

PLATEAU 1980

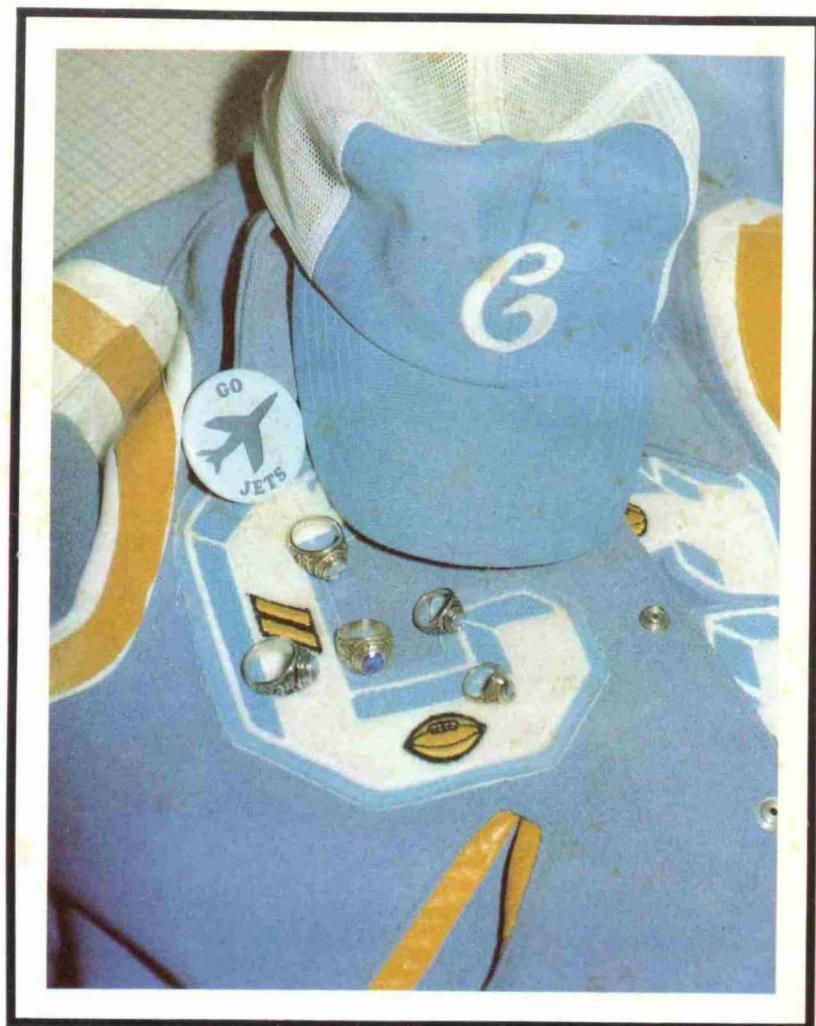

Simple yet beautiful,
One single rose ...

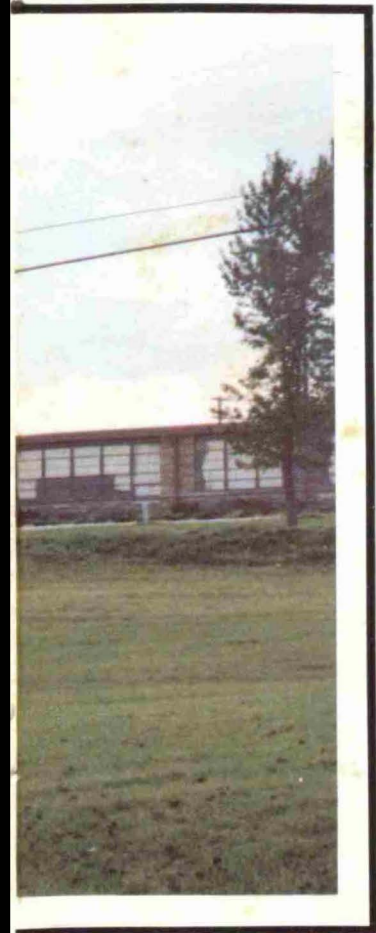

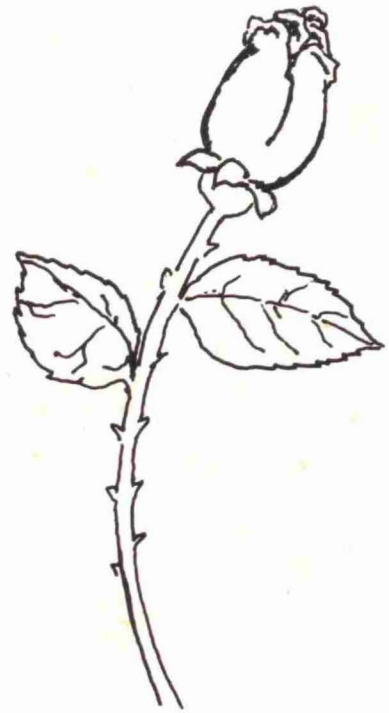

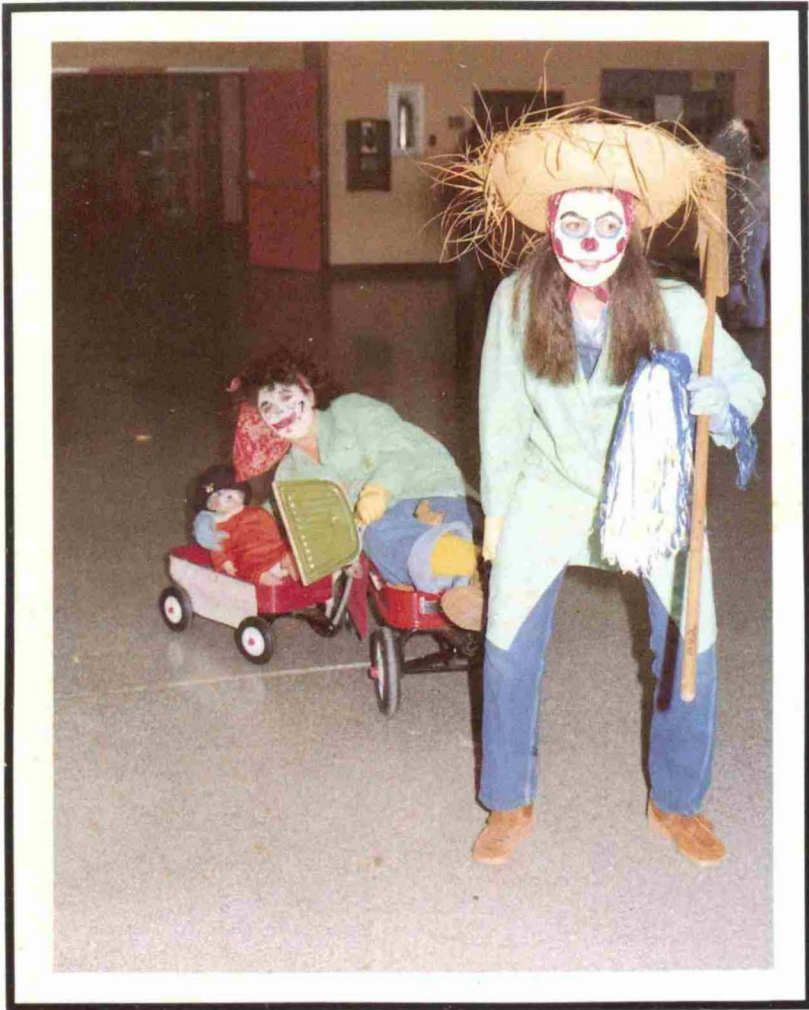

The Plateau 1980

Cumberland County High School

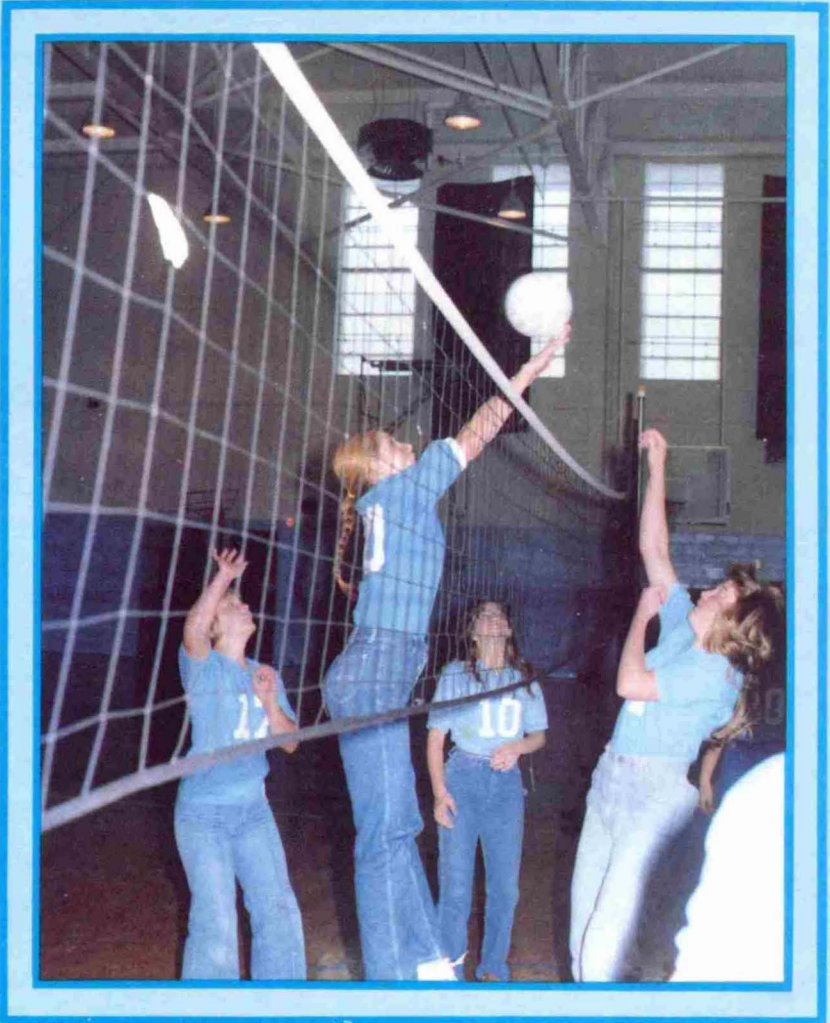

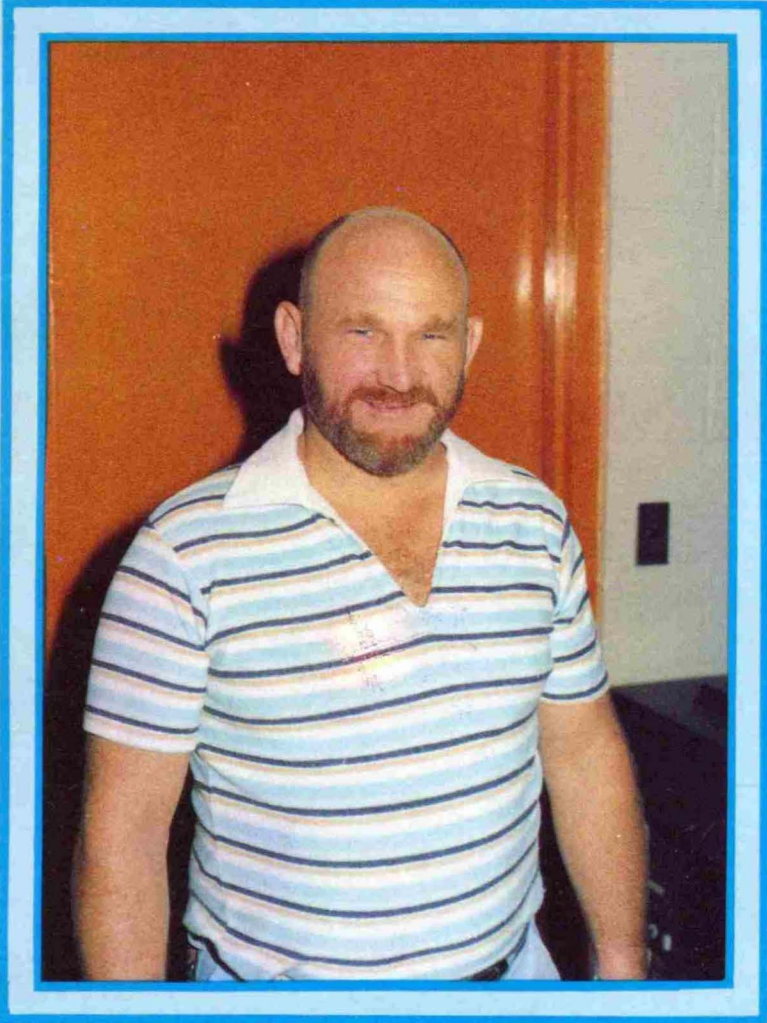

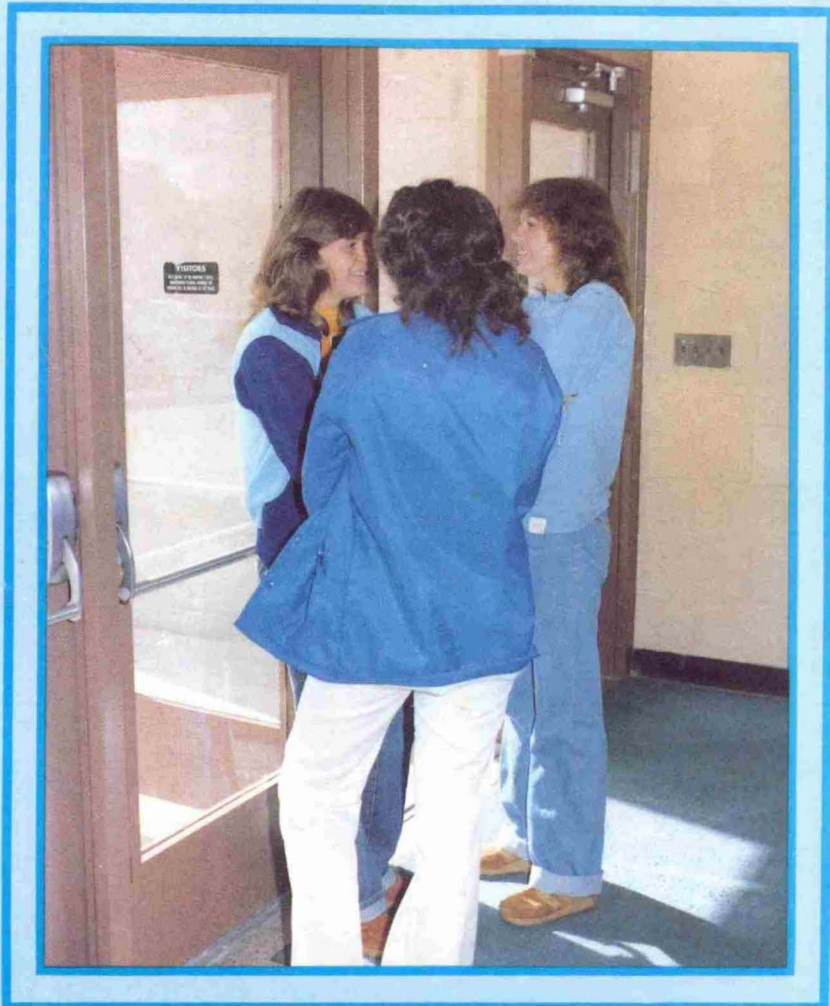

Phyllis Mincy Cynthia Pippin — Editors

*Budding as if to express the beginning of
A new year; a new life.*

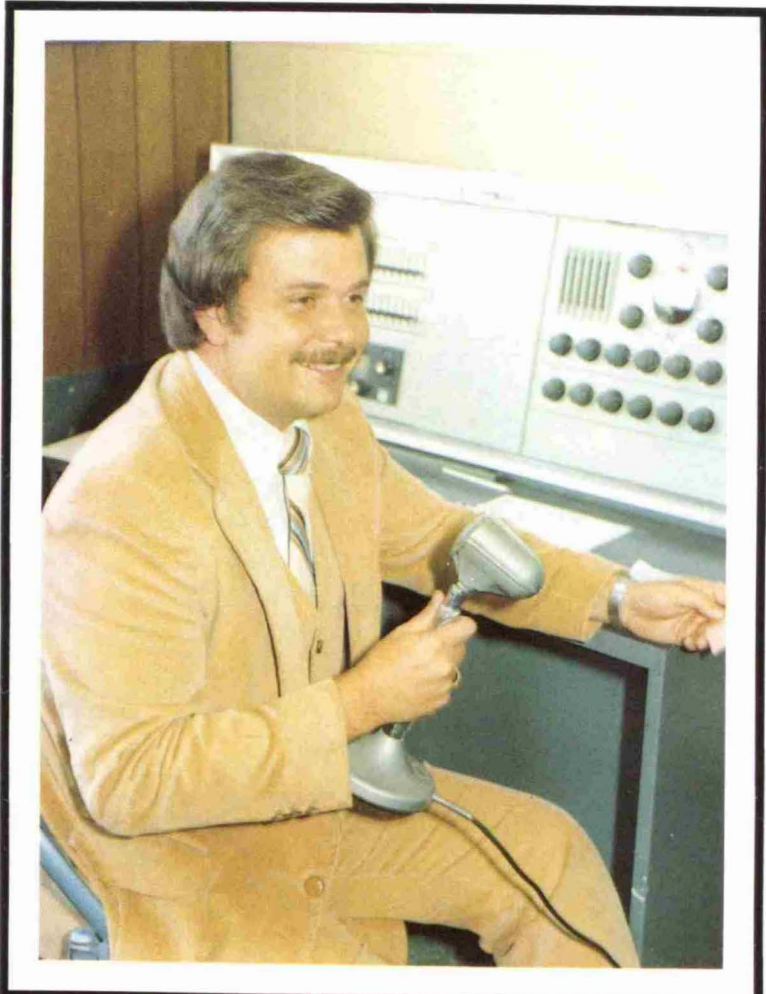

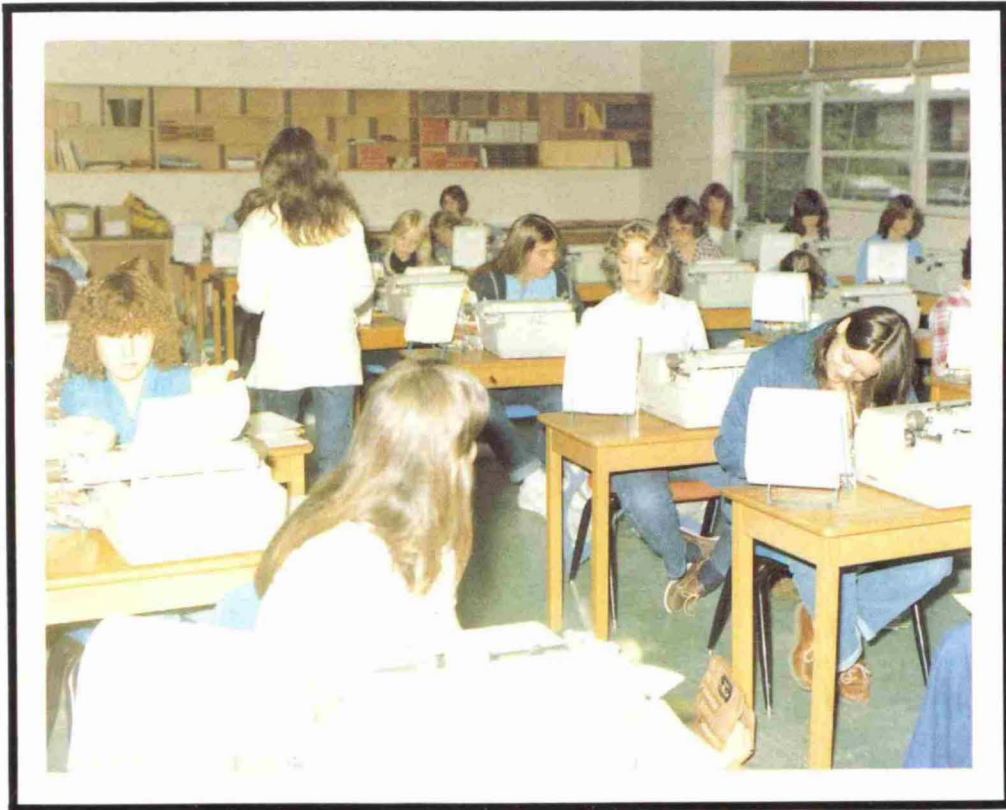

*Our life goes on.
The rose begins to grow.
Changing, just like us;
Our days; our ways; our lives . . .*

