KINGSTREE HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND TO PERFORM AT THE CHARLESTON CLASSIC

The Kingstree High River of Soul Marching Band, led by Dr. James L. Patterson, will perform at the Shriners Children's Charleston Classic, aired on ESPN in November. The event will take place at the TD Arena in Downtown Charleston, SC. This is a significant achievement for the River of Soul Marching Band, and they are extremely grateful for this wonderful opportunity for their music scholars in Williamsburg County.

The Charleston Classic is a three-day invitational college basketball season-opening tournament held in Charleston, South Carolina. It is an ESPN-owned and operated event, contested at TD Arena, which is the home of the Charleston Cougars. Each team plays three games in four days. Since the second edition, the tournament has been played on a Thursday, Friday, and Sunday format with a Saturday off day. The inaugural tournament was held on November 14–16, 2008.
