FEBRUARY IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH!

Black History Month Why February?

The remembrance has its roots in 1926, when historian Carter G. Woodson called for the observance of "Negro History Week." Woodson chose February because it marked the birthdays of two Americans who greatly influenced the lives and social condition of African Americans: President Abraham Lincoln, who was born on Feb. 12, 1809; and abolitionist and former slave Frederick Douglass, whose exact date of birth in February 1818 is unknown.

Please continue to encourage your children to do their very best over these last twelve weeks as we approach final grades for promotion, spring MAP administration, and the Georgia Milestones testing. Finish strong! Go Jets!
