The Rebel Report

The volleyball team went to districts and brought home the third place hardware. The girls started off their districts last Thursday by playing Plenty Coups winning in three (25-5, 25-13, 25-11). That evening they played a very competitive game against Roberts and won in five (15-25, 26-24, 26-24, 22-25, 15-11). On Friday, they played Bridger and lost in four (25-17, 25-27, 19-25, 12-25). The girls ended up playing Roberts again but had a rough game, losing the game in three (21-25, 18-25, 15-25). Although we lost against Roberts, the girls ended up earning a spot in divisionals and will play Roy/Winifred this Thursday at noon.

This past weekend the Rebels played against the Lincoln Lynx and had a sweeping victory, 63 to 25. On game day, every fan was bundled up in warm clothes and the players on the sideline were huddled up by the heaters. The Rebels' next opponent is Westby-Grenora as their second game in the playoffs. Game day is Saturday at 1:00 p.m. in Hysham and hopes are high that they can pull off another victory.

In junior high sports, the Rebel basketball A girls won against Melstone (57-16) while the B boys lost on Saturday (26-41) in Custer. Friday's game was rescheduled for November 9 due to inclement conditions.

Another big weekend ahead for Rebel sports. Always a great season to be a Rebel!

Announcements:

Please join us for parent-teacher conferences on Thursday, November 2, 4:00-7:00.

No Pirate Brew this Thursday!

Picture retakes are Tuesday, November 7. Please let the office know if you are rescheduling.

Breakfast Menu Change

Granola bars and fruit for breakfast on Tuesday, November 21, instead of breakfast sandwiches. That will be the day we serve Thanksgiving dinner at school.

Thanksgiving Dinner

Hysham Schools will host a turkey dinner on Tuesday, November 21. Parents are welcome to eat with their students during their school lunch schedule; community members will be served starting at 12:30.

In order to make sure that we have enough for everyone, we are asking folks to RSVP to the school (406.342.5237) no later than the afternoon of Monday, November 13.

Please let the office know if you are going to eat by that day.

'Tis The Season Or Is It? MB

It's that time of year when every time you walk into a grocery store, you are immediately berated with images of Jolly ol' Saint Nick.

Today, I asked our staff when members think the start of the Christmas Season is. The overwhelming leader of all possible dates was the day after Thanksgiving. There were some surprising outliers though, including one from Olive Vetch, our cook, who said her Christmas Season starts in July. Another was from our science teacher, Kristine Lacualan, who said she celebrates from September 1st to December 31st. We had one Grinch, though. Kerry Roberts, our secretary, said she doesn't start her celebration until December 24th (in fairness out of busy-ness more than lack of spirit).

The music department broke the tunes out of storage the day after the fall concert, and it's safe to say that most of the staff is onboard with the sounds of the seasons. With Halloween today and Thanksgiving just around the corner, it will be time for the holiday break before we know it, and whenever you choose to hang those stocking and start your gingerbread snacking is really just personal preference.

Be Weather-Ready

Shorts season is officially over until March, but with the weather changing, students should be ready to bundle up! Winter weather is approaching, so please remember to dress accordingly!
