8. Report of Principal

Chairperson Mr. Ray called upon who gave a report to the school council on Math Night (topic) as requested at the April 29, 2021 meeting of the school council.

Mr. Ray discussed math night via zoom. He also discussed the upcoming math and specials night. He also discussed how we had to go back some with procedures like in person grandparents day, etc. Cohorts are being implemented in the classroom. We discussed not mixing a lot of the kids and how this could reduce the amount of school time missed. We are trying to be thoughtful about exposures. Mr. Ray explained being around somebody for more than 15 minutes, it is considered close contacts. Numbers at the beginning spiked but the number has dropped. Jacob Davidson inquired how we handled recess without masks and sharing equipment. Mr. Ray explained we do the best we can to continue having school in a meaningful way. Mrs. Joiner talked about the importance of allowing teachers flexibility to keep them. Mrs. Ray shared 3rd, 4^h, and 5th grade milestones. Third grade was number one in ELA and number 2 in math for the county. Fourth graders were number 4 in ELA and fourth in math.