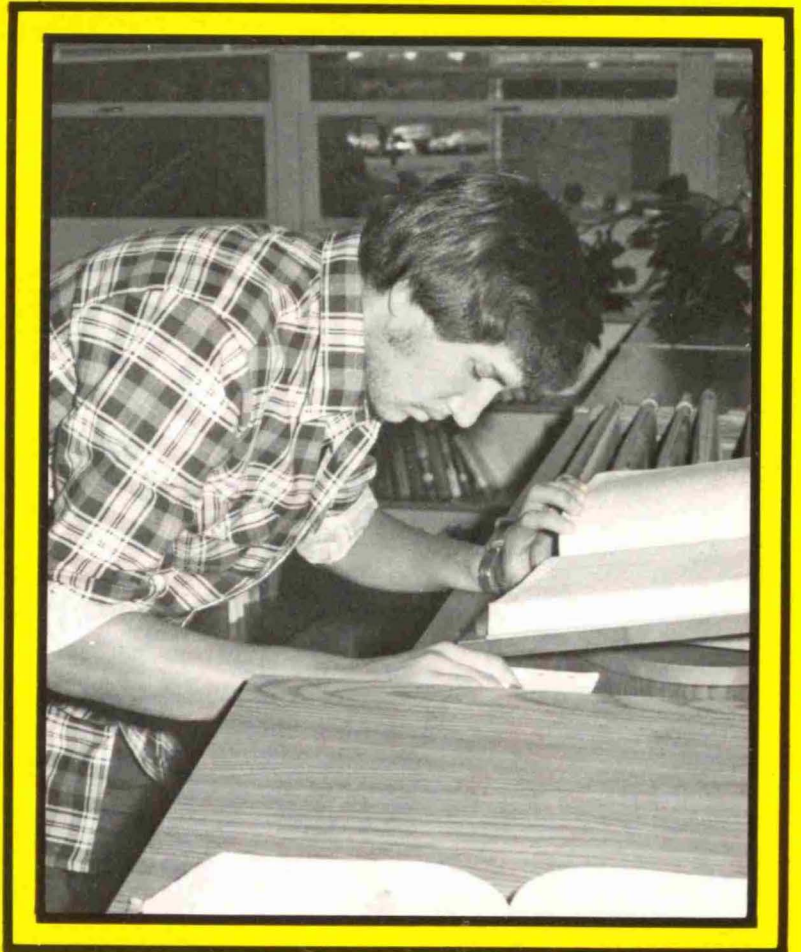

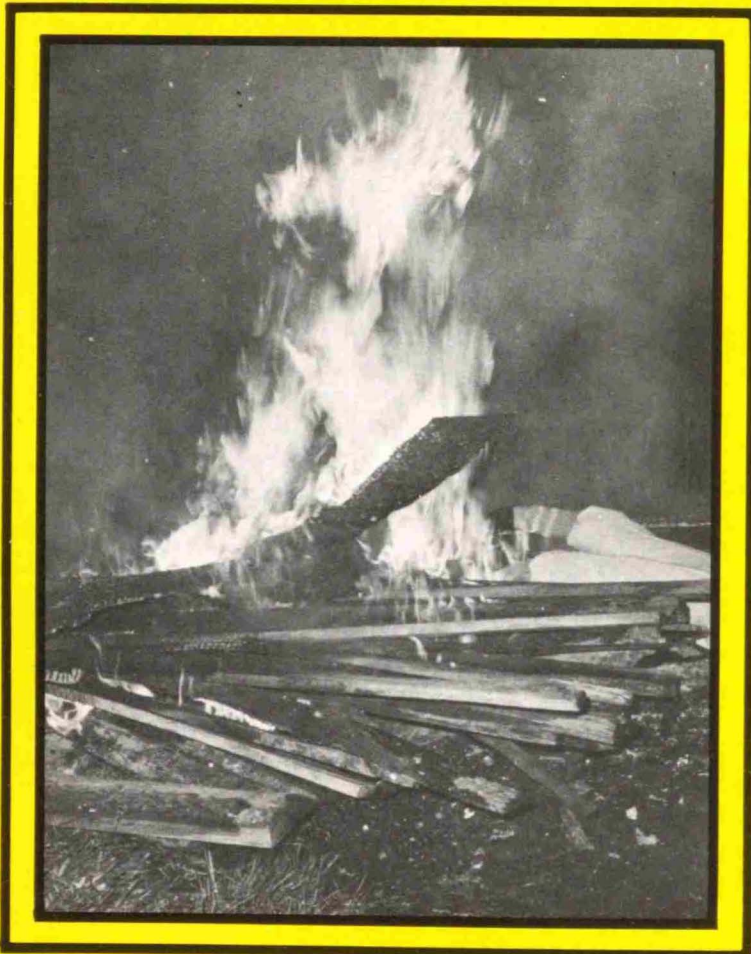

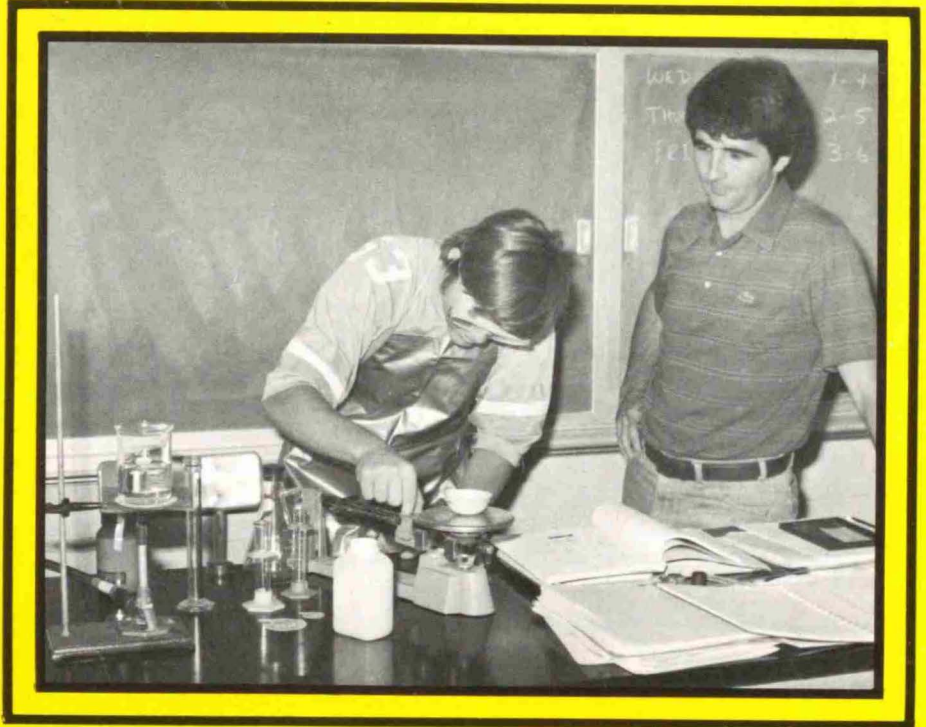

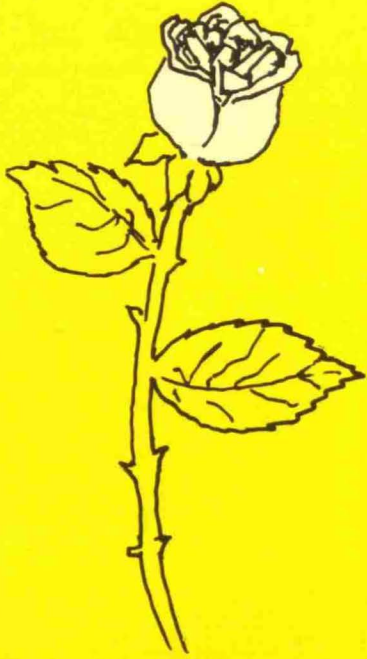

*In full bloom
An exquisitely beautiful specimen.
Its life has just started,
Yet seems so close to the end —
For the rose; for me; for you;
for us . . .*

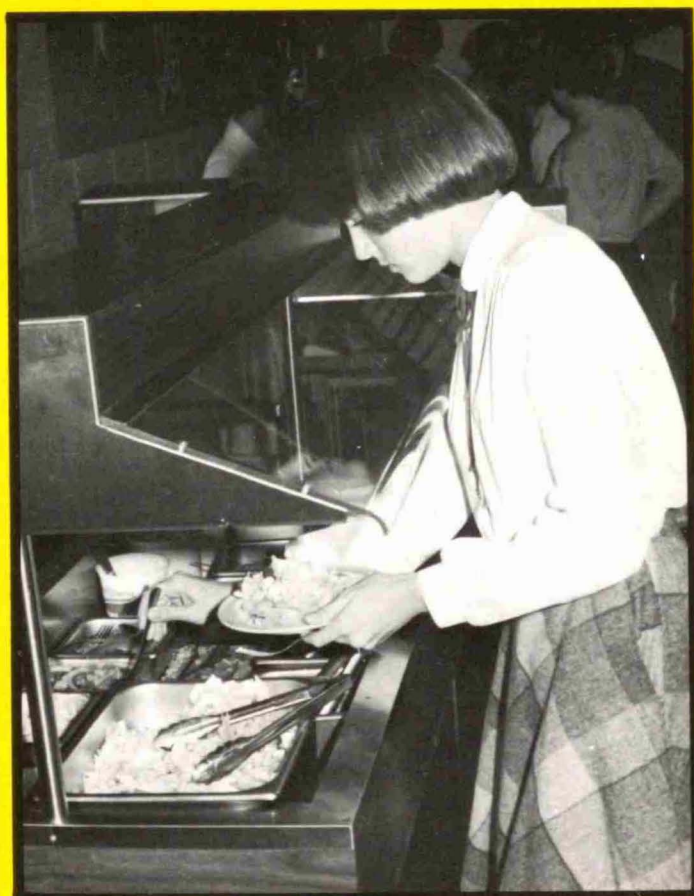

*Wilting into eternity, The petals fall,
the seasons change,
Bringing a new year; a new life.*

CODE OF ETHICS

WE, THE STUDENTS OF C. C. H. S. BELIEVE THAT WE HAVE CERTAIN RESPONSIBILITIES TO GOD, OUR COUNTRY, OUR COMMUNITY, OUR PARENTS, OUR TEACHERS, OUR FELLOW STUDENTS, AND OURSELVES. AND THAT BY PARTICIPATING IN SCHOOL GOVERNMENT AND SHARING SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITIES WE SHOULD STRIVE:

TO DEVELOP HIGH MORAL STANDARDS AND THE COURAGE TO LIVE BY THEM.

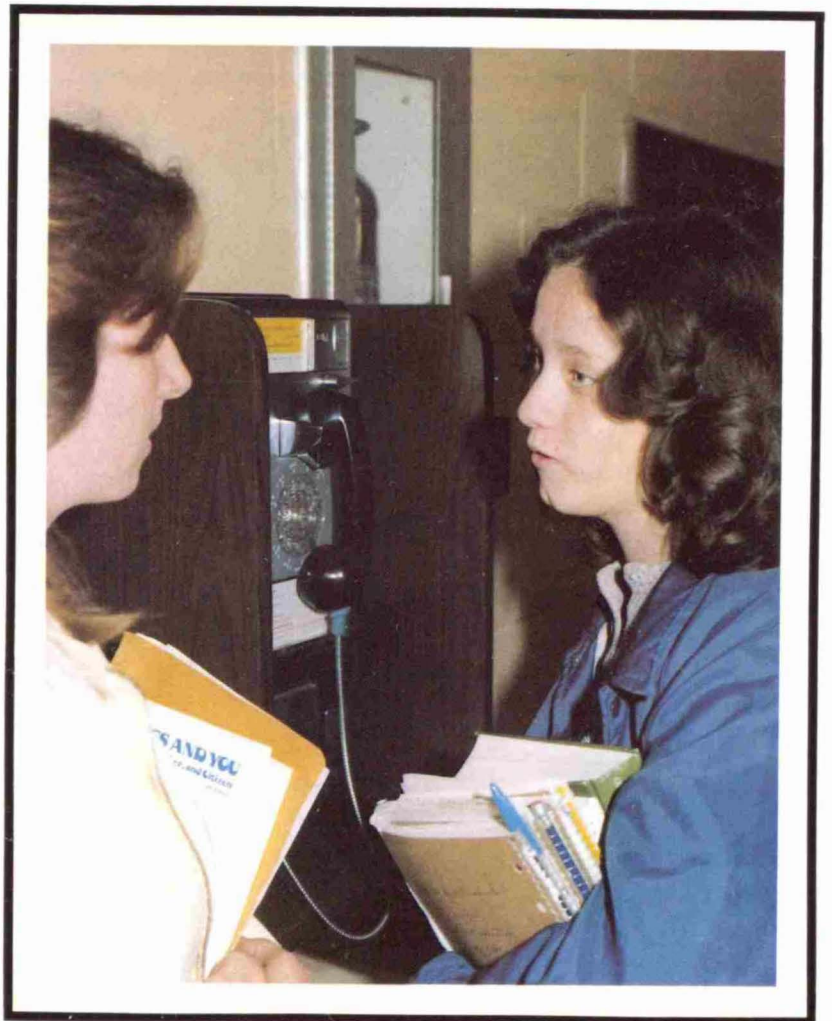

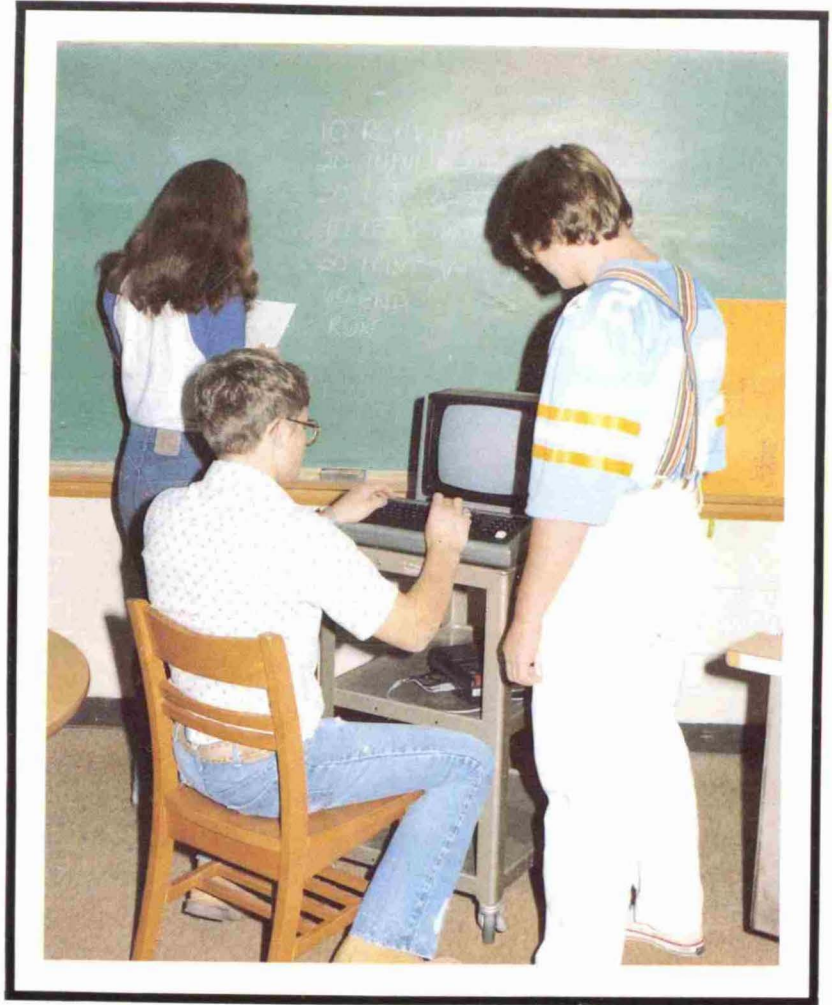

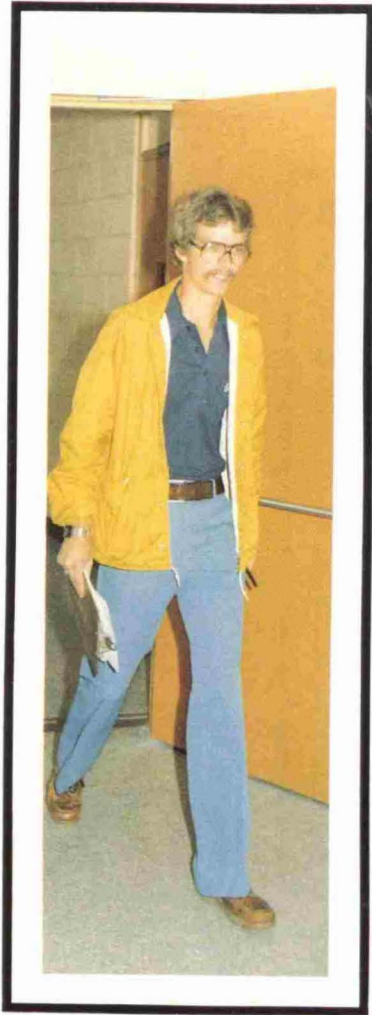

TO REGARD OUR EDUCATION SERIOUSLY IN ORDER TO PRESERVE AND STRENGTHEN OUR AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE.

