Yearbook Staff Spotlight

Article by: Nevaeh Post

Alyssa Parker

I had an opportunity to interview Alyssa Parker. I asked her two questions and she answered them honestly. Alyssa has two siblings and said “my mom actually found out she was pregnant, so this is going to be her 11th child.” Alyssa then told me that she was the 4th oldest child, which I think is very cool. Alyssa thinks that Yearbook class is easy, but once we get further into the year, she thinks it’ll get harder and we will accomplish more things that we want to do.” I agree that the yearbook is going to get harder the further we get into this year.

6th Teacher Spotlight

Article By: Alyssa Parker

This month's 6th grade is Mrs. White! Mrs. White decided to become a teacher because she loves children. Her teaching philosophy is “DO unto others as you would have them do unto yours.” She loves working at AMS because we are like one big family, and we all treat each other with love and respect. I can tell by all of the information that she really loves English! Mrs. White makes sure to grade each student the same. She makes assignments meaningful and covers material that has been taught in a variety of ways. She tries to incorporate music or videos into her teaching. This this month's 6th grade teacher spotlight is Mrs. White!

7th Teacher Spotlight

Article By: Lyndzie Burford

Ms. Cheek-Flowers became a teacher because her maternal grandparents were a very big influence on my decision to become a teacher. They struggled so very hard in her life and they didn't have much of a formal education. School was easy for her. She would do her older brother's homework until they got caught. She would also read everything for her grandparents since there was so much they couldn't read. As a result, they always encouraged her to go to college and become a teacher so she could help others. They would also remind her that: To whom much is given, much is expected. (Luke 12:48)

Ms. Cheek's teaching philosophy is "EVERY student is capable of learning regardless of any disabilities they may have. It's my job to help them and find what helps them to learn."

I recently interviewed Mrs. Teel for Teachers Spotlight! She decided to become an English teacher because she enjoys grammar and literature. She also loves working with kids. Her teaching philosophy is, "If you make it interesting, they will learn." She likes working at AMS because she likes her coworkers and most of the kids here are respectful. She believes we teach English because it is the basis of communication, writing, and literature helps grow ideas. She evaluates her students by their participation and assessments.

I interviewed Preston Crismon who was nominated for this month's student of the month. He decides to be kind to everyone and works hard in school. The advice Preston gives to other classmates is that being nice can do great things for you. The subject Preston excels in is science. He did not know he would be nominated for this achievement. Preston will continue to work hard and show his efforts in school when his month ends. Preston thinks he was chosen for student of the month because he is a kind student. His current goals for this school year are to get through this semester with good grades and to make new friends. His future goals are to donate to a charity and get a good job. Preston is an amazing student!

On a gloomy cool morning, November 4th, 2021, I interviewed the 7th grade student of the month, Hermiley Quoetone. Hermiley was born in Lawton in 2009 on January 20th by an amazing mother, Alison. In the next 5 years Hermiley hopes to have a job and help her family. Her favorite quote is "To be yourself is truly a revolutionary act, and I think more and more people should try it because it's gotten me a pretty cool life" -Lena Waithe Hermiley hopes others see her as independent, hard-working, and smart. Her top 3 goals this year are to make a lot of friends, have high grades, and finish 7th grade. She is a hard-working, smart, and kind student. Life tried to push her down many times but she chose to stand back up each time and that's what made the fearless, independent, hard-working Hermiley Quoetone. "Success is not final, failure is not fatal; it's the courage to continue"

NJHS

Article by: Sofia Lin

Five main purposes have guided chapters of National Junior Honor Society from the beginning: to create enthusiasm for scholarship; to stimulate a desire to render service; to promote leadership; to encourage responsible citizenship; and to develop character in the students of secondary schools. These purposes also translate into the criteria used for membership selection in each local chapter. In order to be considered for the Anadarko Middle School NJHS Chapter the student must have and maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or greater.

Article by Kinley Hill

Why did you decide to become a teacher? "I love watching students have those light bulb moments where everything makes sense. I quite enjoy being a part of that for someone." What is your teaching philosophy? "Help students go from where they are to where they want to be in the most efficient manner possible." Why do you want to work for this school? "The students are so unique here as well as their culture, and I really enjoy learning and growing alongside them." Why do we teach your subject in school? "Other subjects teach head knowledge, but music teaches heart knowledge and how to feel. Knowledge of emotions is just as important as others and how to express them." How do you evaluate your students? "I evaluate students through the progress they make in my class each day, whether or not they can do a little more than yesterday."

think basketball season is going to go? Troy said "Good, because Troy thinks they will work together well and win their games." Troy is number 14. Troy said they have practice 5-6:30.
