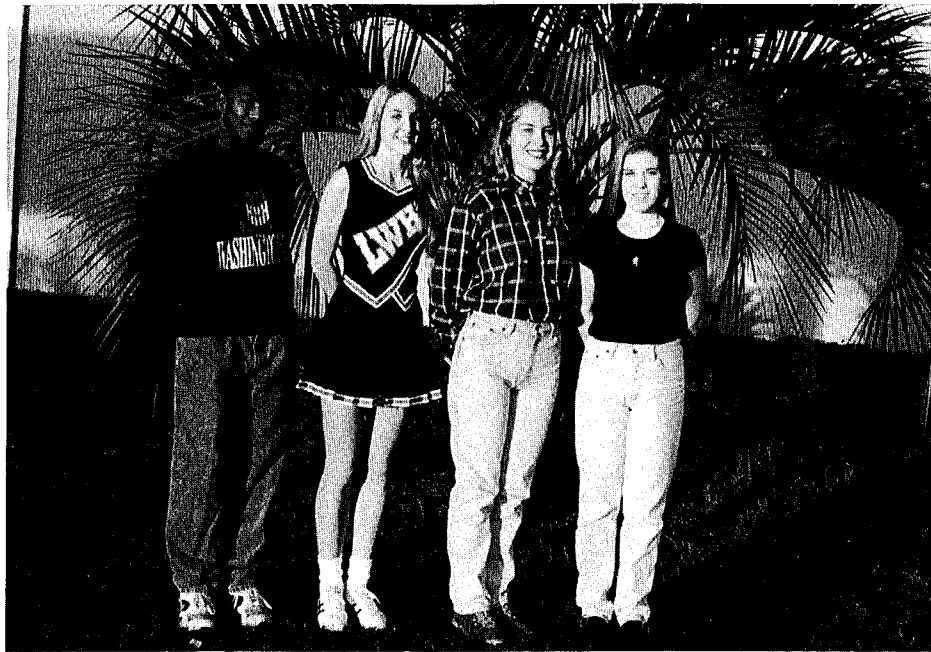

Andy Collins shows true grit.

Reaching The Second Step

Through the years, the class of '98 has looked forward to becoming seniors. With the guidance of their sponsor, Mrs. Hitchcock, the sophomores are just two steps away from achieving their goal. Even though it's an unclear view of their future, the sophomores are very determined to excel beyond their desired goals and reach their destination.

Taking the First Step!

This year the class of '99 came to the High School for the first time. With the help of Mrs. Ucci and Mrs. Doherty, the Freshmen raised money for Homecoming with a candy sale. They have overcome many obstacles, helping them to stand out from the other classes, and also become one of Lake Wales greatest Freshmen classes ever.

ACADEMICS

Communicating on Every Level

English is all about communications. It is a two-way street. When writing letters to our friends, we must be able to translate the scribble-scrabble which is on the paper. Our ideas must be well organized before we can share them with our peers. This is called "communicating effectively." In English, we learn to express ourselves verbally. We reveal our personality by the way we communicate.

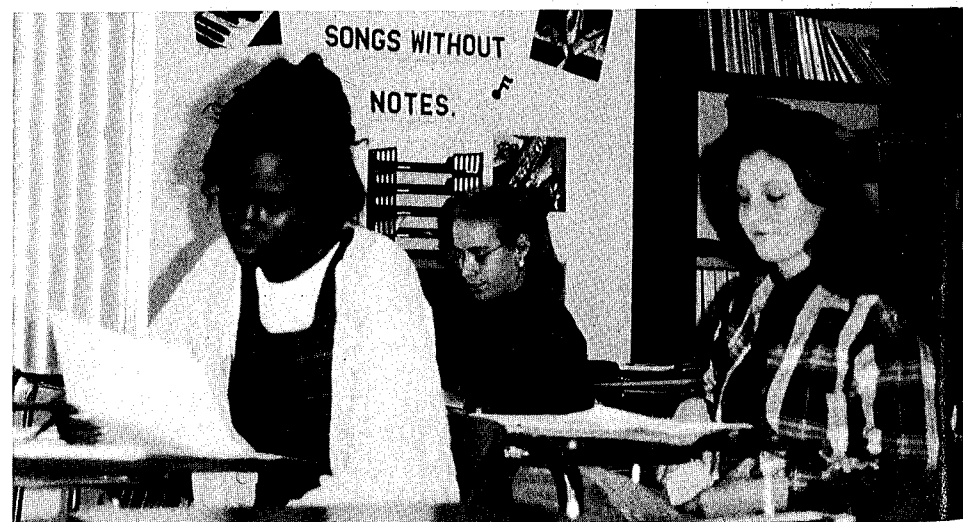

— Elizabeth & Stephanie

Shontina Moment checks for bubble boo-boos.