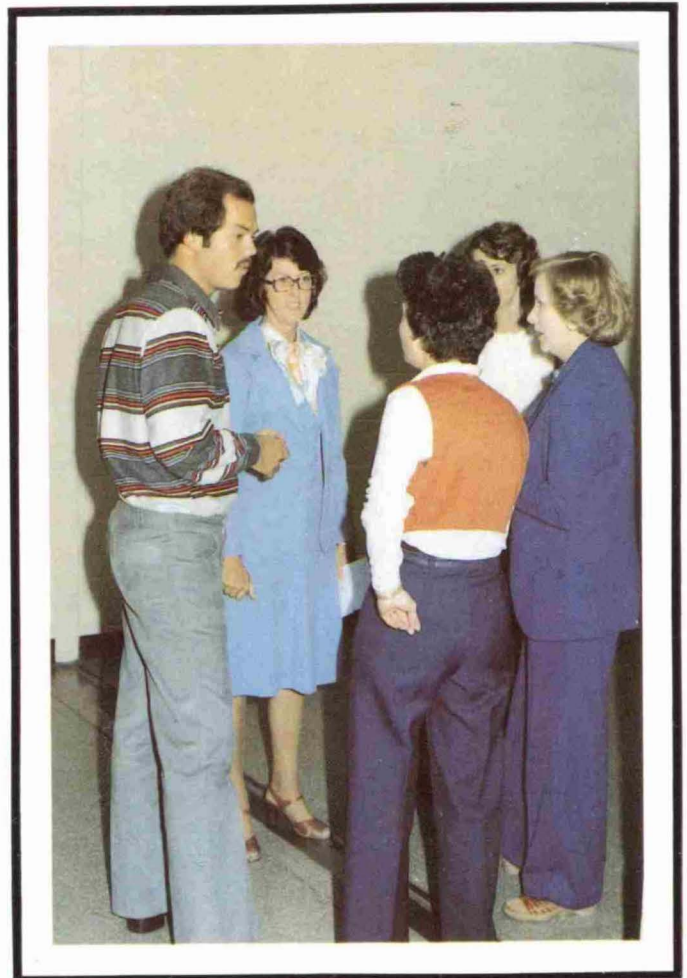

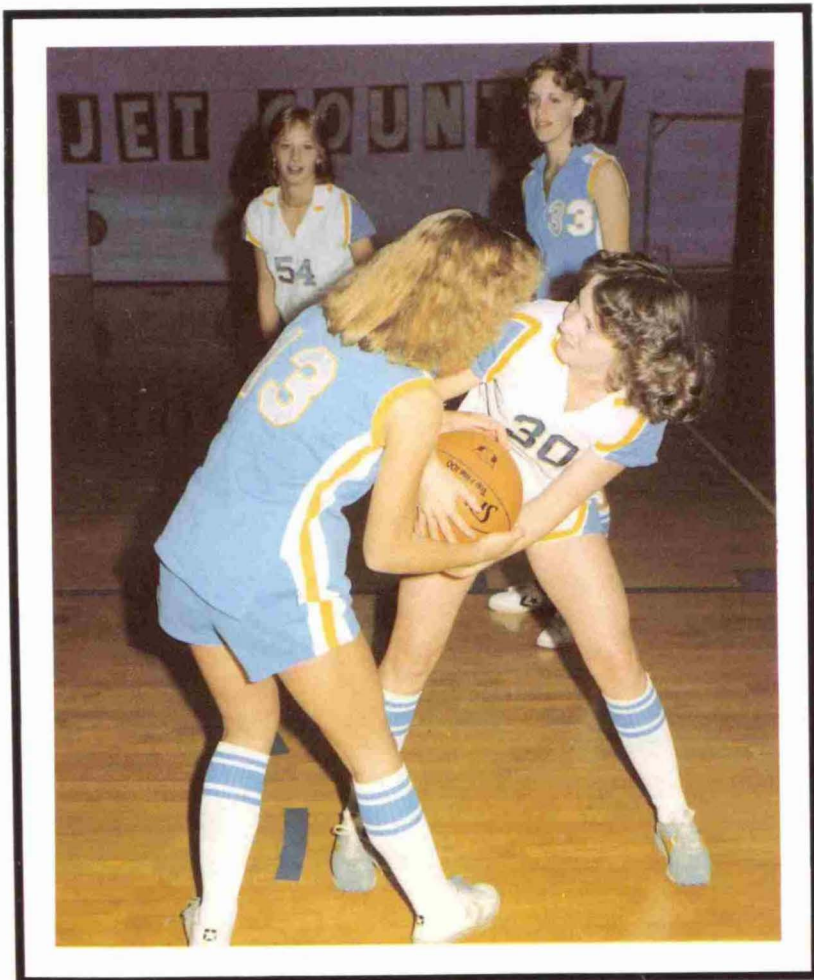

TO HONOR OUR PARENTS, TEACHERS, AND FELLOW STUDENTS BY SHOWING RESPECT, CONSIDERATION, AND COURTESY.

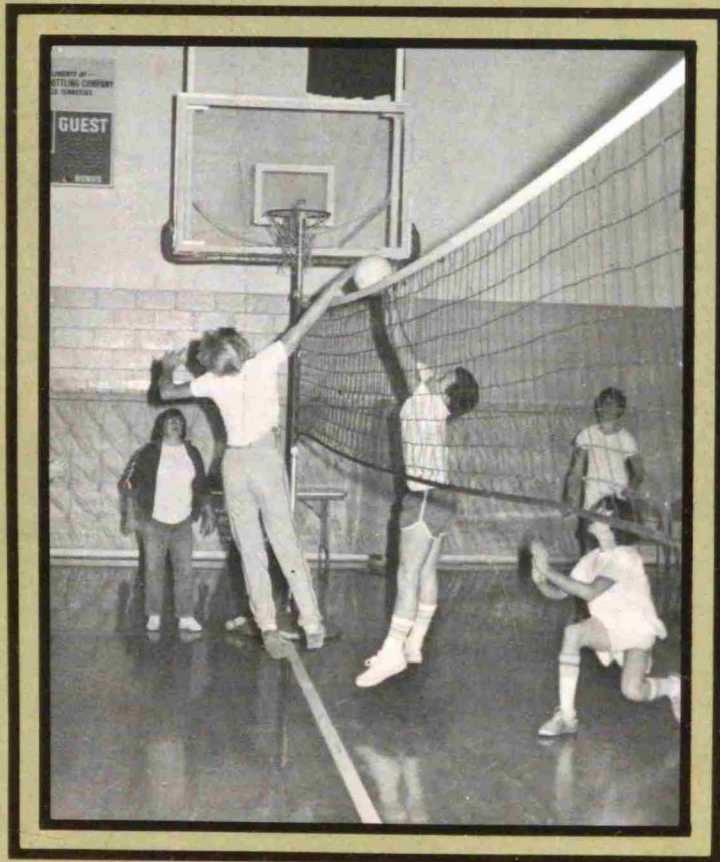

TO DEVELOP AN ATTITUDE OF GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP AND FAIR PLAY IN EVERYTHING WE DO AND TO RESPECT THE RIGHTS OF OTHERS.

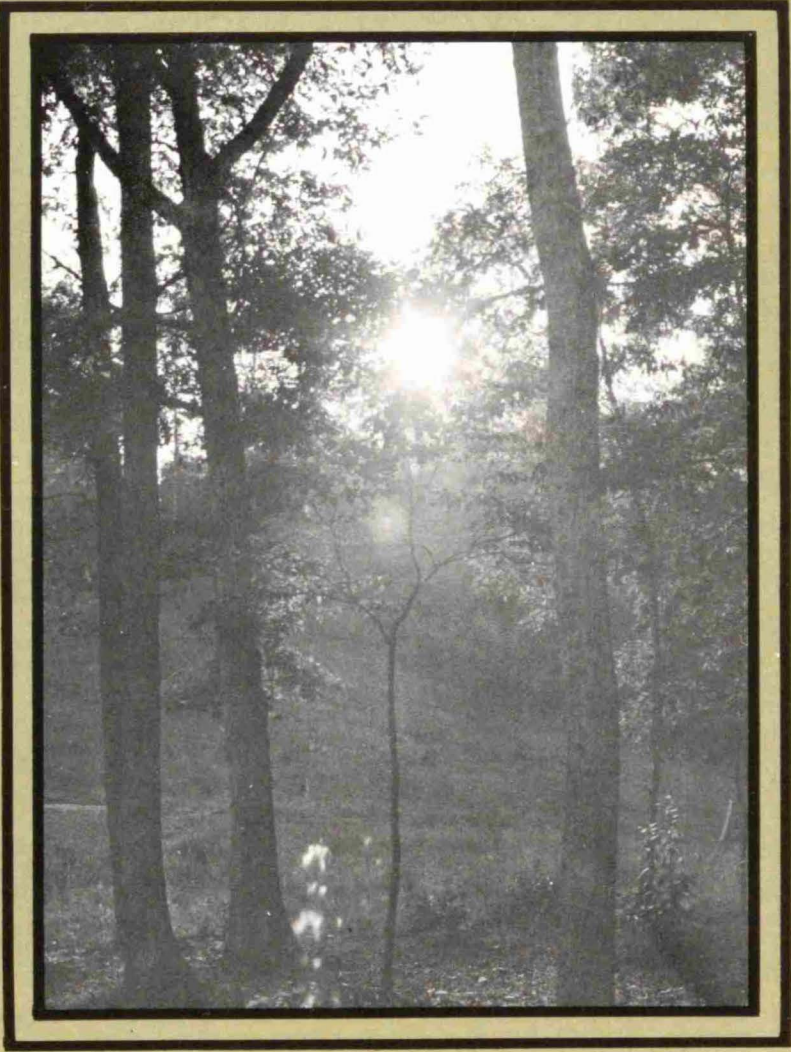

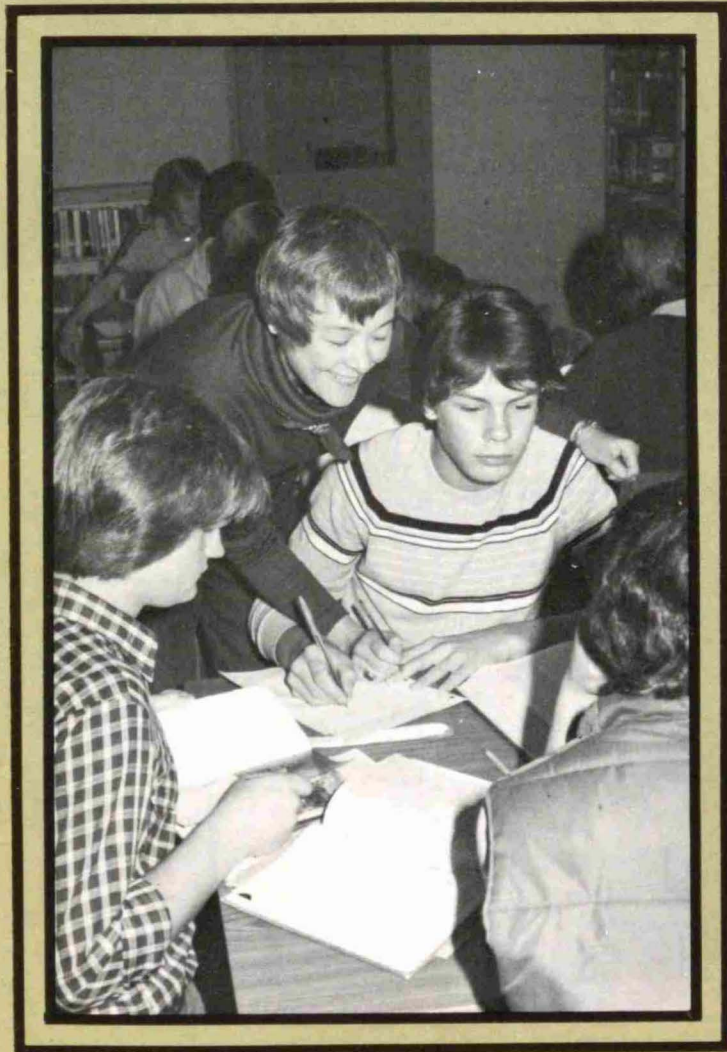

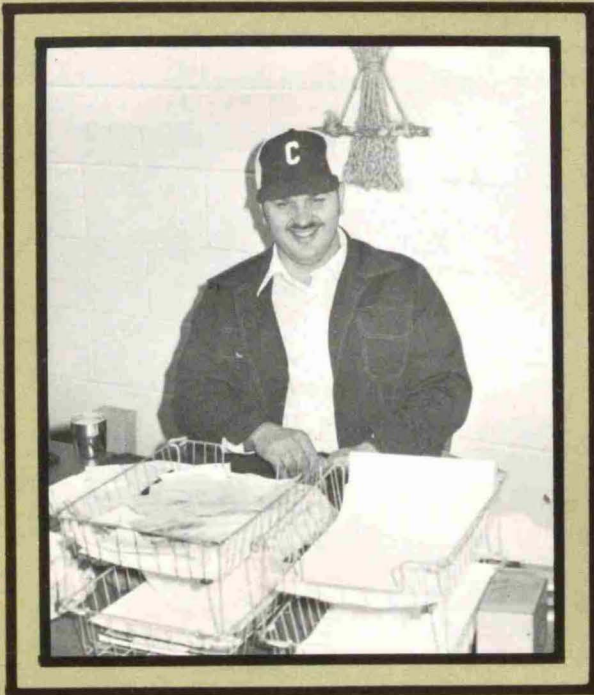

TO BE HONEST WITH OURSELVES AND OTHERS IN WHAT WE SAY AND DO.

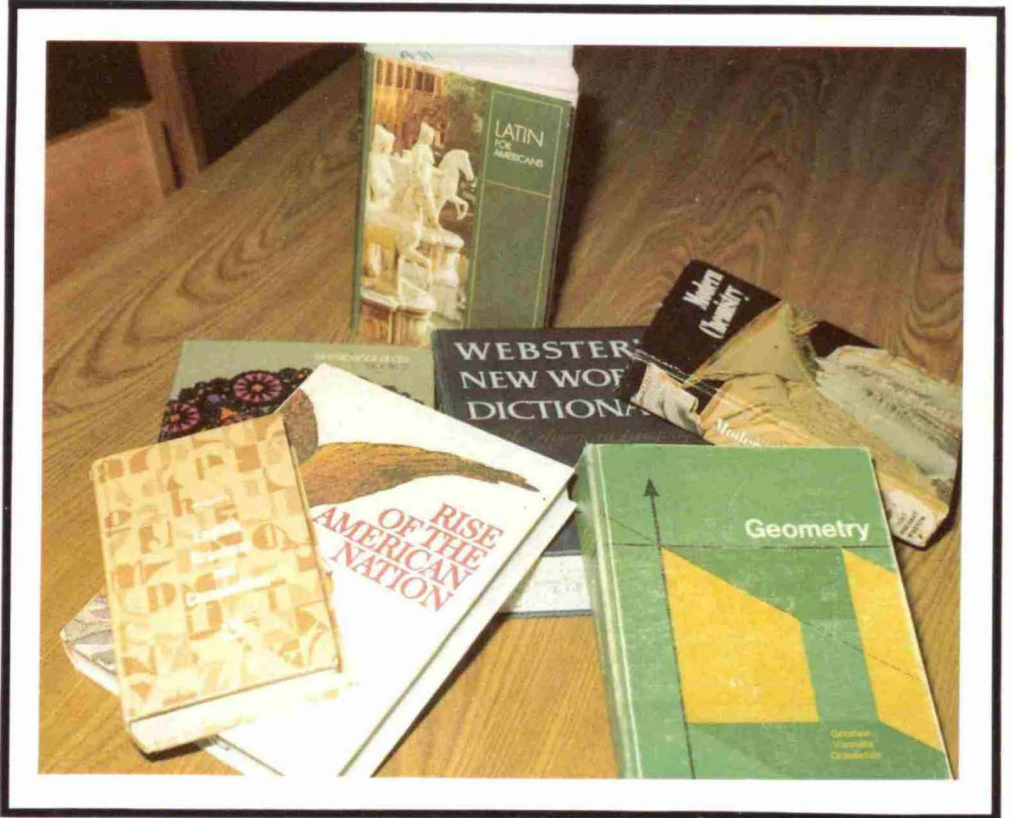

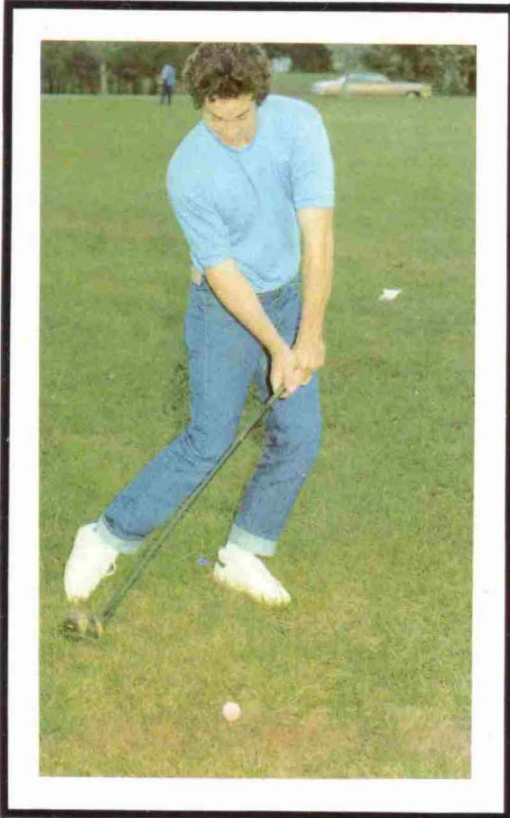

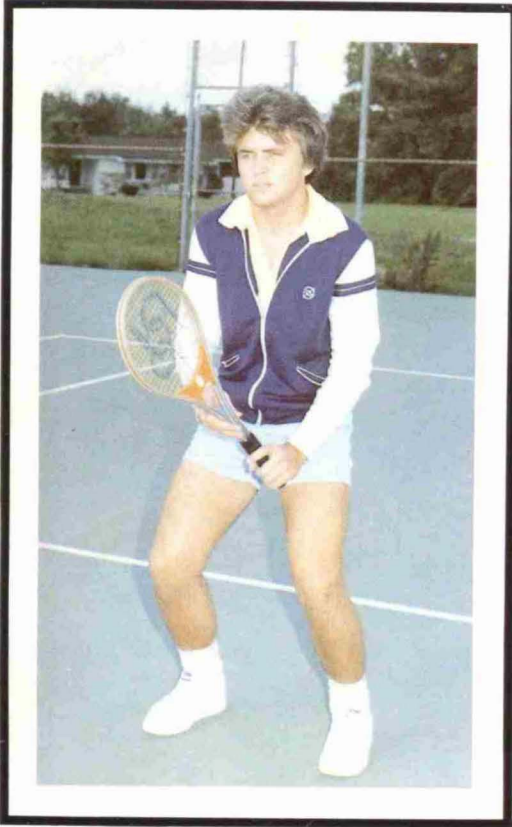

THESE RESPONSIBILITIES WE BELIEVE TO BE WORTHWHILE AND WILL STRIVE TO BETTER OURSELVES BY THEM.

