Actor Neal McDonough Says Staying True to His Faith Cost Him Jobs in Hollywood

There are certain things Neal McDonough simply won't do — like kiss any woman other than his wife — even though it got the Christian actor fired. It hasn't always made things easy for him in Hollywood, but Neal McDonough puts faith and family first, no matter what!

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

- By keeping JESUS CHRIST first, we believe God will continue blessing Goforth Media. Everything we have God has given us. We have done nothing on our own. We believe we should give back to God. Thank you for what you and your staff do. We praise the Lord Jesus Christ and we feel you do too. Keep up the good work.
- I am 11 years old. My daddy died. I am thankful for your radio station and the songs you play that have helped me over the last year and a half. Songs like Never Alone and God You Reign. This morning I woke up missing him so much and the chorus of the song "There Will Be a Day" was on. Thank you for encouraging me.
