Notification of Long-Term Substitute Status

Dear Parents,

The federal Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) requires schools receiving Title I, Part A funds to notify parents or legal guardians when their child has been taught for four consecutive weeks by a teacher who has not met state certification/licensure requirements.

We are committed to following all guidelines established by the federal Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA), focusing on instruction requiring teachers of core academic subjects to meet criteria classifying them as "state certified." "Several teachers in our district, including your child's teacher, Mr. Lilly, a social studies teacher, have not met the criteria classifying them as "state certified."

We are dedicated to meeting the educational needs of our students and are working to ensure that your child receives the best possible education. Please contact me at the school phone number if you have questions or would like additional information.

Sincerely,

Dear Parents,

The federal Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) requires schools receiving Title I, Part A funds to notify parents or legal guardians when their child has been taught for four consecutive weeks by a teacher who has not met state certification/licensure requirements.

We are committed to following all guidelines established by the federal Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA), focusing on instruction requiring teachers of core academic subjects to meet criteria classifying them as "state certified." "Several teachers in our district, including your child's teacher, Mr. Myers, a science teacher, have not met the criteria classifying them as "state certified."

We are dedicated to meeting the educational needs of our students and are working to ensure that your child receives the best possible education. Please contact me at the school phone number if you have questions or would like additional information.

Sincerely,

Mr. Damian Rosado