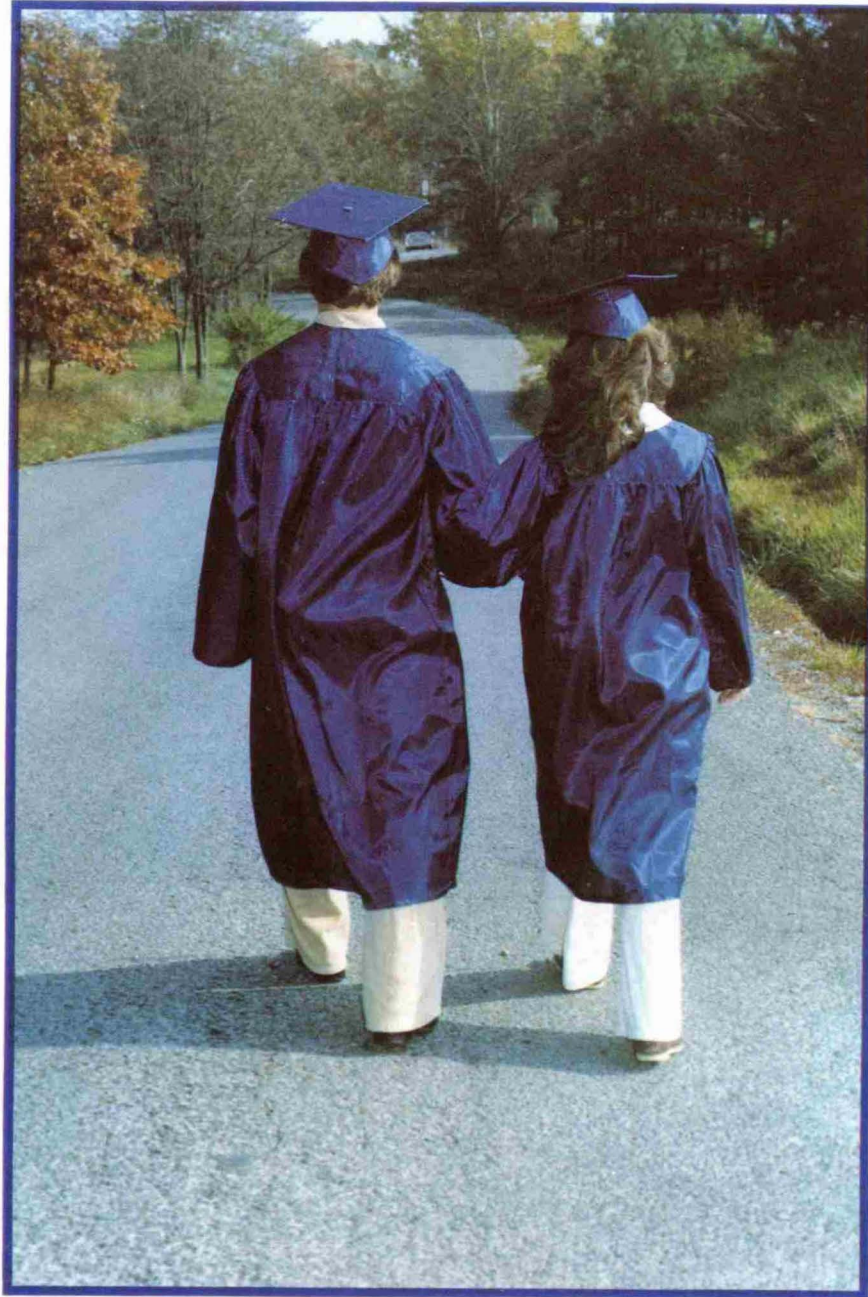

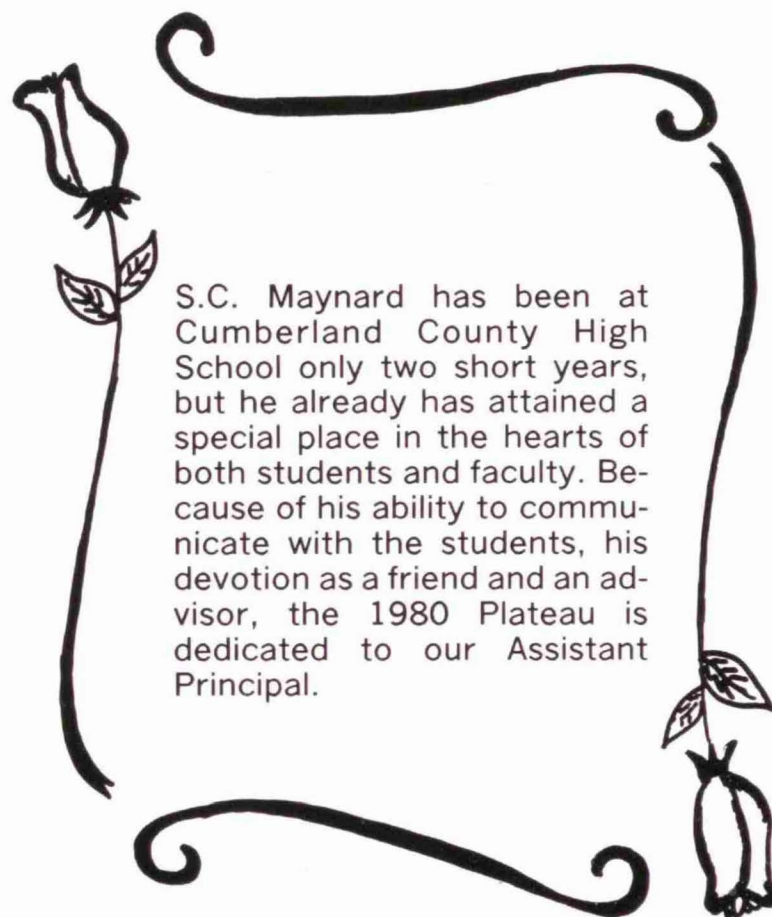

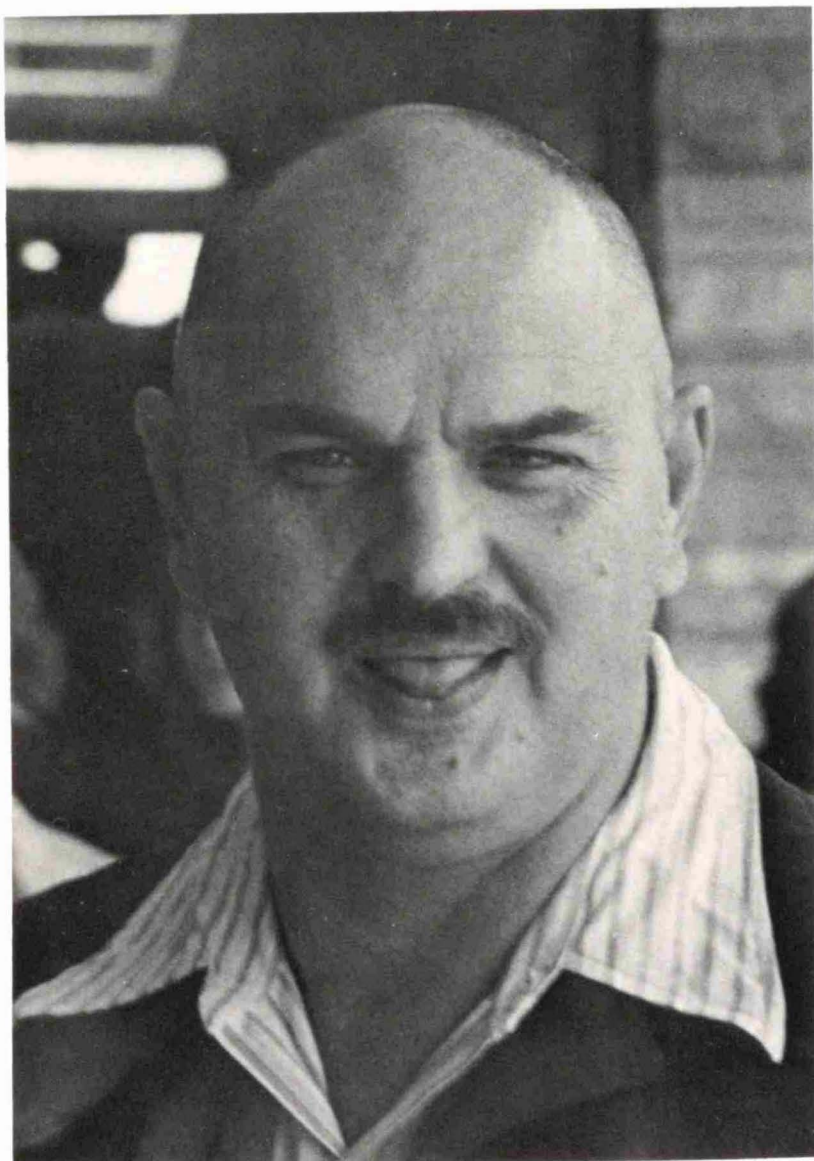

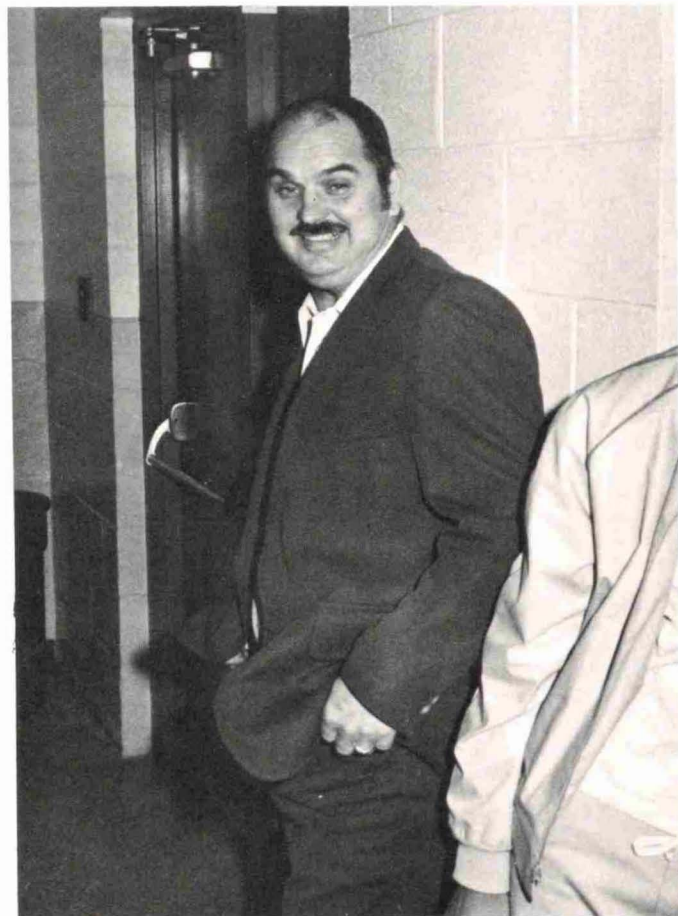

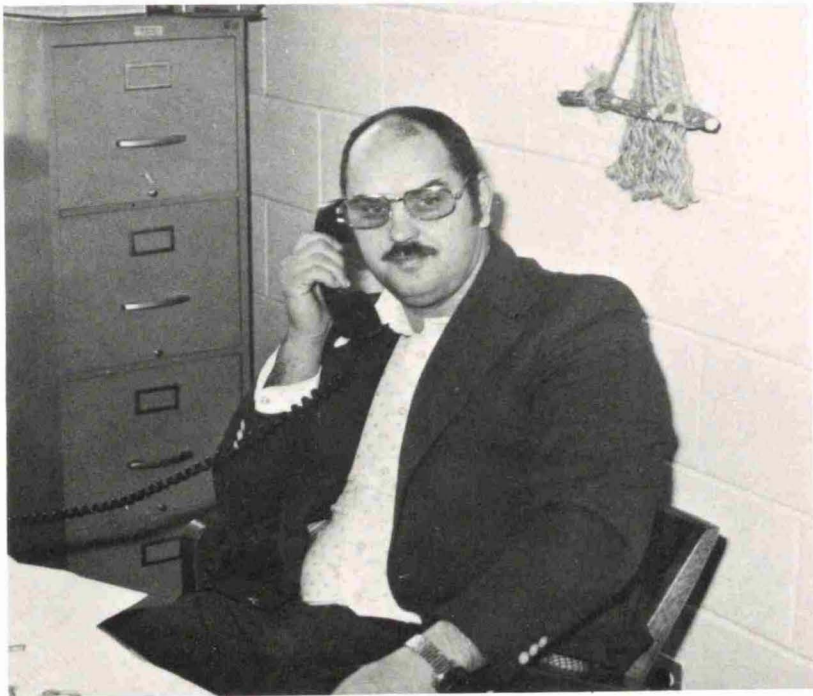

The flowering of the rose is symbolic of the growth and maturity of the students of our school. From the bud to the full blossomed rose to the dropping petals, the rose is like a year of our life in its many stages of growth and appearance. As the class of 1980 finishes its career here a decade will end and a decade will begin. The door is open to new ideas, new challenges and new goals. This edition of the Plateau will help rekindle the memories of this glorious year.

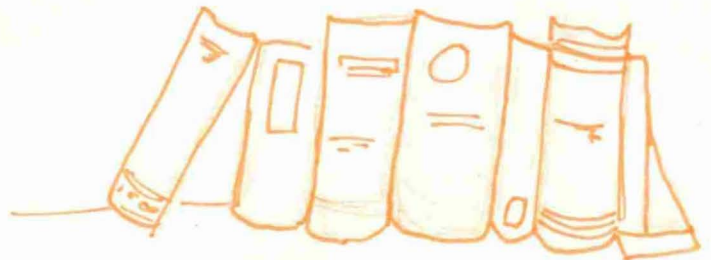

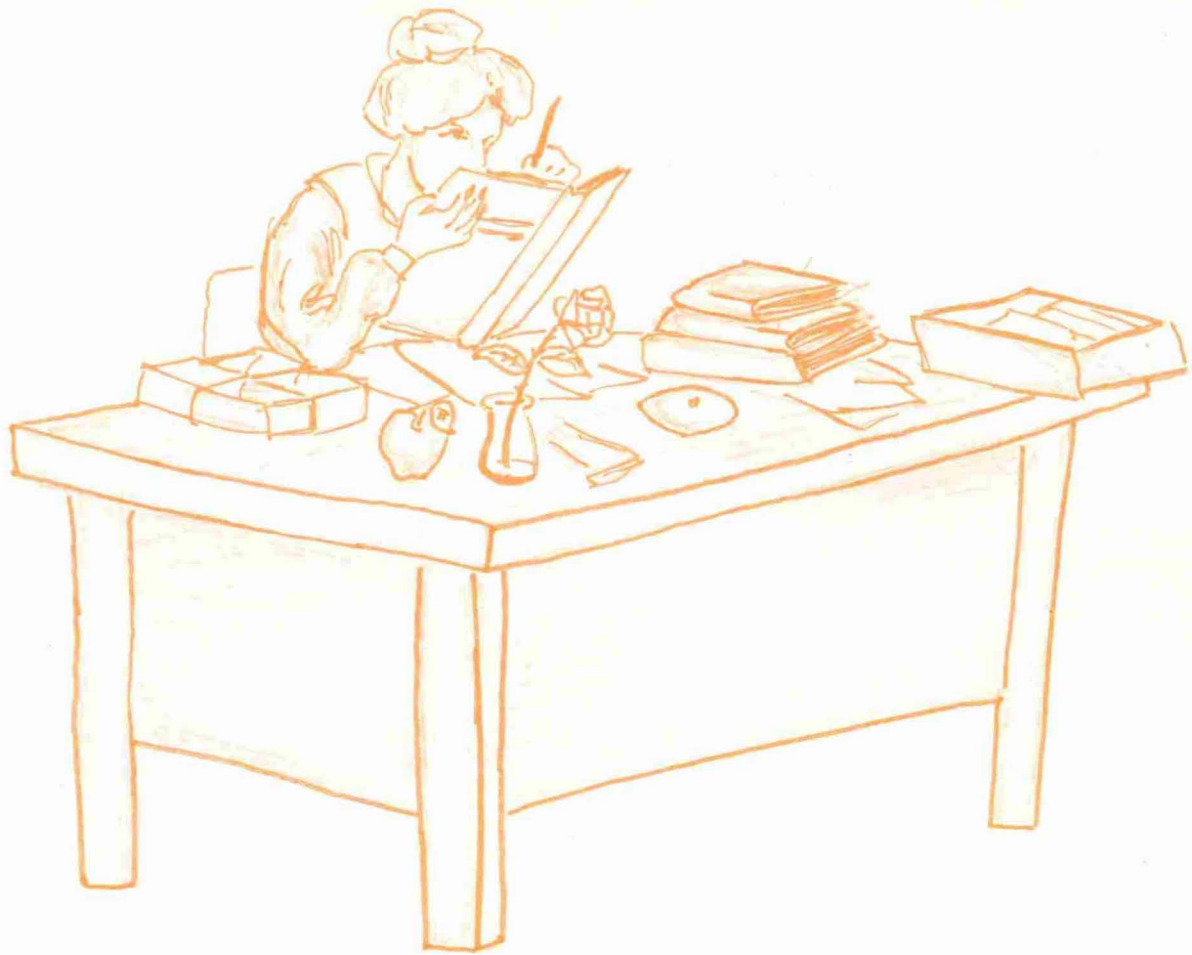

Memories light the corners of my mind.
Misty, water-color memories of the way we were.
Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind;
smiles we gave to one another, for the way we were.
Can it be that it was all so simple then,
or has time rewritten every line?
If we had the chance to do it all again, tell me, would we? could we?
Memories are so beautiful and yet, what's too painful to remember
we simply choose to forget.
So, it's the laughter we will remember whenever we remember the way we were.

S.C. Maynard has been at Cumberland County High School only two short years, but he already has attained a special place in the hearts of both students and faculty. Because of his ability to communicate with the students, his devotion as a friend and an advisor, the 1980 Plateau is dedicated to our Assistant Principal.

SENIOR CLASS TOP TWENTY FIVE

Valedictorian: SHERRY HEDGECOTH ... plans to become a professional musician and live in France ... enjoys cooking and reading French Literature.

Salutatorian: KIM WAY ... will attend David Lipscomb to become an accountant ... enjoys cake decorating and getting out of school for snow.

The top twenty five students from the Senior Class of 1980 were chosen from their academic grade point averages. Grades from the first three high school years were averaged with the first semester grades of their senior year. All grades are tallied excluding those of physical education.

This year's Top Twenty Five had an unusually high grade point average. From Valedictorian Sherry Hedgecoth at 99 to Sabra Stubbs with 94, all of the Top Twenty Five maintained A averages.

PAM HAYES ... favorite events of the '70's: Each of my birthdays ... enjoys bawling, bowling and reading.

4

TINA WYATT ... loves life on the farm and raising animals ... brother Greg a sophomore ... enjoys Deca and FFA.

5

JOY DAVIS ... will attend either Tenn. Tech or Vocational School ... member of Publications staff.

6

PHYLLIS MINCY ... plays on basketball and tennis teams ... 1979 football cheerleader ... editor of the Plateau.

Larry Elmore, 16 year old Junior, is the favorite of the class of '81. A member of the student council and the tennis team, Larry is popular with his classmates because of his great sense of humor and his friendly attitude.

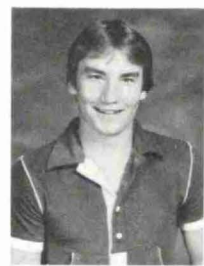

Lynne Hatcher is also a class favorite. Unfortunately, she had to move away before we could obtain her picture, but she will remain one of our favorite people where she is.

Reflections

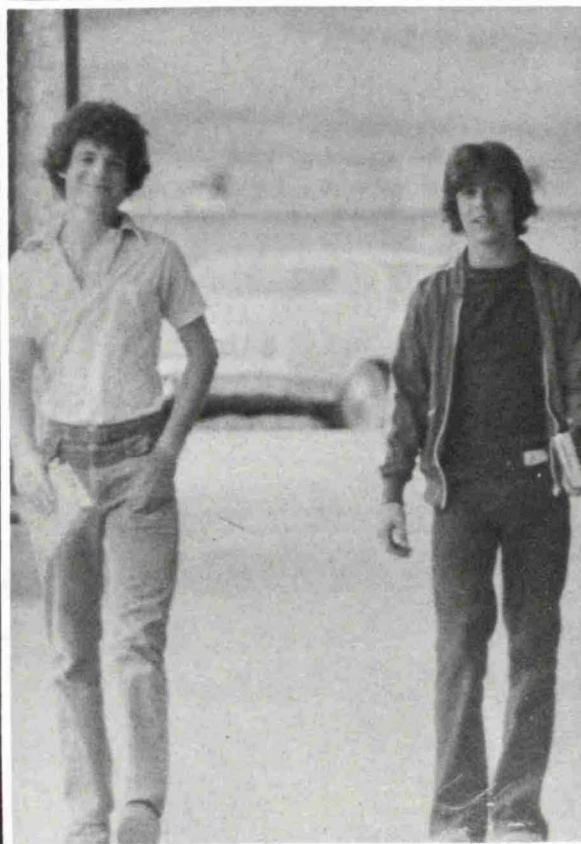

As I look back upon my year as a junior, I realize that I have learned at least one thing, never take all subjects advanced, that is, unless you have an urge for ulcers and absolutely no need for sleep.

