6	I feel that this school front office staff can be rude and pushy. The school is very aggressive about fundraising. I had an incident at the Christmas luncheon. The front staffers notified me I could not participate because I didn't purchase a lunch. I don't eat certain things and felt very offended when they insisted I could not simply attend the Christmas program. Then proceeded to tell me I interpret the announcement wrong when it clearly stated "tickets are available for purchase" . I could not believe this school was actually going to turn around a parent simply bc we didn't want to purchase a school lunch. I thought the whole idea of programming was to get parents to be a part of the school activities. I believe they just want money! I was highly upset and after going back and forth they reluctantly said "just go inside then".	1/22/2026 5:56 PM

17	Keep the teachers accountable with making sure that all points are kept put to date weekly and our students progress in the classroom often. Progress reports and report cards with numbers don't help us understand how our child is performing.	1/15/2026 3:27 PM
18	First and foremost, find a different  She doesn't like her job - that's clear in her face and demeanor. And she is certainly not creating activities for parents to get involved in. Secondly, the environment is NOT welcoming. I have volunteered on two occasions and both were interesting to say the least (not in a good way). There is definitely a feeling that "you're doing parents a favor" so how dare you even look this way. Lastly, I hope this feedback goes beyond just a read.	1/15/2026 2:45 PM

28	Overall I absolutely love my child's school, some of the staff aren't very nice and act like they are better than you, but for the most part everyone is kind and helpful. I do wish there was better communication other than an app with the teachers.	1/14/2026 8:42 PM
29	We need more notice when it comes to field trips. Most field trips are announced in 30 days or less which make it difficult for parents who want to attend to get off work.	1/14/2026 8:39 PM
30	I think we should be allowed to go to the children's classrooms in the morning when we drop them off.	1/14/2026 8:15 PM

37	Understanding that it is not Covid anymore, but communication has really lacked since then I wish the teachers at all age groups were more engaged with informing the parents of what's going on in your child's day	1/14/2026 4:29 PM
