

CES Student Spotlight
February, 2026

Laniaya Tucker

Laniaya exudes responsibility, helpfulness, and is consistently kind to both peers and staff members. She stays focused and on task, takes ownership of her learning, and sets a positive example in the classroom.

Beyond academics, she is able to balance sports commitments with school responsibilities exceptionally well and continue to thrive in both areas.

Her strong work ethic and positive attitude is a joy to teach.
Thank you for being such an exceptional student!