Tim Forsythe

Life is like a fresh green meadow after it rains, with its sweet smell. But sometimes its like the smell of a dirt road after it rains. Either way, it touches the sky in a distance.

Michelle Mackzum

ACTIVITIES

Russell Clark, Joe Mayfield, Shelli Sherrill, Sabra Stubbs, Ken Walker, Brenda Whitenburg. Division Page Art by Scott Langford

FOOTBALL

"I like the contact, prestige, and the thrill of victory, but I also like representing my school and town."

Steve Kerley

"Looking into the stands on one of our away games and seeing that we had as many fans as our opponents had is what I remember most."

Mike Rollins

"I play football because I like to cause coach Bolin's grey hair. I like the cheerleaders and killing quarterbacks; crippling them, making them bleed profusely. But more than anything else, I like getting chocolate chip cookies in my locker from the cheerleaders."

Jack "Alphonso" Clark

"The Soddy Daisy game sticks out most in my mind because #44 ran across the line and killed me before the ball was ever snapped."

Greg McCoy

"Football has taught me to discipline myself when I am going to do something and that you have to sacrifice certain things to be a winner."

Tommy Holder

The event that sticks out the most in my mind is the time the quarterback for Redbank lined up behind the offensive guard instead of the center.

Larry Long

Winning is what I like best about football.

Rodney French

I have learned through playing football that anything can be accomplished through hard work.

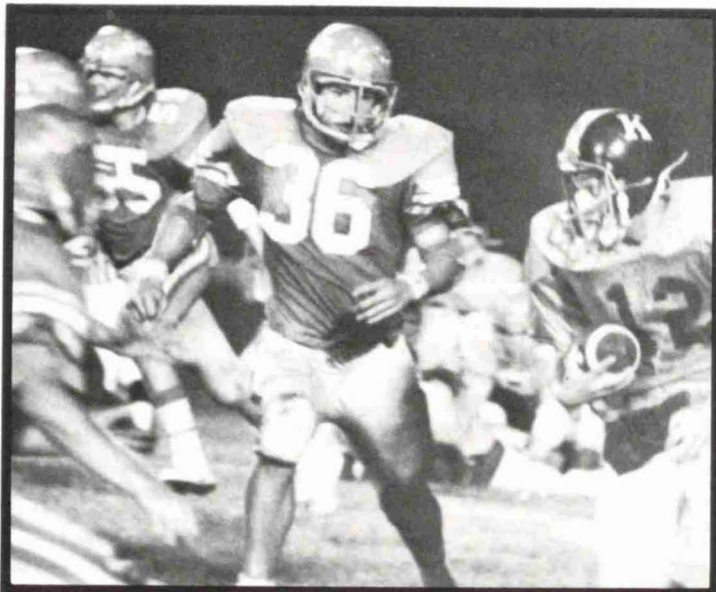

Jeff Brown

The thing that sticks out the most in my mind about football this past season is Rex Meinecke going out to practice without his helmet.

Packy Gibson

I play football because I want to be top dog, the desire to be #1.

Duane Davis

C.C.H.S. 16 Kingston 9

The C.C.H.S. Jet roared loudly during the opening game at home against Kingston on September 7. The Yellowjackets dropped fast as the Jet exhaust left a cloud of insecticide behind on its flight towards victory.. Terry Elmore piloted the Jet forward, rushing 136 yards and scoring 2 touchdowns. The Yellowjacket sting was ineffective against Davey Phillips as he "raided" the Kingston passing game.

C.C.H.S. 26 Chattanooga Central 5

On September 14, the Jet flew to Chattanooga Central for the Jets' first away game of the season. The Purple Pounders encountered a little more than they expected as the Jet bomb squad did a little pounding of its own. Rodney French replaced Terry Elmore in the pilot seat to lead the Jet offense to score 26 points. Meanwhile, David Hampton led the charging Jet defense as they gunned down the Purple Pounders.

C.C.H.S.27 East Ridge 18

The C.C.H.S. Jet flew high on October 5 as it encountered the undefeated East Ridge Pioneers on the C.C.H.S. Homecoming night. The Pioneers were a little shaken up in the unfamiliar Jet territory when the Jet boomed to a 14-0 lead in the first half. The Pioneers came back in the second half but the Jet country was one wilderness the Pioneers were unable to tame.

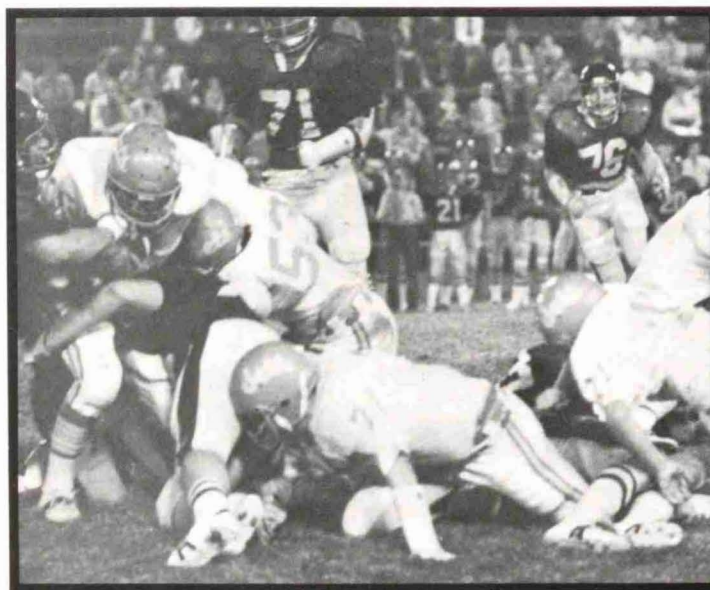

C.C.H.S. 0 Rhea County 28

The Jet seemed to run out of fuel in Rhea County on October 12. The Golden Eagles protected their home roosting grounds fiercely when the invading Jet malfunctioned in its efforts to retain its undefeated status. Rhea County triumphed over C.C.H.S. as the Eagles preyed on the ill performing Jet. While Eagles ruffled their tail-feathers in Rhea County, the crippled Jet flew home for repairs.

C.C.H.S. 24 Soddy Daisy 7

This week, September 21, the Jet introduced modern warfare to the Soddy Daisy Trojans. The primitive Trojans were unable to stop the Jet maneuvers in the air as Larry Long caught 3 touchdown passes to head the Jet toward a 24-7 victory in Trojan territory. Jack Clark led his men out of the wooden horse to conduct a rugged defense against the soldiers of Troy.

C.C.H.S. 20 McMinn County 7

The Jet did some scalping when it battled the McMinn County Cherokees on September 28. War-whoops sounded as the Cherokees tried to retaliate and gain a lead in the battle. The braves used their indian tactics to the ultimatum but were unable to stifle the oncoming Jet calvary. The Cherokees went to their teepees in Athens crying this Friday night when the Jet flew home with another win.

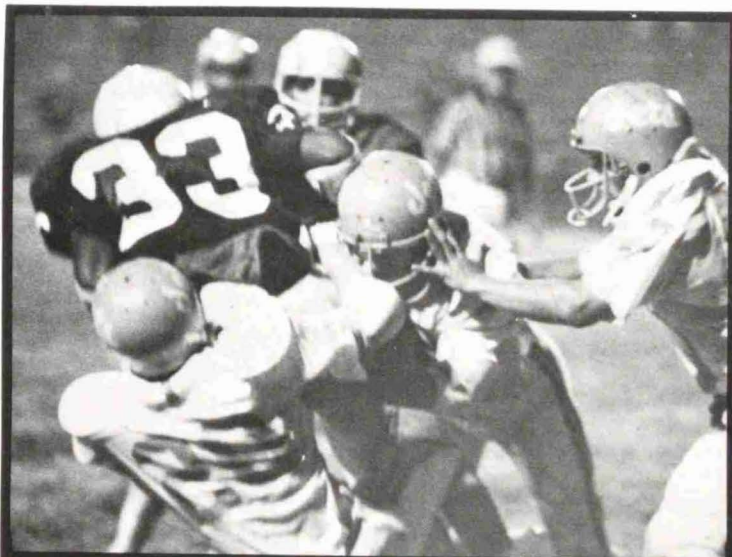

C.C.H.S. 25 Sparta 6

The reconditioned Jet was well prepared to fight the oncoming Sparta Warriors on October 19 at the Jet airfield. After the last week's loss, the Jet was up roaring again, using every winning maneuver it possessed. Because the insignificant weapons of the Warriors' offense and defense could do limited damage to the raging Jet, C.C.H.S. relished the sixth victory of the season.

C.C.H.S. 16 Cleveland 6

The predatory attack of the Cleveland Raiders was disrupted by the Jet on October 26 when the Raiders walked into a well executed ambush in Jet country. C.C.H.S. was astonishingly determined to upset the top rated team in the district while the home team demonstrated a little Jet Pride.

CCHS 0 Bradley Central 21

The Jet was unable to bring home a bear skin on November 2 when the Bradley Central Bears fought off the Jet in Bradley County. Those gruesome grizzlies showed their cutting canines as they stopped the Jet from scoring twice on the goal line. This time the Jet did not run out of fuel but certain navigational errors led to the CCHS loss.

CCHS 7 Red Bank 6

By November 9, the Jet got its compass fixed and flew right on course against the Red Bank Lions. The Cumberland Plateau is a little strange territory to Lions so one can understand the confusion that the Jet Country caused those frantic felines. It was a close one but the CCHS "lion-tamers" came out on top once again.

The 1979-80 basketball season was one of many changes for the Lady Jets. Not only did the girls experience a new coach and a new district, but they also began playing a whole new game as Tennessee girls basketball switched from the traditional six-player half-court game to the five-player full-court style. In district 5AAA action, first-year coach John Saylor led the Lady Jets to a seven and nine record against such fierce opponents as Bradley Co., and McMinn Co., and Red Bank.

The Lady Jets finished the regular season at 10-17, losing 9 games by 6 points or less, and losing a 1 point heart-breaker to Soddy Daisy in the District tourney. Two sophomores and one junior started the majority of the games this year with a third sophomore seeing much action throughout the season. This experience will prove invaluable to the Lady Jets as they begin preparations for next season.

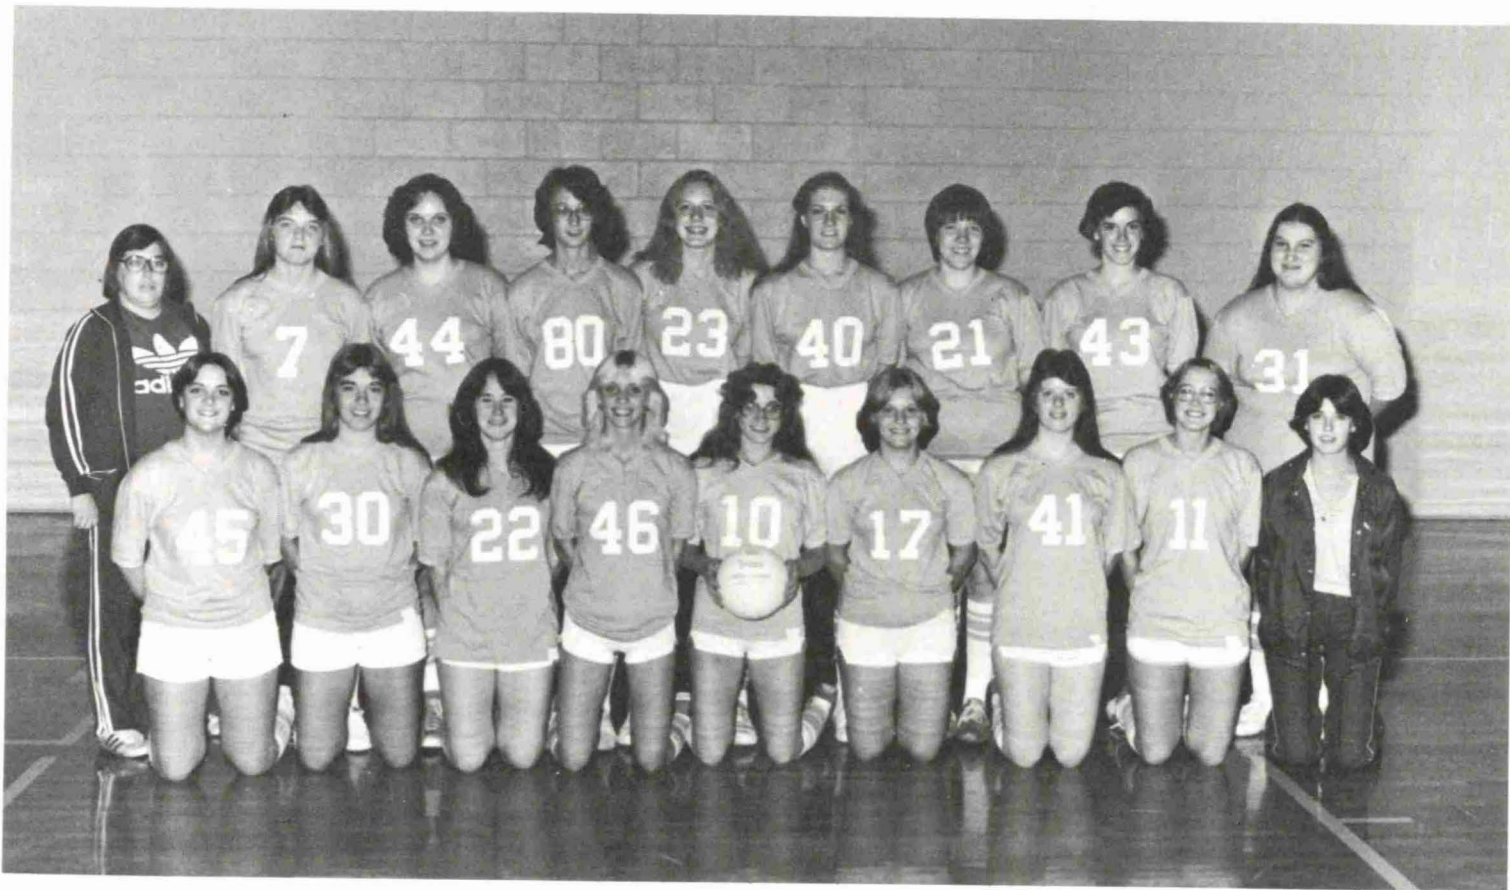

Coach Mark Bray led his bombers to another successful season posting a district record of 12 wins and 4 losses. The Jets made excellent showings against many powerful teams, using their basketball magic to delight their fans and confuse their opponents.

Perhaps one of the biggest highlights of the year was in a home game against Chattanooga Red Bank when Senior Jet Greg Tabor scored his career one-thousandth point. The game was stopped and Greg was awarded the game ball in honor of his spectacular achievement. Greg Tabor also received a nomination to play on the McDonald's High School All-American Team.

The Jets enjoyed fantastic wins over Soddy-Daisy, 81-52, McMinn Co., 60-44, and Sparta, 68-66. The Jets defeated the Livingston Wildcats, 53-50, in an exciting Spirit Day win. It was the first time that the Jets have defeated the Livingston team in three years.

Hustle and determination carried the Jets to an overall season record of 20 wins and 7 losses.

This year was the debut of the girls volleyball team at Cumberland County High School. Although they were defeated in tournament play by the #1 team in the district, they posted a winning record during the regular season. Through extensive practice and the experience gained in competition, volleyball fundamentals and good sportsmanship were acquired. Much effort and enthusiasm combined to make the 1979-1980 season a memorable one.

