It features several decorative elements: a large, semi-transparent pie chart in the upper right quadrant; several smaller, semi-transparent pie charts scattered around; and a bar graph in the bottom right corner with four vertical bars of increasing height from left to right.

Lesson 10: Christ Teaches About Salvation

Scripture Memory – John 1:10-12

Scripture Verse

10 He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. 11 He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. 12 Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God— John 1:10-12

Target Truths

-Christ's most important teaching is that we must be born again.-that is, a person must be born spiritually to have everlasting life.

-God sent his only Son to die on the cross so that we might receive eternal life.

-Christ's teachings covered every aspect of life. He wanted us to know how to go to heaven and He also taught us how to live on Earth.

Vocabulary Review

inflict: to cause a punishment

begotten: to be born of someone condemn: to declare someone guilty and inflict a penalty

Character Trait

Love -meeting the needs of others unselfishly

4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 5 It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Nicodemus

Christ's Conversation with Nicodemus

Nicodemus was a Jewish ruler. He believed in God. He wanted to know the truth and he had good character. John 3:1-2

Nicodemus thought he had to be born again physically from his mother. John 3:4

Christ's Conversation with Nicodemus

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.
John 3:16

What did God do? He gave His one and only Son

Why did He do that? Because He loved us so much

What do we have to do? Believe in Jesus Christ

What will be the result if we do this? We will have eternal life

Christ's Conversation with Nicodemus

What does the word condemn mean? To declare someone guilty and inflict a penalty

John 3:18 God says that if we have been born again by believing in Christ as our Lord and Savior, we are not condemned. What does this verse also say about the person who has not believe on Christ? He is already condemned.

The Good Samaritan

The Good Samaritan

The lawyer's answer was to quote from the Old Testament commands to love the Lord our God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength, and all your mind, and to love your neighbor as you love yourself. Luke 10:27

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

Luke 30

25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” 26 “What is written in the Law?” he replied. “How do you read it?” 27 He answered, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind”[c]; and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’[d]” 28 “You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do this and you will live.”

29 But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” 30 In reply Jesus said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. 31 A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. 32 So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. 34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. 35 The next day he took out two denarii[e] and gave them to the innkeeper. ‘Look after him,’ he said, ‘and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.’ 36 “Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?” 37 The expert in the law replied, “The one who had mercy on him.”

Jesus told him, “Go and do likewise.”
