89-Year-Old Chuck Swindoll 'Not Retiring' but Changing Roles at His Texas Church

Swindoll was one of the first big names in the modern era of radio preachers and megachurch pastors. In the 1980s, while senior pastor at Fullerton Evangelical Free Church in Southern California, Swindoll became a household name alongside the likes of Christian radio superstars like James Dobson, Amy Grant and Michael W. Smith.

Speaker Mike Johnson Honors God Under Difficult Circumstances: 'Trying to Be a Servant Leader'

When we met in the ceremonial room here on Capitol Hill, House Speaker Mike Johnson looked at ease although his job has been anything but. "It's important to note this is not a job I ever aspired to," Speaker Johnson tells CBN News. "We got ourselves in a bit of a pickle here."

Scottie Scheffler: 'I Believe in Jesus.

That's What Defines Me Most.' I've been given a platform to compete and show my talent. It's not anything that I did. ... I think that's what defines me the most is my faith. I believe in one Creator, and I've been called to come out here, do my best, compete, and glorify God. And that's pretty much it.

I would just like to say that i think you all are doing a great job there at power 88. It is the best thing that could have ever happened to radio. Keep up the great work for the lord. We love you all.

Thanks a TON for playing my song selection. I was having a day were I didn't think anything would go right. I was just thinking, if anybody really cares somewhere, something would happen. Then the music and my song played and then another followed right behind it! These totally lifted me day up! I don't know who decided to play it, but I betcha God did it all. I'm going to tell the whole middle school about y'all! Thanks!

Supporting Christian Radio
