

Randolph County School System “STAR³ Students” for January 2024

Franklinville Elementary School – Christian “Junior” Sosa Ortiz

Franklinville Elementary is proud to announce Junior Sosa Ortiz as our Star³ Student for January. Junior shows Franklinville's SOAR expectations daily. He is trustworthy and always does the right thing even when no one is looking. Junior works hard every day and gives his best effort in all that he does. He is respectful to his peers and all staff members, Junior is the first to offer help when he sees a student or teacher struggling. We are so proud of Junior for being responsible, and hardworking, and how he embodies what it means to be a Franklinville Cardinal every day.

Grays Chapel Elementary School – Lucious Clapp

Lucious Clapp is a hard-working second-grade student at Grays Chapel. He is always willing to go above and beyond expectations both in academics and behavior. Lucious takes pride in his work and has a growth mindset which motivates him to always do his best. His friendly, positive, and kind attitude helps create a fun and sweet atmosphere in his classroom. He is a fantastic person, student, and friend who is truly an asset to the classroom. Grays Chapel is proud to recognize Lucious Clapp as our STAR³ Student for January.

Level Cross Elementary School – Walter Colton Prater

Colton is the most respectful and polite young man. He is a hard-working student who gives 110% of himself every day. Even when things are tough and challenging, he perseveres and never gives up. He is friendly and respectful to everyone at school. He always puts forth his best effort with a smile. He is a good friend to everyone and loves to help his teachers. Colton is always prepared for the day, respectful to others, involved in his classroom, dependable in his actions, and engaged in his learning. He is the picture of what Lion PRIDE looks like and is a great role model for his peers. Level Cross is honored to nominate Walter Colton Prater as the STAR³ student.

Liberty Elementary School – Hector Dominguez

Hector is a great role model to all. He always does the right thing, he is hard-working, dependable, a leader, a great participant, and a friend to everyone. He is humorous, has a great personality, and excels in and out of the classroom balancing extracurricular activities and school. He is also described as being confident, kind, and trustworthy, and someone other students can go to for help when they need it. We are proud to honor Hector with this well-deserved award!

Northeastern Randolph Middle School – Kendal Mundy

Northeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to nominate Kendal Mundy as our STAR³ student. Both as a student-athlete and in the classroom, Kendal strives for excellence in all she does. She demonstrates determination, responsibility, and hard work. Academically, Kendal is an active member of Beta Club. She took a leading role in apparel design and will represent NERMS as a 7th grader at the Beta Club Convention in January. In the classroom, Kendal always strives to do her best both as an individual and when collaborating with a group. She is organized, attentive, and dedicated to putting forth her best effort in all she does. She also holds a leadership role as a media assistant and performs her role effectively and efficiently. Always willing to lend a helping hand, she can perform tasks without direction and seeks ways that she can help others. What makes Kendal such a standout student is her kindness, positivity, and consideration for her fellow peers and teachers. Kendal is always willing to assist others and her enthusiasm and smile make our school a better place.

Providence Grove High School – Alysha Brown

Providence Grove High School would like to recognize Alysha Brown as our STAR³ student. Alysha is a senior at Providence Grove and excels as a student-athlete and an integral member of the student body. Alysha is an A honor roll student, taking all honors level and RCC courses. She is a member of BETA club and serves as the class treasurer in the Student Government Association. Alysha runs track and is captain of the basketball team. Alysha enjoys shopping and spending time with family and friends in her spare time. After graduation, Alysha plans to attend UNC-Chapel Hill or Winston Salem State University to study accounting in sports management. Patriot Nation could not be more proud to call Alysha our STAR³ student of the month!

Ramseur Elementary School – Adyn Miller

Ramseur Elementary is proud to recognize Adyn Miller as the STAR³ student for January. According to his 5th-grade teachers, Adyn always tries his best to find any opportunity to be helpful to those around him. He is kind and a good friend to others in his classroom and across the grade level. He is respectful to his teachers and has a great work ethic! This includes putting forth effort into everything he does. He participates in classroom discussions, asks questions, and completes his assignments. Adyn has demonstrated a desire to learn and grow in all subject areas and we are proud of his success as a student. He truly embodies what it is to be a RAM!

Randleman Elementary School – Benleigh Vanover

Benleigh Vanover, our STAR³ student of the month, embodies exemplary qualities that set her apart. Trustworthy and honest, Benleigh consistently demonstrates responsibility by completing tasks without needing reminders. Her compassion and kindness shine through in her interactions with both classmates and the broader school community. Always attentive and listening, Benleigh's dedication to her work is commendable. Her strong work ethic is evident as she consistently goes above and beyond, working diligently without hesitation. Moreover, Benleigh's kindness and helpful nature extend beyond the classroom, making a positive impact throughout the entire school. In essence, Benleigh is a role model, showcasing not only academic excellence but also the character traits of integrity, diligence, and a genuine concern for others. For these reasons and so many more, we are proud to present Benleigh Vanover as Randleman Elementary's STAR³ student for January.

Randleman High School – Valeria Moreno-Sanchez

Valeria Moreno-Sanchez is the type of student that every teacher wants to have in his or her classroom. She is driven, dependable, creative, and talented. Her art teacher says that Valeria's "mastery over certain mediums has reached a professional level" and that her "growth and talent cannot be measured." All of her teachers share that her work is always exemplary. Valeria has tremendous academic talent and potential, but what is really special about her is her heart. She has such a sweet presence about her that draws people to her. Her positive attitude is such a breath of fresh air in a world that can feel very discouraging. On top of that, she is warm and empathetic in a way that makes everyone around her feel heard and validated. Randleman High School is proud to honor Valeria Moreno-Sanchez as our STAR³ Student.

Randleman Middle School – Karrington Brown

Karrington Brown is not your typical middle school student. While she is an outstanding student academically, her demeanor and compassion cause her to stand out above the rest. She is kind to all students, and always willing to lend a helping hand. All students are treated equally and she doesn't disregard those who may be differently abled. Her efforts to make our students with disabilities feel included and valued is something that touches the hearts of staff members. Karrington is a leader who is always willing to assist both students and staff. It is rare to see her without a smile on her face. As a classmate, she is an encourager and consistently goes out of her way to be kind to others. Karrington Brown is the type of student who exemplifies the vision at RMS and we are proud to select her as our STAR³ student for January.
