FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

C.E. MURRAY MIDDLE SCHOOL EARNS SILVER DESIGNATION

C.E. Murray Middle School is proud to announce that it has been recognized as a Silver High-Performing School based on the 2024–2025 South Carolina School Report Card, a distinction that reflects the school's continued commitment to academic excellence and student growth.

The South Carolina School Report Card evaluates schools across multiple indicators, including student achievement, academic progress, school climate, and college and career readiness. Earning a Silver designation places C.E. Murray Middle School among the higher-performing schools in the state, demonstrating meaningful progress and strong outcomes for students.

"This recognition is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our students, teachers, staff, and families," said Dr. Jonathan Chandler. "At C.E. Murray Middle School, we are committed to creating a culture of high expectations, continuous improvement, and support for every student. This achievement reflects our collective effort to ensure student success."

Throughout the 2024–2025 school year, C.E. Murray Middle School focused on strengthening instructional practices, utilizing data-driven decision-making, and providing targeted support to meet the diverse needs of all learners. Teachers implemented rigorous, standards-based instruction while fostering an engaging and supportive learning environment.

In addition to academic gains, the school has prioritized building positive relationships, enhancing school culture, and expanding opportunities for student growth both inside and outside the classroom.

As the school celebrates this milestone, C.E. Murray Middle School remains focused on continuous improvement and advancing student achievement to even greater levels in the years ahead.

The mission of Williamsburg County School District is to prepare students for college, careers, and citizenship in a global society.
