What they are: Great Starts & Exit Tickets, Quizzes, Class Work, Activities, Class Participation, and Group Work

Think about it: Do you put forth a consistent, solid effort in class? Do you keep your eyes open & your head off your desk? Do you ask questions & power through, trying your best when challenged?

Do you come to class on time? Are you here mentally as well as physically?

Did you miss a class period? If it was excused & any work done that day was made up, then no problem! If not, the hour can be made up on your own time.

commonly asked questions

I know I can do better... can I re-submit work?

We learn more from our mistakes than we do from our successes. A willingness to admit we have room to grow is the hallmark of any successful person. If you get a grade back you're not happy with, don't stress out - simply consider its critique or ask for further explanation, and then re-submit! Even an 'F' can jump to an 'A' if you're willing to give it the time and effort it demands!

Do I lose points for late work?

No. BUT - if the work is submitted late, it CANNOT be resubmitted for full or even more credit. However, if I see that you are working hard yet only have an assignment or project partially completed, I will encourage you to submit it anyway! You may get a low grade, BUT, I will grade/critique it and you still have the option to re-submit for full credit. In other words, it's ALWAYS better to submit something rather than nothing at all.

How much homework will be assigned in this class?

Your time outside of school is valuable just like mine is. You are with me 50 minutes per day and about 5 hours per week. When time is used wisely during class, homework will not be given. Like stated before, it is your responsibility to utilize the time given in class to complete your assignments and projects. As with any class, you will have quizzes and tests. This will require additional time outside of the classroom to prepare for.
