Grandperson's Day 2023

A BENEFIT FOR HEATHER (HODGE) DAVIS

will be held on Saturday, October 28th, 2023, at the Carriage House Event Center in Altamont from 3-10:30PM. Heather was diagnosed with colon cancer in December 2021; the cancer has metastasized to her liver & lungs. Heather & her husband, Mike, reside in Altamont with their 4 boys. Heather serves as the head cook at Altamont Lutheran Interparish School. Please join us for a catered meal, live and silent auctions, family fun, and live music by the Josh Holland Band! All details can be found on the Benefit for Heather Davis Facebook page.

Donations are currently being accepted for the live and silent auctions. If interested, please contact Amy Frederking at 217-821-1146 or Jessica Grobengieser at 217-821-2498.

All proceeds will be given to the Davis family to help defray medical costs as Heather continues in her fight!

ALIS RECEIVED: $210 from Rural King (Harvest of Hope Donation)

Last week K-8 students learned about the Lutheran Church Charities Comfort Dog Ministry and met Rachel, a purebred Golden Retriever.

On Sept. 6 students were greeted by Moose, a purebred Newfoundland that has been trained as a therapy dog. Moose will visit ALIS again on Wed., Oct. 4.

Kindergarten students enjoyed "Aunt Beth" volunteering in their classroom last week.

This week they studied the letter "P". They wore their pajamas to school and watched a movie and ate popcorn.
