

CES Student Spotlight #1

January, 2026

Madilyn Krueger

Madilyn is gentle, kind, and polite. She is flexible socially and willing to partner with any student in our class. Madilyn models positive behavior and meets the expectations of her classroom and the school. She always tries, even when it is challenging, and keeps a positive attitude. She is an extremely dynamic student and I feel lucky to have her in my class.

Sidebar: She has chickens like I do and we often chat about our poultry. She also has cows and calves SHE LOVES and has fun stories to tell about them.

Madilyn is a very sweet, young lady - always courteous and responsible. She continuously remains on task and willing to share her positivity. She can be counted on for being willing and able to work with any classmates whether for a team challenge or to work on specific skills.

Madilyn demonstrates perseverance. She tackles each challenge with determination, effort, and a positive attitude. Madilyn's consistent hard work, thoughtful choices, and cheerful presence make music class a brighter and more encouraging place.