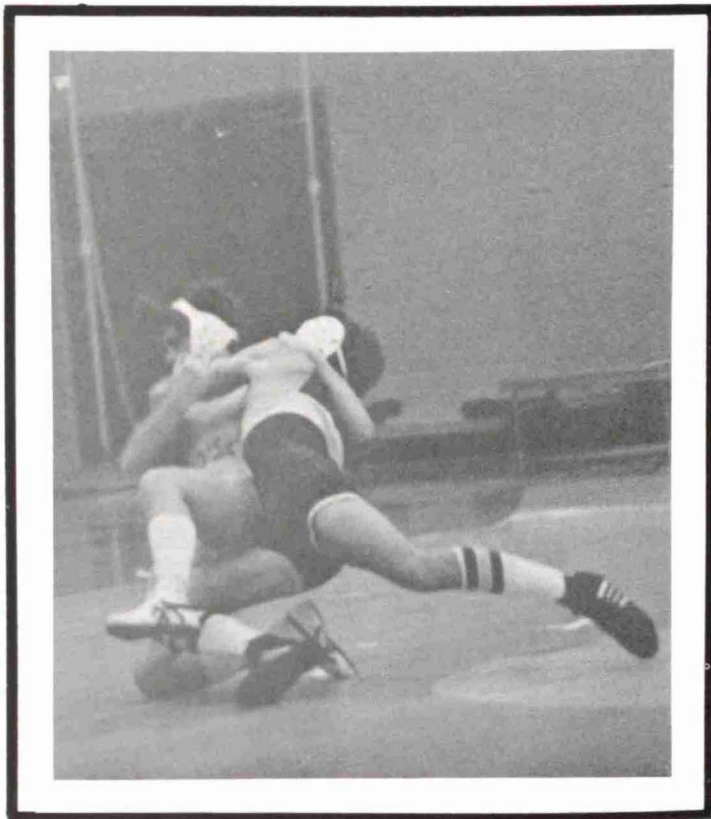

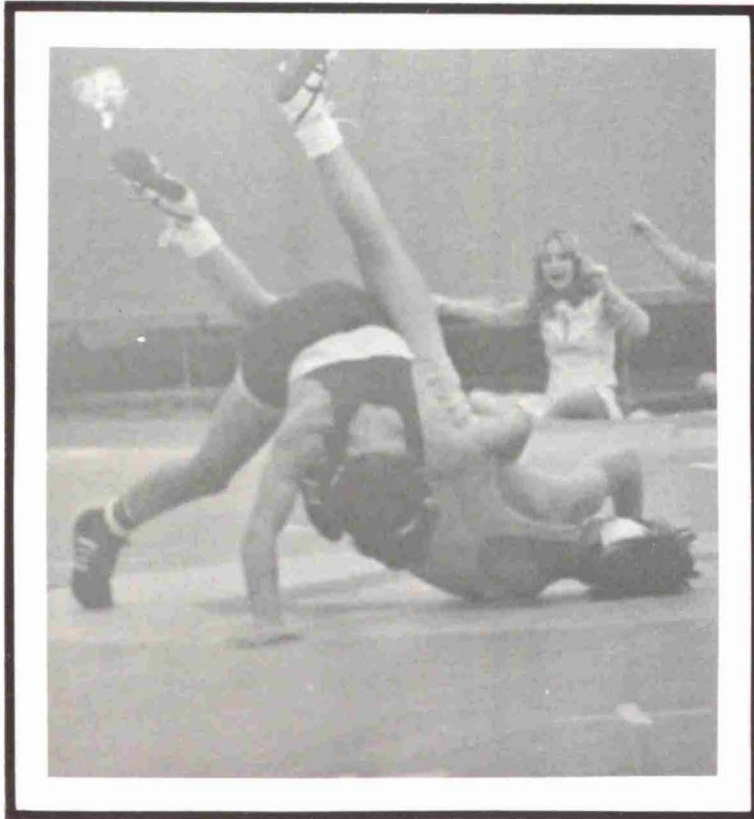

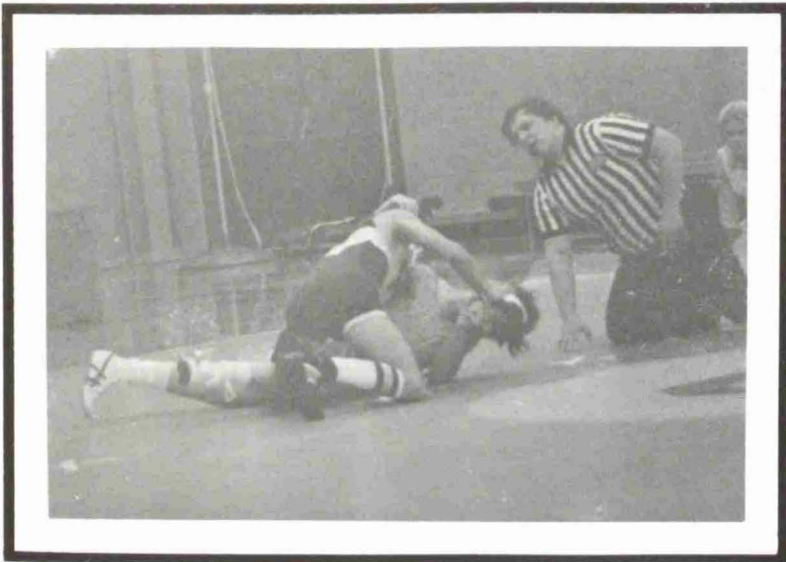

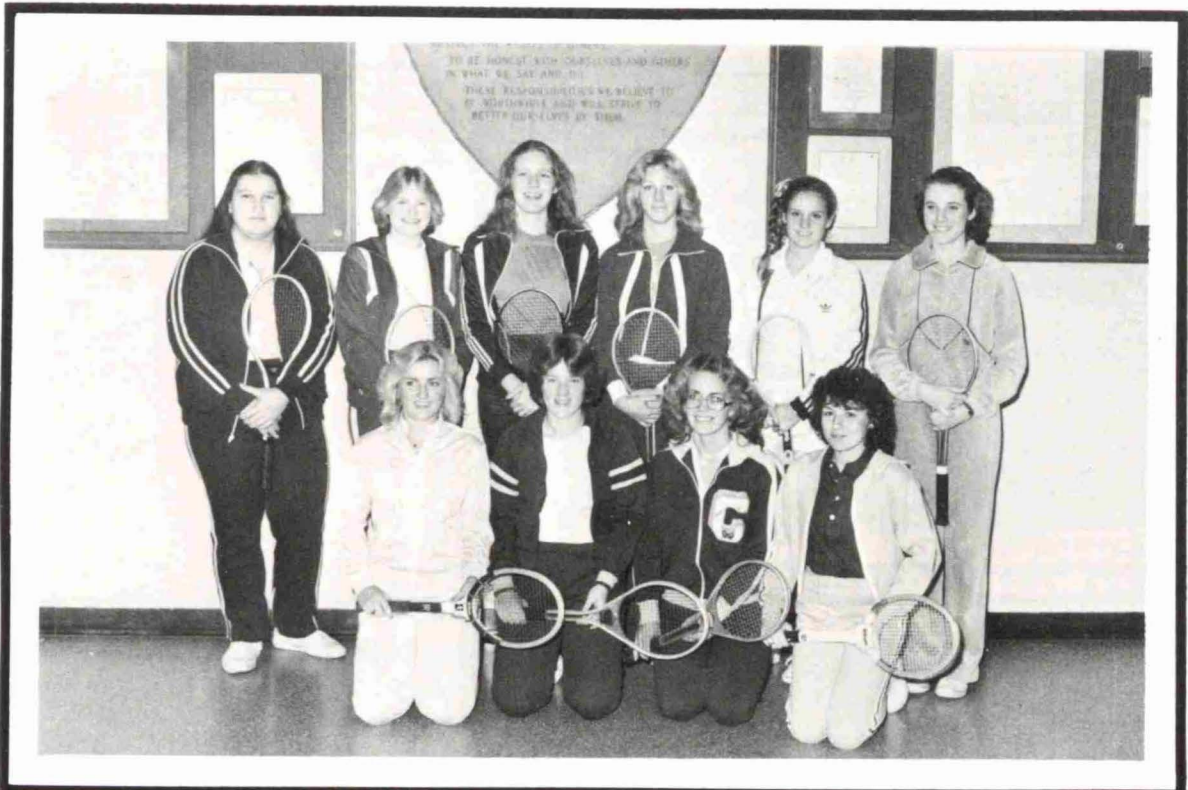

A new sport was introduced at CCHS this year with Coach Hollis Bolin and his wrestlers making their debut. The wrestling team received good reactions from the students and faculty and received much support at matches held during school hours. The wrestlers did well this year considering that Bill and Darrell Veler were the only two team members with any wrestling experience. Pat Burk was the only Senior on the team and twelve lettermen will return for next year's action.

WORK ...
DEDICATION
EQUALS JET PRIDE —

1. Debbie Hall must concentrate hard to master those difficult rifle routines.
2. Bonnie Bruce listens apprehensively as the final scores at marching contest are read.
3. The motto of the 1979 Jet Band was displayed effectively on Jeff Lee's shirt.
4. At the end of a long day, Jathena Barger looks on with disgust as her fellow clarinet players make another mistake.
5. Although directing the band can be frustrating, Mr. Stepp has confidence in the band's abilities.
6. Todd Smith always provides variety during band practice.
7. Teresa Marlow plays her heart out during a band performance.

FULL BAND

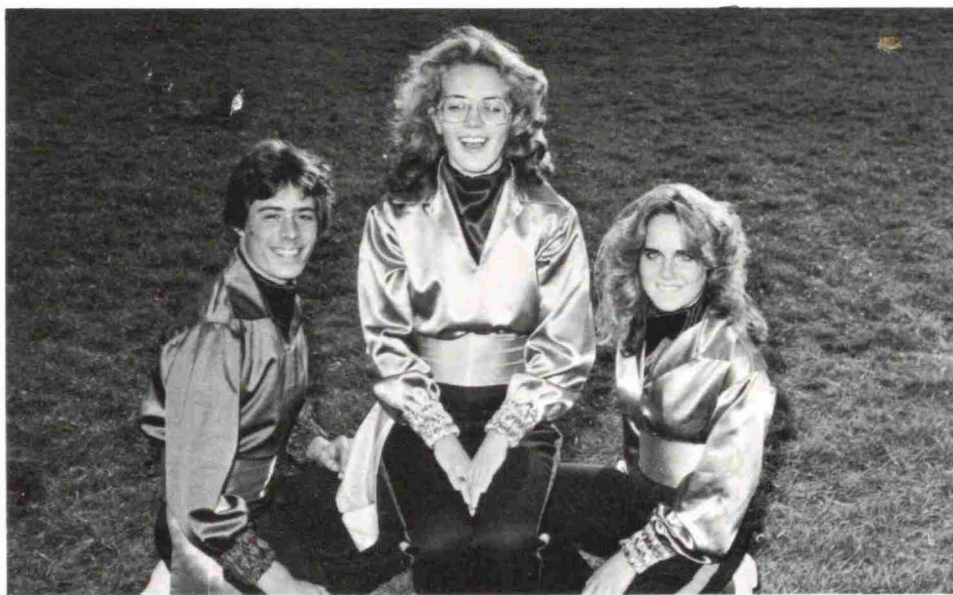

Although the 1979-80 C.C.H.S. Marching Band was smaller in size than in previous years, their great sound and dynamic maneuvers on the field provided football fans with some outstanding halftime entertainment. The band received many awards, including superior ratings at both the Sequatchie Valley and Smokey Mountain marching contests. Aside from the halftime show, the band participated in various other activities, including a Christmas concert, a trip to Disney World, and their annual production of Musical Moods.

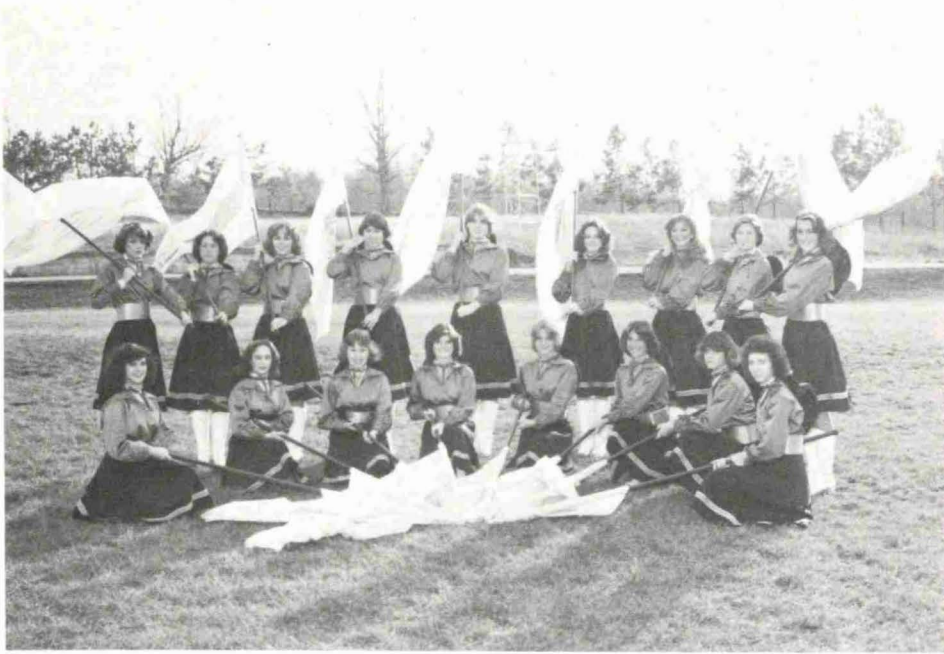

DRUM MAJOR

Known for her vivid display of energy and personality on the marching field, Sabra Stubbs finished her third year as Drum Major for the C.C.H.S. Band.

Band Officers
Band officers for the 1979-80 year were, as follows: Laurie Bunch, President, Jeff Lee, Vice President, and Sherry Hedgecoth, Secretary-Treasurer. Laurie Bunch, the band's president, was also the 1979 Band Sweetheart.

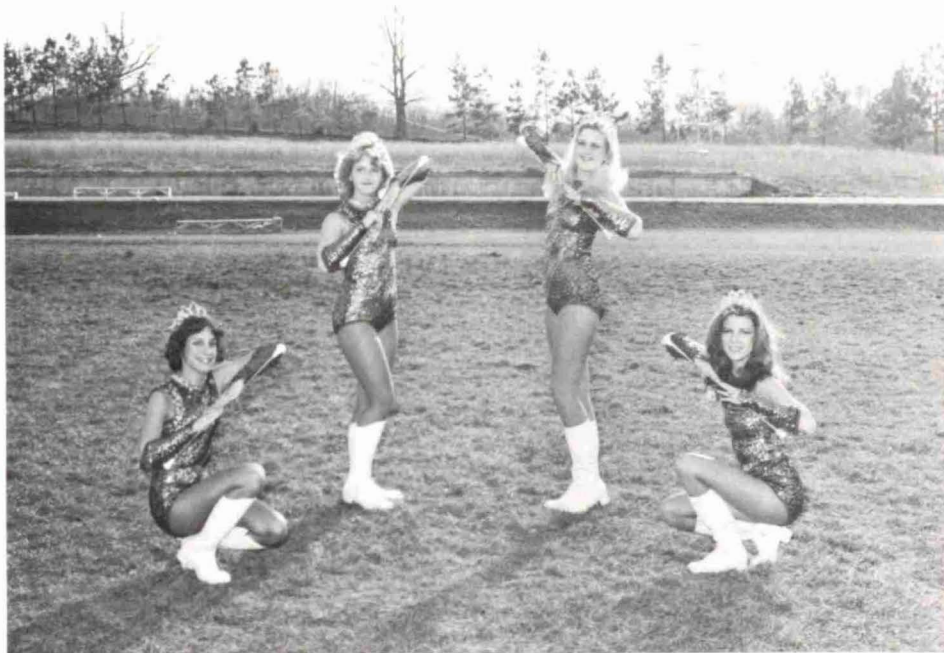

FLAGS

Known as the "window dressing" of the band show, the 1979 flag corps worked hard to perfect a series of graceful and entertaining routines. Kneeling: Diana Purser, Andrea Farris, Barbi Rambo, Wendy Richardson, Julie Myers, Laurie Merola (captain), Amy Haney, and Selena Jones. Standing: Annette Taylor, Cindi Wells, Madge Reed, Marsha Burgess, Sandy Davis, Shari Boggus, Lisa Campbell, Kim Morgan, and Rachel Cravens.

RIFLES

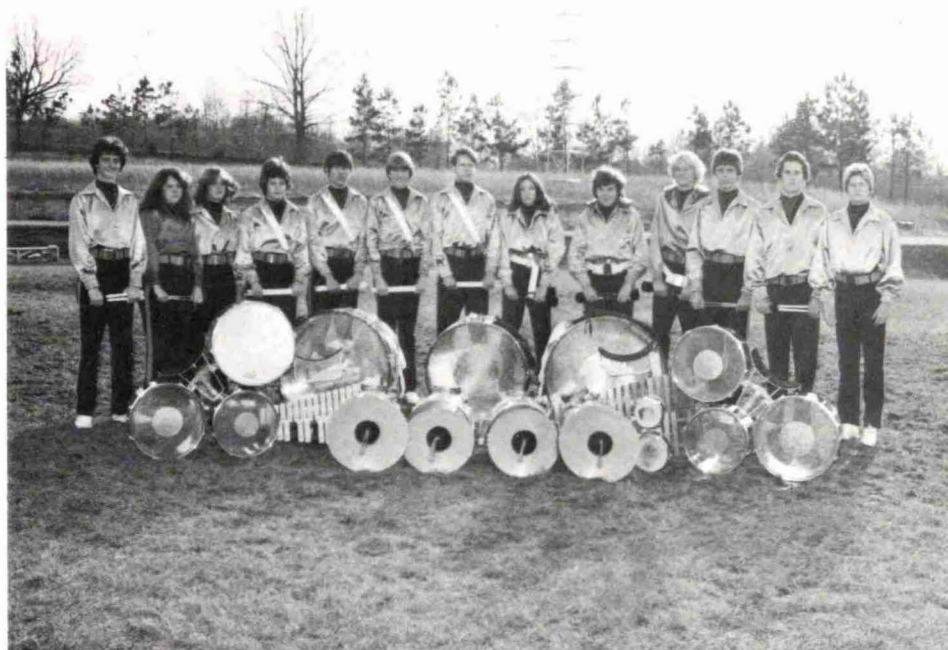

MAJORETTES

Majorettes added the appealing smiles and sparkle to the band show. The 1979 twirlers were Michelle Mackzum, Rosalee Walker, Nancy Hendricks, and Renee Gardner.

TRUMPETS

PERCUSSION

During their first year of corps style drumming, the C.C.H.S. drum line did an outstanding job. Percussionists are Tony Miley, Regina Stephens, Kim Dean, Kim Loomis, Gary Wells, Steve Teeple, Greg Sherrill, Linda Wilder, Tom Bryan, Mitch Myers, Davey Barker, Pat Burk, and Todd Hedgecoth.

The low brass was led by soloist Jim Mitchell, who did an excellent job with his interpretation of "Ease on Down the Road", as well as Mike Hall, who played an outstanding solo during "Largo".

Row 1: Jim Mitchell, Kim Holt, Kelvin Walker, and Ricky Houston.

Row 2: Bart Smith, Mike Hall, Freddie Darnell, Kerry Anderson, Laurie Bunch, Karla Wallace, and David Hinkle.

LOW BRASS

The soprano sound of the band was accentuated by an outstanding flute and piccolo section. Section members are (front row) Angie Guston, Mitzi Evitt, Sheri Hughes, and Bonnie Bruce. Second row: Donna Woody, Teresa Wyatt, Heidi Hewitt, Tracy Turner, and Julie Hamby.