Freddie Jordan, Katy Hitchcock, and Randy Ayers try to be cooperative about their learning.

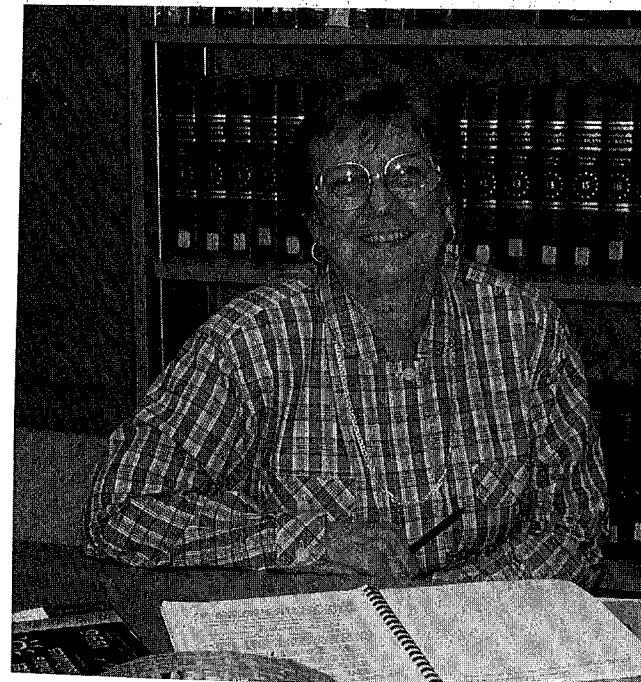

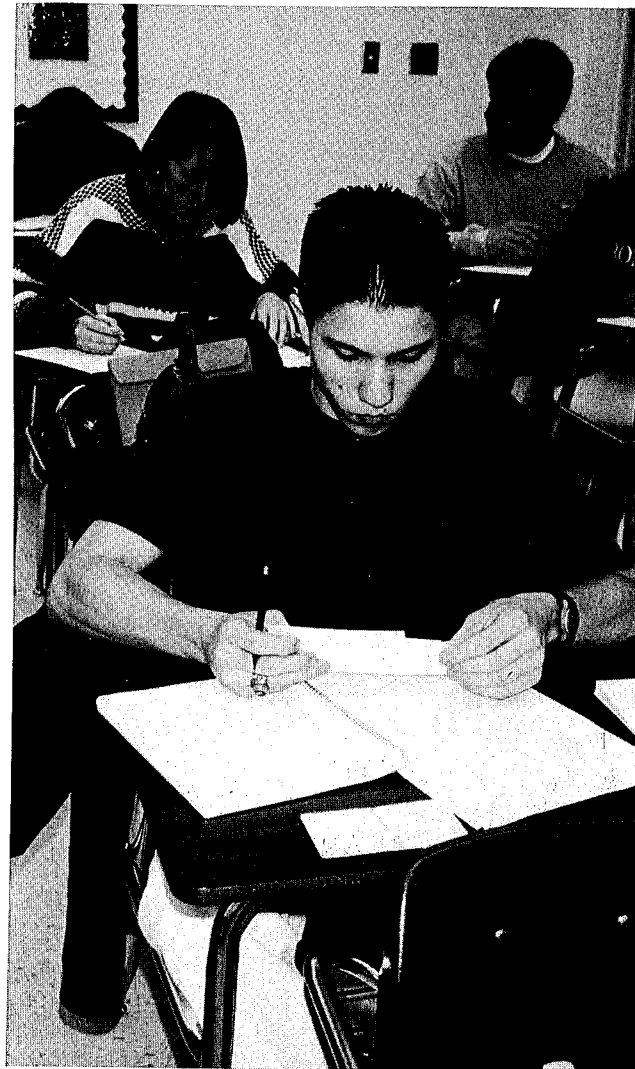

Ms. Rockness indicates the final points to James White.