CLARINETS

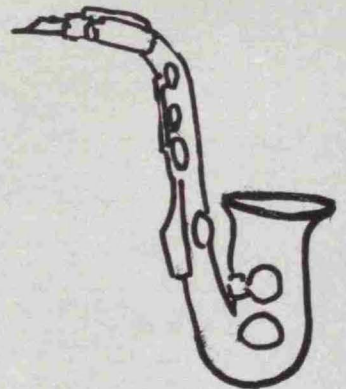

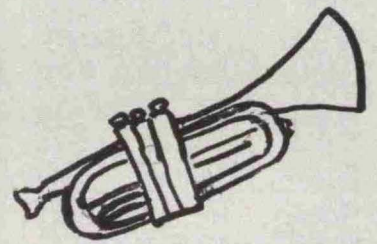

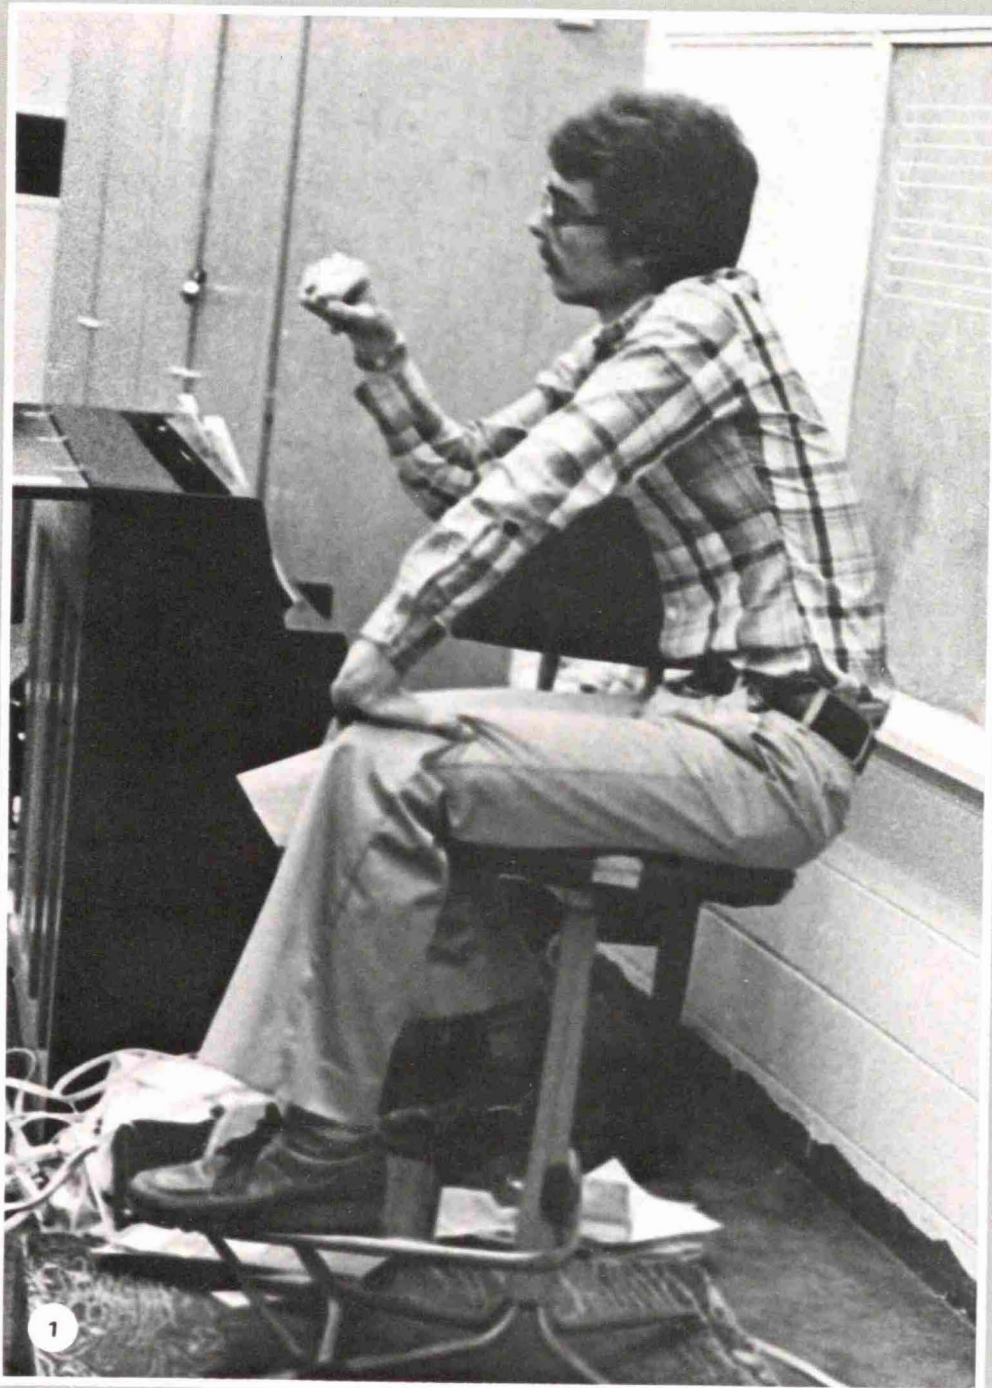

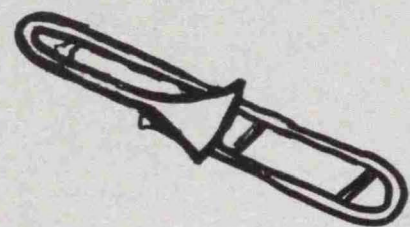

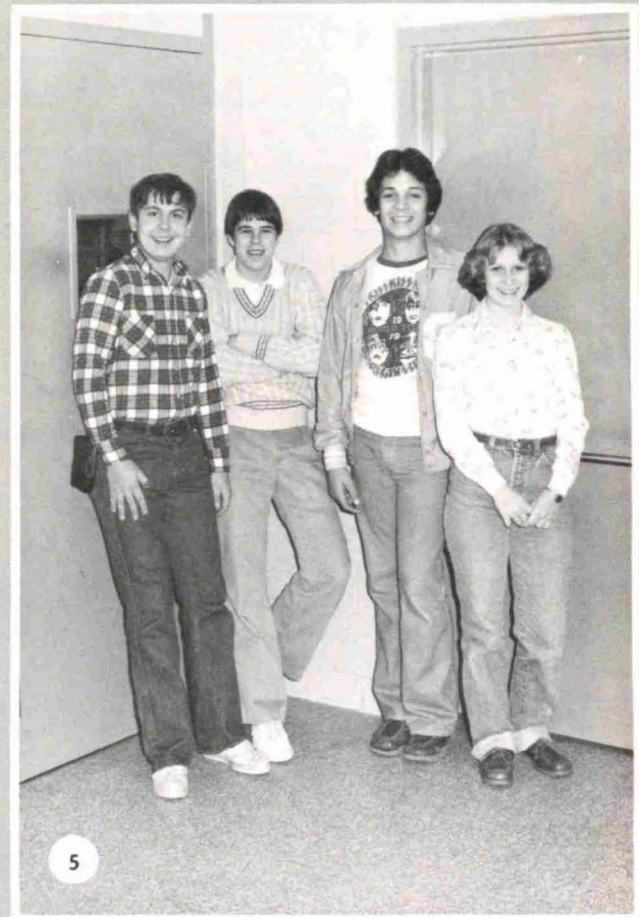

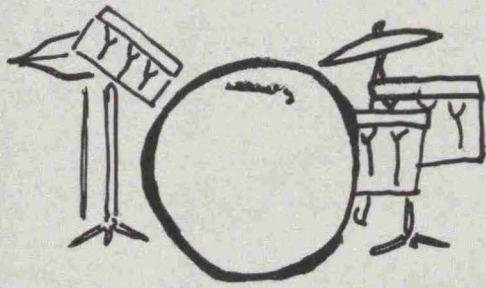

SAXES

The C.C.H.S. Band was lucky to have the sound of a "pure sax" section to add power to the marching show. Members are Frank Harris, Todd Smith, Brad Pharris, Melody Moses, Paula Bunch, Becky Snoddy, Janine Barger, Brenda Cannon, Teresa Marlow, and Joe Mayfield.

The 1979-80 Jazz Band worked hard to provide entertainment at school functions, special concerts, and at various elementary schools. The C.C.H.S. Jazz Band performs mostly pop and jazz music, and they are responsible for most of the instrumental back-ups during Musical Moods.

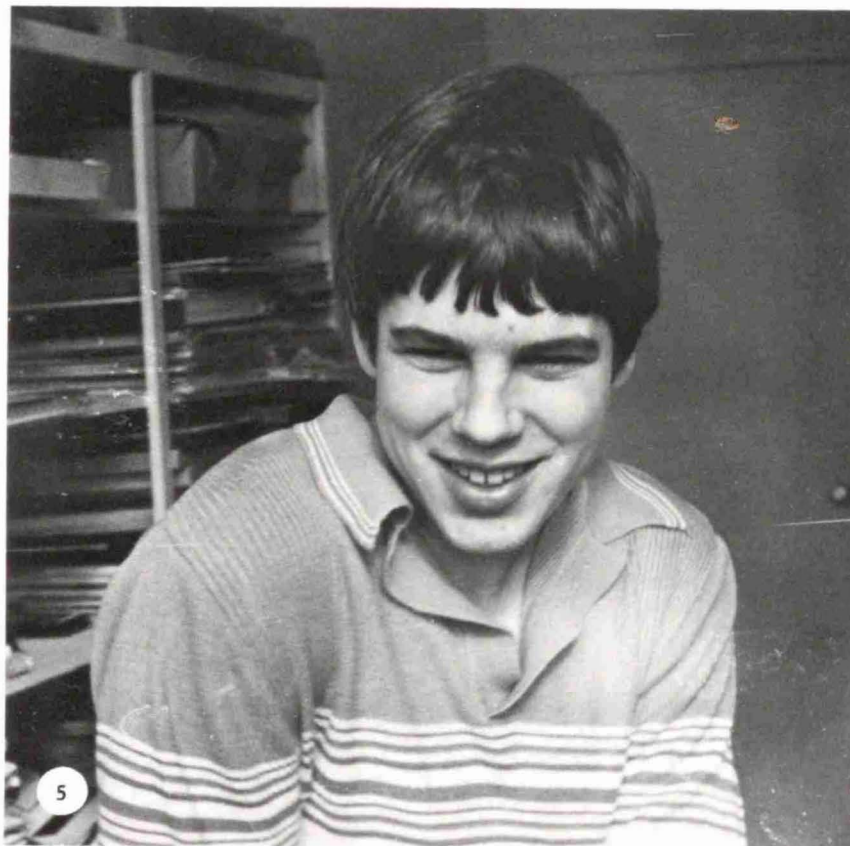

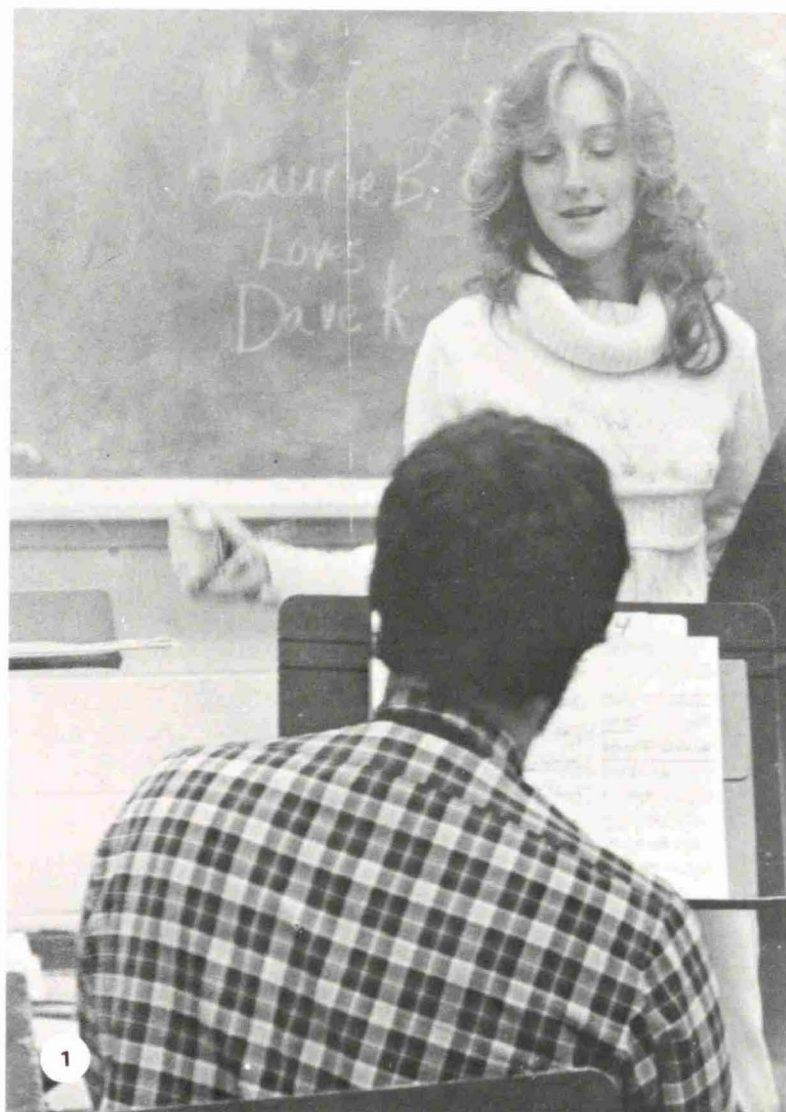

- (1) Known by the band as "Ace", Mr. Ashburn did an excellent job of directing the Jazz Band.
- (2) The real heartbeat of the Jazz Band's sound was found in the rhythm section. Seated: Kevin Eldridge, bass; Mitch Myers, drums. Standing: Linda Wilder, lead guitar; Sabra Stubbs, keyboards; Kim Loomis, drums; Regina Stephens, bass keyboard.
- (3) The screaming trumpet line added excitement to the band's sound. L to R: Russell Clark, Jackie Hicks, Mike Hall, Scotty Creason, and Jeff Lee.
- (4) The close harmony of the sax section added depth to the band's sound. L to R: Becky Snoddy, Paula Bunch, Tania Tripp, Melody Moses, and Joe Mayfield.
- (5) The mighty sound of the trombone line added strength to the band. L to R: Kelvin Walker, Jim Mitchell, Ricky Houston, and Kim Dean.

The C.C.H.S. Band can be full of surprises, however, band members are those people who always see the lighter side of everything.

1. "Okay, Joe, from the top. A-one, a-two ..."
2. Mr. Stepp, director for both the band and choir, shows pride in seeing the results of his hard work.
3. "Honk! Honk!"
4. "Now this ... is a drumstick."
5. "I may look like a nice guy, but really I'm a little devil!"
6. Hear no evil? See no evil?! Speak no evil?!!
7. "Gee, this cabinet sure smells funny ..."

SELECT CHOIR

Club life at CCHS offers a wide variety of activities and diversified programs. There are service clubs, such as the Candy Strippers and Environmental Action, and clubs for academic achievement, such as the Beta Club. Some of the clubs are affiliated with national organizations, such as FTA and VICA, whereas others are our own creations, like the French and Art Clubs.

Some clubs schedule trips. The Spanish Club went to St. Augustine, Florida last March, and the French Club is planning a trip to Canada this summer.

Through various fund raising activities the clubs provide their own financial bases. Endless candy sales made many students never want to see a Goo-Goo Cluster again.

Homecoming Week
Monday — overall, hat, sock and sucker day
Tuesday — 50's day
Wednesday — sweatshirt, jeans and flip-flop day
Thursday — tacky day
Friday — color day

A sockhop was held on Tuesday to go along with 50's day. Thursday night there was a bonfire and a snakedance, which started at the school and ended at the courthouse with a street pep rally.

The annual Homecoming parade, which included many entries of floats, clowns, bands, and students, marched proudly through town on Friday.

The big game was Friday night and we won over the previously undefeated East Ridge Pioneers of Chattanooga, 27 to 18. Following the game, "Medusa" played for a super Homecoming Dance.

The whole fun-filled week of Homecoming activities was planned and directed by the Student Council.

SADIE HAWKINS 1979

Sadie Hawkins 1979 began with the first of three powderpuff games on November 26. The Seniors finally proved themselves champions on November 29, when they were victorious over the Sophomores, 24-12. Ken Walker, Terry Elmore, Jeff Brown, Tommy Holder, and Rodney French coached the Seniors to their victory. The week ended with a dance Friday night, hosted by Brother John St. John from WOKI. Tania Tripp, a junior, was crowned Sadie Hawkins Queen. Runner-ups were Jamie Eldridge, Rhonda Taylor, and Teresa McNeal.

SENIORS — POWDERPUFF CHAMPIONS '79

THE SPIRIT . . .

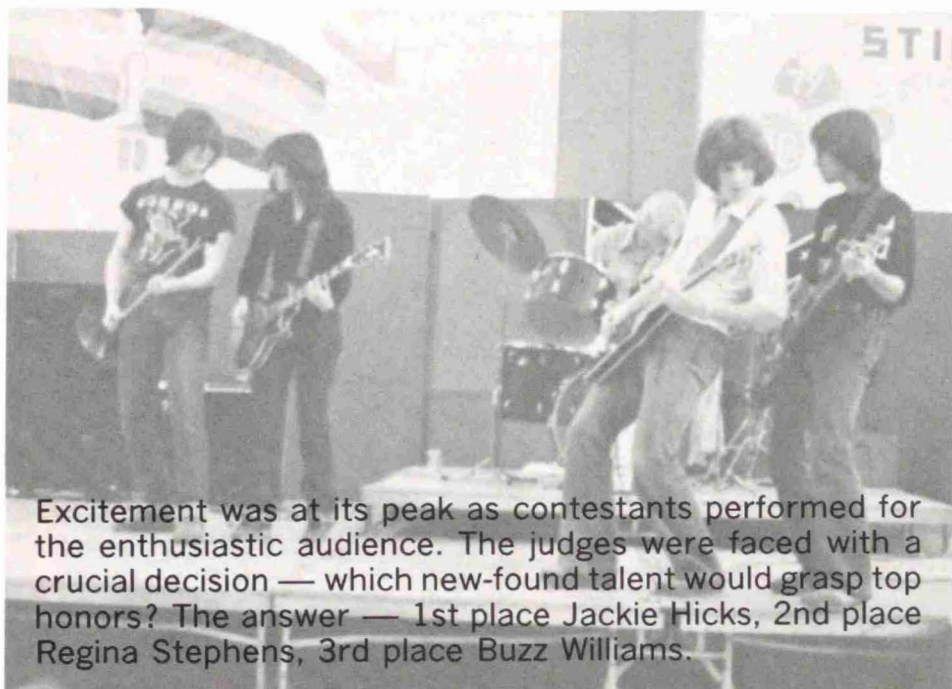

SPIRIT DAY

The gymnasium exploded with enthusiasm as classes competed at the pep rally. Banners and signs waved as shouts of Jets are No. 1 filled the air.

THE TALENT . . .

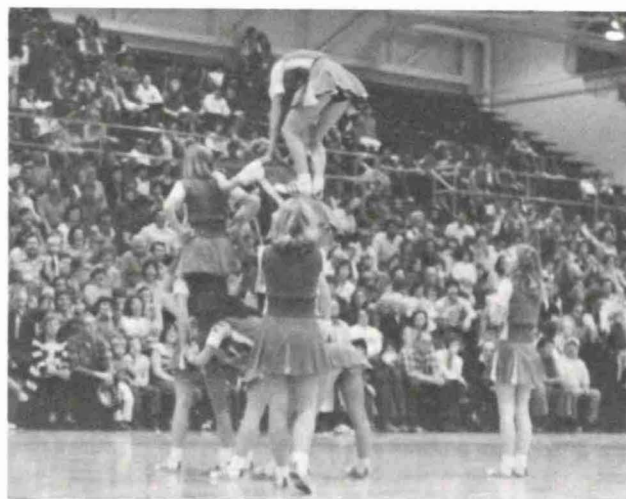

Excitement was at its peak as contestants performed for the enthusiastic audience. The judges were faced with a crucial decision — which new-found talent would grasp top honors? The answer — 1st place Jackie Hicks, 2nd place Regina Stephens, 3rd place Buzz Williams.

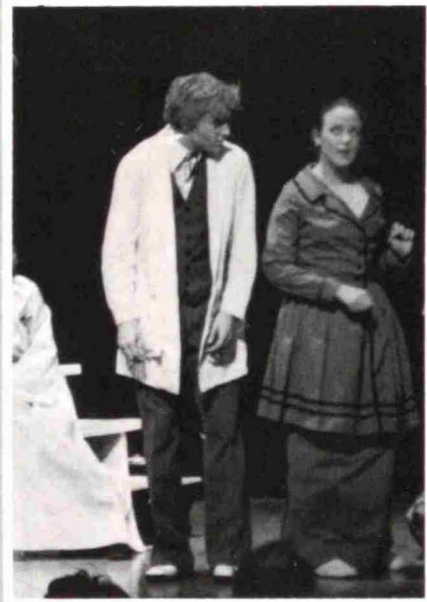

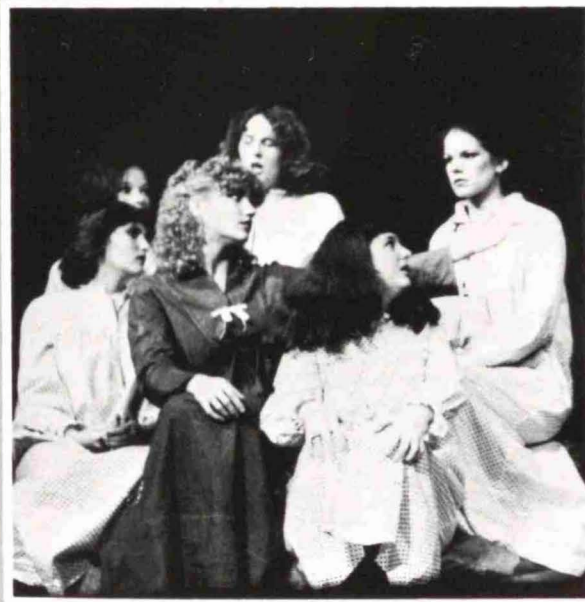

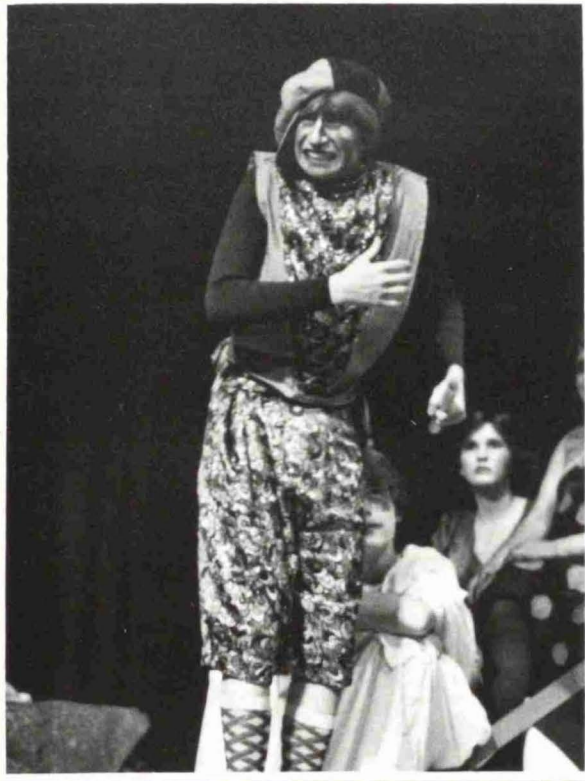

THE GAME . . .