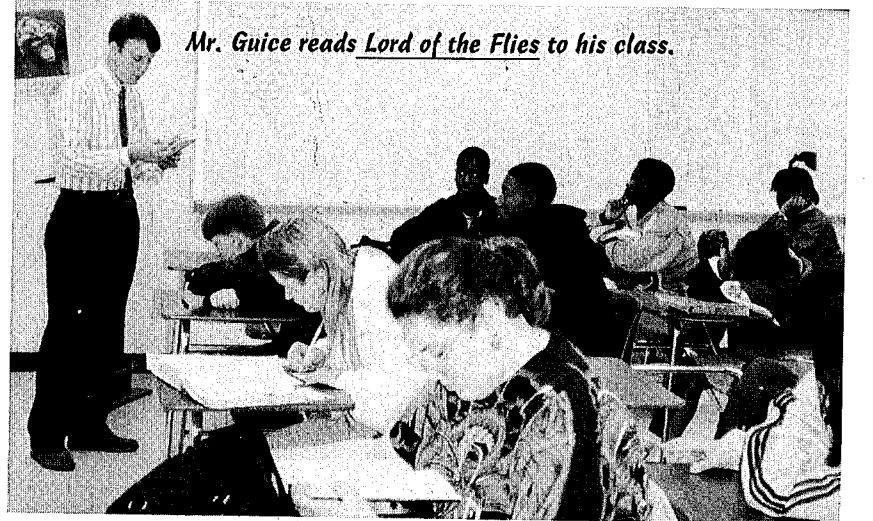

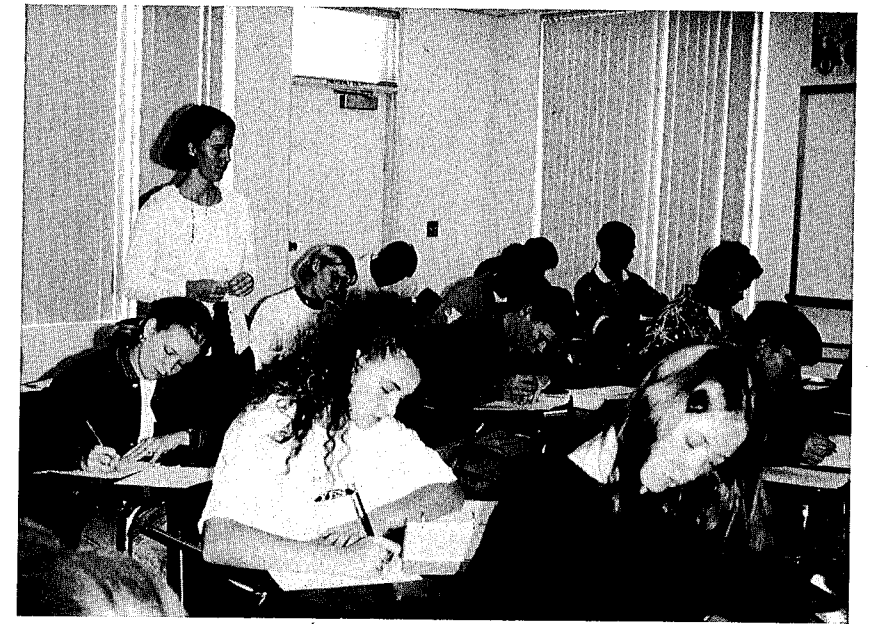

Kenya Hodge, Tammy Naneck, and Sabrina Ross put finishing touches on a rough draft.

Tim Frenette tackles footnotes sitting down.

Mrs. Micheal, Eng. Dept. Head, takes her work with her on break.

Ms. Rockness' English IV Honors Class are bowed to their tasks.

Mr. Guice reads Lord of the Flies to his class.

Mr. Guice's 3rd period class is into this English stuff.

Making It All Add Up

James Whitehurst, Tracy Smith, Brandy Lavender, and Lindsey Sims display their masterpiece.

The Math Department had a great year. The teachers planned nifty projects for their students to do. Mrs. Doherty's Mathematics Competency Skills class built 5-story sturdy buildings out of toothpicks. Using geometric figures, the buildings were designed to hold weights from the weight room. Ms. Lingard's geometry class built icosahedrons using paper circles folded into equilateral triangles. One the whole, the math teachers came up with some pretty enthusiastic projects to help students apply what they learned in the class creatively in the real world.

— M. Wilson

Jimmy Collins, Daniel Collins, and John McMullen all agree that math is a laughing matter.

Sumise Vixamar, Eddie Boyd, Emily Abukudair, and Sean Tulloch are searching for the answer.

Ray Leonard and Kisha Emmons made the strongest sturdy building, holding 105 lbs.