Jet fans, equipped with colorful signs and pom-poms, gathered into the gym prepared to meet the Livingston Wildcats. The Lady Jets were narrowly defeated, but the Jets surpassed the Wildcats for the first time in four years.

"I Sincerely Doubt That This Old House Is Very Haunted"

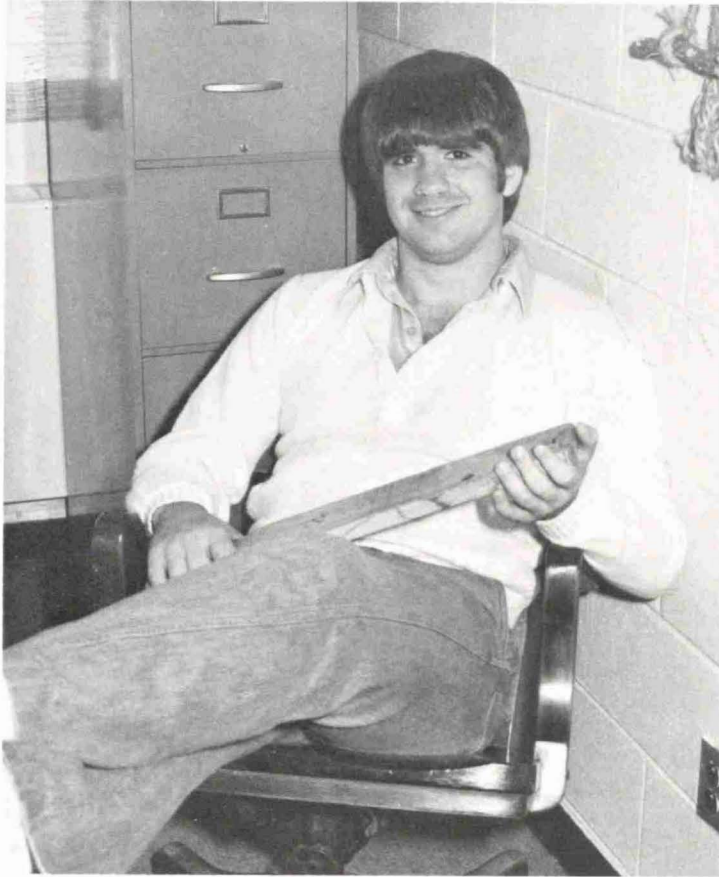

"I Sincerely Doubt that this Old House is Very Haunted" was written by the late Mr. Paul Crabtree, founder of the Cumberland County Playhouse. The play was written in 1965 and first performed by the CCHS Senior class in 1965 at what is now the Cumberland Elementary School. In 1968, it was altered and presented at the Cumberland County Playhouse as "That's the Spirit."

A group of Cumberland County High School students under the direction of B.J. Mosser performed "I Sincerely Doubt that this Old House is Very Haunted" again during the 1979-1980 school year on January 24 and 25.

TOBACCO BOWL

It was November, 1978. The Jets had just ended a year of unimaginable disappointment with an 0-10 record. The team was faced with severe criticism and many fans had lost faith in the coaching staff.

But the coaches and the oncoming 1979 team would not be discouraged. Each player had his own specific goals which he copied on paper. Contrary to the belief that the football team is idle during the non-season months, this group of athletes worked hard from November, 1978 until the final game 12 months later in 1979. Jets pumped iron and did agility exercises every day. Many after school hours were spent running, passing, and kicking.

Spring practice took place in March. Grueling tackling and blocking drills had become a way of life for the Jets. Along with the arrival of summer came the hot, humid, 95 degree days. While others were swimming or skiing, Jets were slaving under steel barbells during the "Power-explosion Program" and sweating on the track below the blistering sun. Pre-season practice rolled along on August 10, together with its suffocating wind-sprints. The dry, cracked lips of the Jets greedily absorbed the Gatoraide provided during the 5 minute break in the middle of practice. It was time for camp. Columbia Military Academy, a torture chamber the Jets will never forget, was the only football camp the Senior Jets had ever known. The team left C.M.A. with optimism; they were "Camp Champs."

After all the drudgery and sweat, the Jets were finally ready for their first game. C.C.H.S. left its Homecoming game undefeated, the number one team in the district, and receiving honorable mention in the state rankings. The team was defeated in its next game but came back to beat Cleveland two games later and clench its dream of long months past, a bowl bid. The Jets went on to achieve a record of 8-2 in regular play.

The biggest moment in the lives of many loyal Jets came on November 17:

THE 1979 TOBACCO BOWL

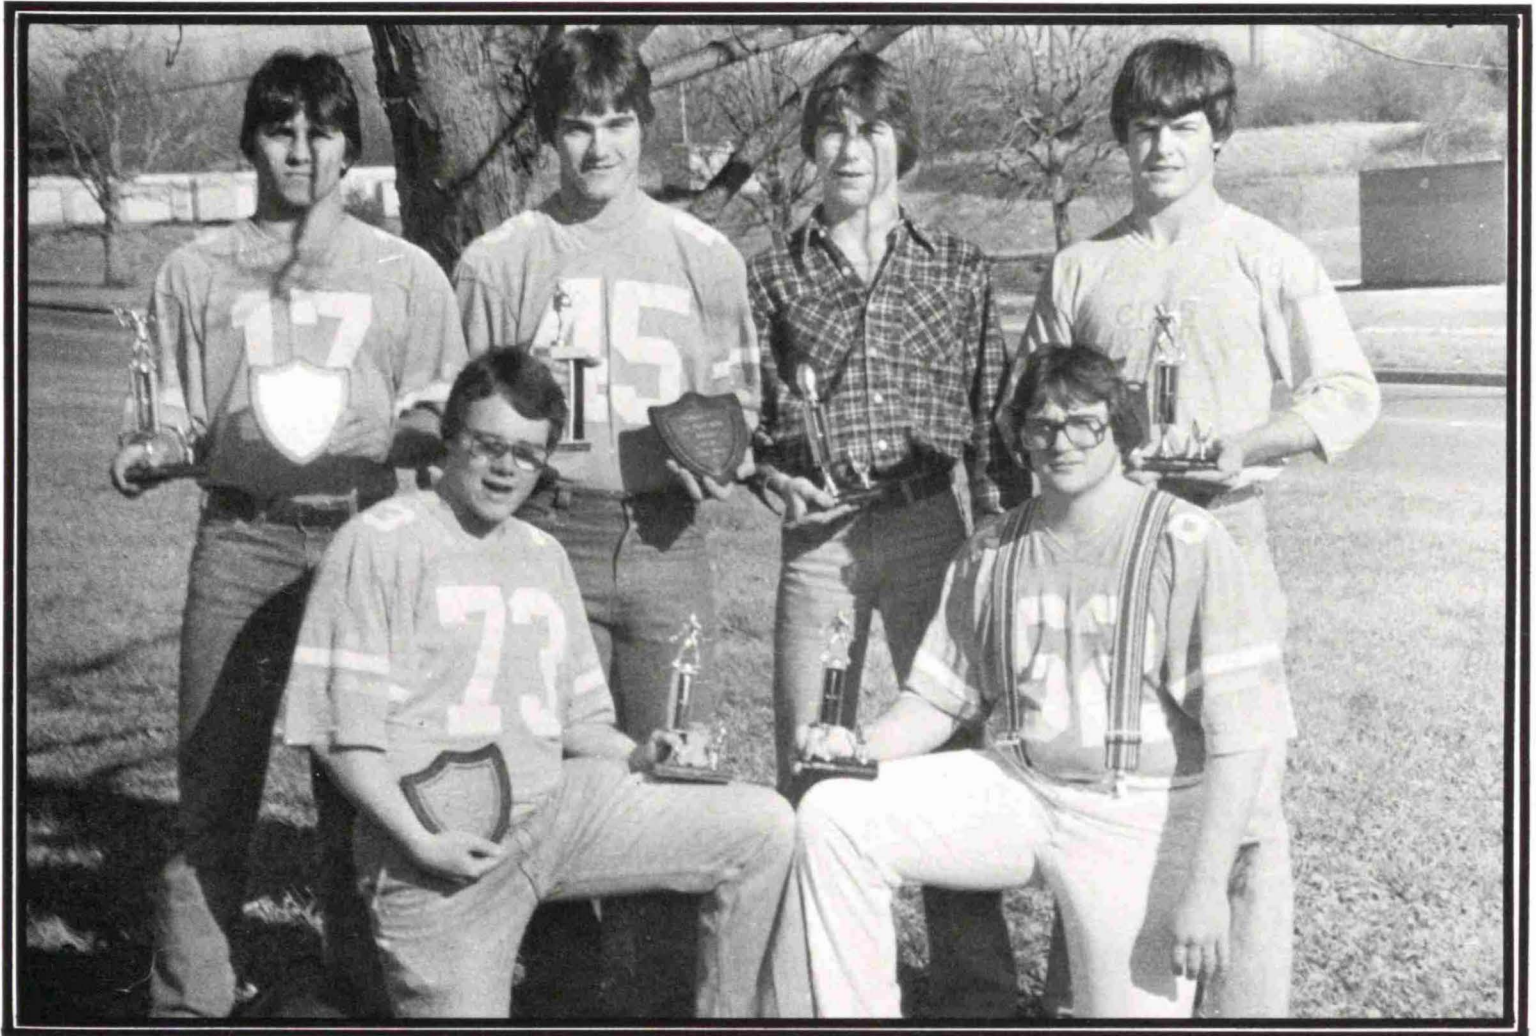

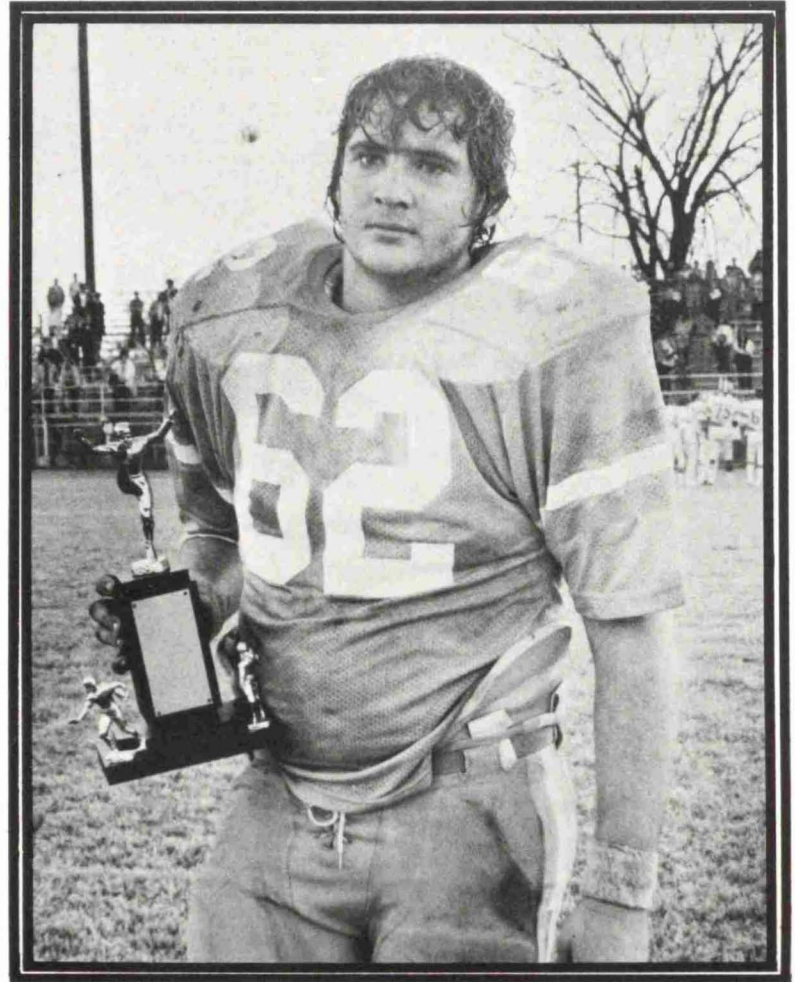

The Jet landed in a tobacco bowl on November 17. There in the bowl to meet the arrogant airplane stood a herd of roaming Rams from Madison, chewing chaws of that delicious leaf. The C.C.H.S. winged wonder took an early 6-0 lead in the first quarter, but the aeromatic aroma of those billy goats had an effect against the Jet. The rambling Rams went romping down the tobacco field to spit in the end zone. The jumbo Jet, then came back hunting lamb livers, and again gained the lead. By late in the fourth quarter, those tin can eaters achieved a 21-12 lead over the desperate demons in blue. The Jet got a grasp on that fickle football and flew it back to the goat goal line to make the score 21-19. With 1:39 left in the game, the Jet regained possession of that tobacco ball but no amount of spitting or chewing could carry that stubborn, inflated pigskin to the end zone of those unrelenting Rams.

Awards — Honorable Mention for All Tri-State Team: Terry Elmore, Jack Clark, and Davey Phillips. Weight Program: Tommy Melton, Dale Barnes, David Crace, Terry Elmore, Rodney French, Tommy Holder, Jack Yates, and Jack Clark.

Dear Friends:

As editors of the 1980 Plateau, we have tried to capture the many smiles and special moments that we have lived throughout the year. Moments from the beginning when our year was only budding, up to the graduation and shedding of the senior "petals".

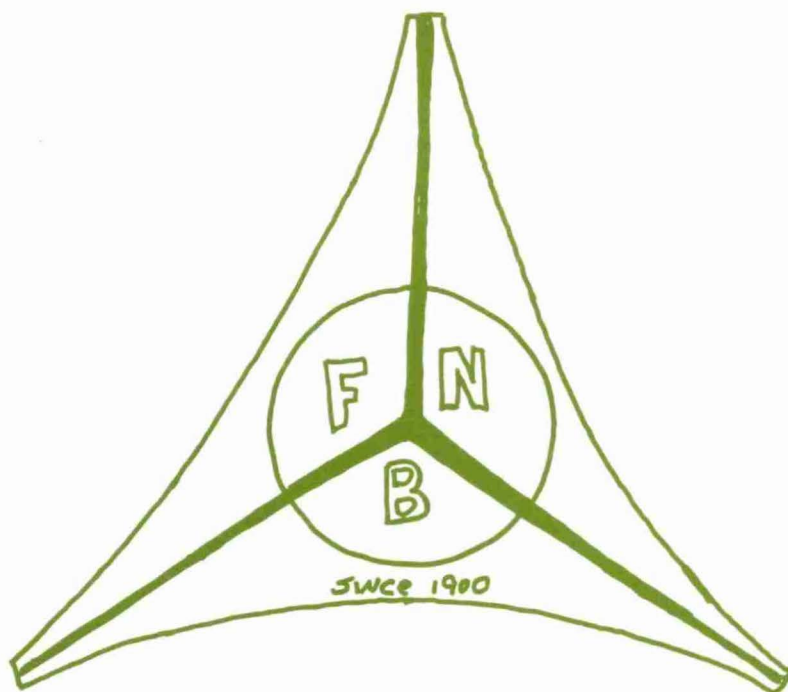

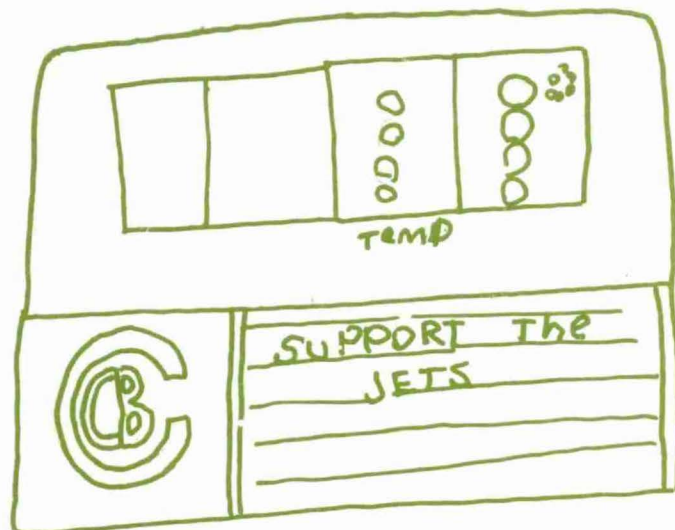

Our staff has spent many hours of hard work toward creation of this book. Also, we especially would like to thank the Cumberland County Times, Crossville Chronicle, Terry Ashburn, Mosser Studio and Bill Hargis for their photographic assistance, and Scott Langford for the outstanding artwork on the division pages. Donna Wilder wrote the lovely poem that was our theme. A very special thanks is extended to our adviser and friend, Mrs. Diane Brown.

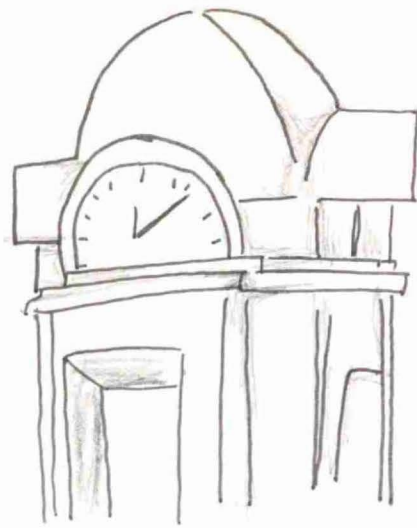

It is hard, as Seniors, to realize that next fall a new year will begin and a new flower will bud without the class of 1980. It is hard to say good-bye to dreams, friends, and promises and we are sometimes reluctant to give up such a beautiful part of our lives . . . but life will go on, and the memories on these pages can never be erased by the passage of time.

Accredited Secondary School

This Certifies That

CUMBERLAND COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

Is accredited by the

Southern Association of Colleges and Schools
1980 and is entitled to all the privileges and scholastic recognition resulting therefrom.

Charles R. Green Sr.

President
Southern Association of Colleges and Schools

H. E. Phillips

Chairman
Commission on Secondary Schools

CCHS ACCREDITED

The 1979-80 school year was a very important one for Cumberland County High School. After five years of hard work by Superintendent of Schools William D. Eberhart, the board of education, the central staff, the county commission, and especially the administration and faculty of CCHS, Cumberland County High School was granted accreditation by the legislative body of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Principal Gary Nixon went to Atlanta in December of 1979 to accept the certificate for this accomplishment. This accreditation is a milestone in educational progress for Cumberland County with the class of 1980 being the first to graduate from the newly accredited school.
